T O T H E P U B L I C K

Keos County, the 17th of the 5th Month, 1771.

WHEREAS in the Maryland Gazette, No. 1336, I this Day have seen a false and unjust Accusation against me (and not before) insigated by Thomas Gillson, who hath not stuck heretofore to villify my Character in private, and mostly behind my back; and having prevailed with the Author of the said Accusation, to insert what is therein contained, using Expressions the Author himself not knowing the Meaning thereof, and persuading him thereby he might rid himself of the Payments due unto me, and being an industrious Farmer, not skilled in the Laws, nor attending to the Equity of my Contracts with him, for since the whole Transactions between us (he seeking to take an Advantage of me; was defeated in his Design, took Umbrage thereat) I have offered him Forty Pounds to relinquish all our former Contracts, which he refused; I not designing any Dispute with him; nor to have it said that I took any Advantage of one who knew but little; since which he hath bent with me offering to pay and settle Matters, finding himself misled by the Inducer thereto (but the Cause of T. G. interfering I apprehend arises from my former Transactions, in Part, interfering with him in the Merchandise Way; being very near him, when an artful and deep-laid Scheme by an aged Professor, who finding that I eclipsed the Rise and Progress of his Son-in-Law, by keeping Goods down at a moderate Price, also the Market of Grain up; and to effect the Tragedy fell on the following Mode, and gave Counsel to me as a Friend, advised me to purchase my Father's Mill; and that a Debt due him from my Father for Three Hundred and Thirty Pounds, he would take me and wait for the same, which accordingly I did, not apprehending his fordid Intentions, found, but when it was too late, myself taken in his Snare, for he soon began to effect the Matter in a private Manner, publishing the great Danger any would be in trusting me, and that he himself had refused, as being well acquainted with my Circumstance, saw the Danger, and therefore cautioned his Friends then immediately without my Knowledge, had Attachments laid on my Flour at Duck Creek; as soon as I heard thereof, I went and paid his Demand, which Attachment was obtained by the Qualification of his Son (how far true I leave) mean Time a Parcel of my Flour came up to Philadelphia, which he prevailed on the Skipper to deliver unto him; notwithstanding I had a known Factor to whom I had given general Orders for my Flour to be delivered unto; the Skipper pretended he had no particular Orders, so excused himself, however the Flour was secreted in his own Cellar, pretending to keep others from attaching it; but the Truth of the Matter I believe was, to attach it himself, provided his Son should not succeed in his Enterprize, not being then returned, also meeting with my Wife's Father, who had lent me a considerable Sum of Money to pay towards the Mills; earnestly pressed him to proceed in like Manner, or he would lose his Money, and would do his Daughter no good as my Debts were large, but could not prevail, but he so far disregarded it, that he did not even write on the Occasion; I own my Debts were very large at that Time, and Trade extensive, having then in my Hands, and good Debts in the Country, amounting to upwards of Six Thousand Pounds, and could have any Credit I chose, was in a flourishing Trade to advantage, had not the fordid Scheme been laid, for since I have been labouring under a Disadvantage, as my Credit was exceedingly hurt thereby, I immediately called my Creditors together, and then know the Ground of the artful Scheme, and that I was willing to give them any Security that was in my Power, and they were in part Strangers to my Circumstances, gave them a Mortgage which remained upwards of Four Years, since on which we have had a full Settlement and other Agreements came unto, they generously abating one Fifth Part of their Debts, which notwithstanding I intend in Justice and Equity to satisfy, and that none may have more than a reasonable Profit on the Goods sold, I desire the First Costs thereof may be produced, otherwise I should not have accepted of the Abatement, but to do myself and them Justice, who have acted as Men of Honour and Humanity to their Praise; having made a Digression from the Point most minutely relative to the fore Part, shall just add, that I having discovered a Parcel of vacant Land, which includes T. G. Mills and Meadows, or at least claimed by him, which Matter I offered to leave to judicious Men, indifferently chosen to judge between us, and gave him Two months to consider on it, but he hath refused, to the Disreputation of the Society; he makes Profession of. Please to excuse so long a Relation of Matters, for I would choose brevity if possible, but I hope to possess as well as profess, to do to others as I would they should to me.
