

West Indies, Admiral Montagu for Halifax, Commodore Byron for Newfoundland, Sir Peter Dennis will command a powerful Fleet in the Mediterranean. At 5 o'clock 21 Ships of War.

DURHAM, June 1. On Monday the 27th ult. a riotous Mob assembled, and entered the House of Mr. Peter Heverin, on Uther's Quay, Merchant, and took out Woollen Cloths to a considerable Amount, and burnt and destroyed the same; and on Wednesday the 29th, attacked the House of Mr. William Witherington, of Grafton-Street, Woollen-Draper, fired several Shot, and dangerously wounded a Gentleman belonging to his Family.

BOSTON, July 22.

Last Saturday a Ship arrived here from England, having on board a Number of Recruits for the 14th and 59th Regiments; the former quartered at Cattle-William, in this Harbour, and the latter at Halifax, in Nova-Scotia.

NEW-YORK, July 29.

Wednesday last his Excellency Lord Dunmore, set out in his Yacht, for Albany.—On his passing the Fort he was saluted with 14 Guns.

The following is an Extract of a Letter received last Week from a Gentleman in Pennsylvania, who is distinguished for an uniform Attention to the true Liberties of his Countrymen. The Reflections he makes must convince every sensible Person of the Necessity of the Measures lately pursued by that truly great Character which now presides over this Province.

"A Kind of internal War is carried on within the Bounds of this Province, which, if not speedily checked, will have serious Consequences to us, and prove as dangerous as the Regulators of North-Carolina: I mean the Attempt of the Connecticut People, with a Set of lawless Banditti from our Frontier, to fix a Settlement at Wyoming, on the North Branch of Susquehanna.—There have been frequent Engagements between these People and ours, some Lives have been lost, and several Laws passed against them. We expect daily to hear of another Engagement, for they are besieging our People with a large Body.

"It is the Opinion of Folks in this Country, that, if some Method is not taken upon of reducing these Frontier Rioters to a Submission to Law, that one general Chain will be formed of them throughout the whole Continent, as the Views and Conduct of them all are similar."

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.

Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, June 12.

"Two Packets arrived here Yesterday from England, but bring no very material News, only that Mr. Wickes and Parson Horne have entered into a Paper War, where they lash one another very severely, and in very scurrilous Language.

"Yesterday an Express arrived at this Court from Paris, in Nine Days and a Half, giving an Account that a Civil War had broke out in France. As the Post from those Parts comes in the Day after Tomorrow, we expect to hear the Particulars, and of bloody Work, the People being determined to sell their Privileges very dear."

ANNAPOLIS, August 9.

Arrived since our last, the Peace and Plenty, Smith, the Hope, Hesper, and the Hazard, New, all from London.—The two former in Patuxent, and the latter at this Port.

The Officer presents his Compliments to Mr. E—T—, and begs he will take Notice, that the following Errors in his Second Letter, (except amended for coaxed) were committed, through the Hurry and Inadvertence of the Transcriber. In 5th Section, for "collected by the People" read "collected from the People."—In 6th Section; for "who is guilty," read "who are guilty."—In 7th Section, for "waxed and wheedled," read "coaxed and wheedled."—In 10th Section, for "When in your legislative," read "Whence in your legislative;" and an (?) instead of a (.) after put together.—For "But these very Men," read "Y—t these very Men."—For "these Lawyers," read "these Lawyers."—In 11th Section, for "customary Mode of conniving at," read "customary Mode, connived at."
