FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

April 9, 1771. AN away from the Subscriber, living in Roxborough-Township, Philadelphia County, on the 7th Instant, a Dutch Servant Lad, named Philip Lutz, about 18 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 5 Inches high, and grows fast, of a lean Visage, light brown short Hair, being lately cut, he is a little knock-kneed, flat-footed, speaks good English, but is awkward, and of a down bashful Look, has been in the Province between 4 and 5 Years, and served chief of the Time at the Cooper's and Miller's Business: Had on when he went off, a new blossom coloured Cloth Coat and Vest, a Pair of Leather Breeches, a Felt Hat, and a Check Shirt; and took with him, a blue flowered Flannel Vest, a Pair of blue Everlasting Breeches, a white Shirt, and had Two Pair of Stockings, with good Shoes. Whoever takes up the said Servant, and will convey him to the Work-House, in Philadelphia, or secure him in any Jail, so that I may get him again, shall have the above Reward, paid by EDWARD MILNER, N. B. He has since been seen near Jeffers in Baltimore County, Maryland, and it is thought will endeavour to get settled in some of the Mills in that Province.

Annapolis, July 24, 1771. THE Subscriber has lately received Letters from England, informing him of sundry Books, on Painting, and a Number of Prints being sent him, but by what Ship, or to what Part of Virginia or Maryland they were sent, he is totally at a Loss to find out. Any Gentleman that may be in Possession of the Books, Prints, &c. and will send them to the Subscriber, or give him Information of them, shall be well rewarded for his Trouble, and receive the Thanks of his Very humble Servant, CHARLES W. PEALE.

May 23, 1771. STRAYED from the Subscriber on the 5th Inst. S a dark sorrel Horse, about 13 Hands 3 Inches high, branded on the near Shoulder F W paces slow, trots and gallops, has a small Star in his Forehead, switch Tail, hanging Mane, and walked lame when he went away. Whoever brings the said Horse to Capt. Francis King, in Piscataway, or the Subscriber living in Pomony Neck, about Nine Miles below Piscataway, shall receive Four Dollars Reward; if further than Twenty Miles from my House, Five Dollars. RICHARD BRANDT.

AN away from the Subscriber, living in Chester-Town, Maryland, Two white Servant Lads, viz. The one named JAMES FRANCIS, belonging to Stephen Bordley, junr. the other named GEORGE TIPPINS, belonging to William Bordley. JAMES FRANCIS is short thick set, of a fair Complexion, has fair Hair, and down look, can write a tolerable good Hand, and pretends to know something of Navigation: Had on and took with him, a brown Country made Coat, Country Linen Trousers, a Pair of white broad Cloth Breeches that will not fit him, Two Silver Knee Buckles not well made, and a Pair of Shoes that were not made for him, and upon Examination will appear too long and narrow for him. GEORGE TIPPINS is slender made, of a fair Complexion, short light coloured Hair, has been some Time on board of a Man of War, can neither read or write: Had on and took with him, an old blue lapelled broad Cloth Coat, an old Nankeen Coat patched at the Elbows and under the Arms, with new Nankeen, a Pair of light blue Breeches, and a Pair of white Breeches made of Ticking. It is probable JAMES FRANCIS may forge Passes for them both. Whoever takes them up and secures them, so that the Subscribers get them again, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, from STEPHEN BORDLEY, junr, WILLIAM BORDLEY.

LOST between M'Donnall's Tavern and Dr. Scott's Plantation, on the Baltimore Road, on Sunday Morning, a light coloured Chestnut, commonly called sorrel or yellow Gelding, with a good deal of white on his Face, and on Two of his Legs, and had a Saddle on. Insurance-Office, Baltimore, July 29, 1771. I Take this Method to acquaint all Gentlemen, Merchants, Masters of Ships or Vessels, Traders and others; that I have lately opened an Office for insuring Ships, Vessels and Cargoes, on any fair Risk, at the customary Premium, and supported by a Number of Gentlemen of Probity and Property as Underwriters. Any Orders accompanied with the Premium or Credit, shall be punctually executed, by their very humble Servant, THOMAS BRERETON.

July 30, 1771. AN away from the Coffee-House in Annapolis, an indented Servant Man, named OLIVER STEPHENS, about 23 Years of Age, 5 Feet 8 Inches high, wore his own Hair, light coloured Cloaths, and also carried some light coloured Jennet, which had been cut out, but not made up, away with him; he is very slender, and has a remarkable thin Face, is a Native of Ireland, as may be easily gathered from his Conversation, he plays tolerably on a Variety of musical Instruments, viz. The Violin, Clarinet, Guitar, German Flute, &c. Tho' not yet Nine Months in the Country, yet this is his second Elopement; he has shewn great Ingratitude to mild and even genteel Treatment. 'Tis supposed he is either gone by Water to Philadelphia, or lies concealed in this Town. If any Person through Ignorance of the Law has harboured him, by securing him and giving immediate Notice thereof to Mrs. Howard, at the Coffee-House, he will not only avoid a Prosecution, but be handsomely rewarded. Five Pounds will be paid by the said Mrs. Howard, to the Person who apprehends said Oliver Stephens, if taken more than 10 Miles from Annapolis, or Three Pounds if nearer, and lodged in Jail, so that Mrs. Howard may have him.

Annapolis, July 23, 1771. THE Subscriber takes this Method of acquainting his Friends and the Publick, that he intends to decline keeping Tavern August Court next, and returns his sincere Thanks for the Countenance and Encouragement he has hitherto met with; and as he much wishes to settle every Account before he quits the said Business, earnestly requests those who are indebted to him, to call and discharge their respective Balances; and all those who have Claims against him to bring them in, and they shall be punctually adjusted and paid. JAMES REITH.
