PETERSBURGH, May. 14.

HIS City is at present the Rendezvous of many different Nations. We have Bredziah and Jedisfanky Tartars, Kirkizes that border on China, Geelans, Greeks, Circassians, Caburdians, and Crebans, Poles and Costacks, all of them differing in Physiog-Kirkizes inhabit Mount Imaus. They have fent a numerous Embassy, which has been Six Months on its Journey. Among them is a young Prince, who has 29 Brothers, and cannot tell how many Wives the Chan his Father possesses.

LEGHORN, May 14. We learn from Calabria, that they have apprehended a Robber called Bruno Grillo, who had rendered himself formidable by the many Assassinations which he has committed for these 12 Years paft. He had made himself, in a deep Forest, a subterraneous Retreat, which would never have been discovered, had he not been betrayed by the Man who carried him Provisions, and who was the only human Being with whom he held any Commerce. This Vil. lain has confessed, that he committed 63 Murders.

VIENNA, May 25. Couriers constantly pass and re-als, between our Court and those of Berlin and Petersburgh; but we know nothing of the Contents of their Dispatches. The Marks of Esteem, however, which are shown to Count Orlow and Prince Dolgo-rucki, who are unexpectedly arrived here, clearly prove that a good Understanding subsists between her Imperial Majesty and the Empress of Russia.

PARIS, May 31. On the 27th Inft. 42 Counsellors of the Chatelet received Letters de Cachet, which banish them to different Places. They have Orders to depart

A new Treaty is now on Foot between the Courts of Versailles and Turin, and nearly concluded, which it is said, is in direct Opposition to the Treaties between the Sardinian and British Courts.

We hear that Commodore Byron has carried out with him fresh Instructions to keep the French within their Boundaries, for carrying on the Cod Fifter at Newfoundland, as every Seafon, fince the Contlaint at Newfoundiand, as every seaton, innce the Contlu-fion of the late War, they have given great Trouble to the Governors, and the Captains of the Men of to the Governors, and the Captains or the Men of War stationed there, by setting up fresh Claims to Harbours, Fishing-works, &c. besides pretending a Right to the Salmon and Whale Fisheries.

His Majesty's Ship the Panther of 60 Guns, Capt.

Gayton, in which the Hon. Commodore Byron was proceeding to his Command to Newfoundland, is put back to Plymouth, with the Lofs of her Mainmast.

Saturday Morning, at Four o'Clock, died George Montague Dunk, Earl of Halifax, Viscount Sunbury, Secretary of State for the Northern Department, Ranger and Warden of Salcey Forest and Bushy Park, Lord Lieutenant and Cystos Rotulorum of Northamtonshire, and one of his Majesty's most Hon. Privy Council, Knight of the Garter, a Governor of the Charter-House, and Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Forces.

Last Night died at his House near Hanover-Squire, after a tedious and painful Illness, which he bore with the greatest Fortitude and Resignation, the Bishop of St. David's in 1744, and translated to the See of Durham in 1752, in both which Dioceses his Name will be long remembered with Honour and Regret, by Laity as well as Clergy.

We are well affured, that feveral Changes of Confequence will take Place in a short Time, upon the Refignation of several great Men now in Office.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Lord Suffolk killed his Majesty's Hand, on being appointed Secretary of State-for the Northern Department, in the Room of the late Earl of Halifax.

All the foreign Ministers resident here are House making a Jest of the egregious Folly and glarn; Abfurdity, in appointing Lord Suffolk Secretary o State, and Mr. Wheately his Comes, neither of whom cas speak a fingle Sentence of French.—O Flesh, tlesh, bow art thou fishified!

We hear that the Society of the Bill of Rights, who have again begun a Subscription for the Payment of Mr. Wilkes's Debts, will, at their next Meeting, take into Confideration the State of the 1 500 l. which was remitted to that Society from Charles. Town.—The feveral Members of the Assembly, who voted that Sum out of the publick Money, did it, no Doubt, with a good Delign, and for the good of the Province; but bave fince found to their Coft, that they must stand to the Loss of this Sum themselves, as it can ict now be taken from the publick Cash of the Province. And it is certainly every Way confiltent with the spir t and Conduct of so publick spirited an Institution as the Society of the Bill of Rights to preferve their Friends from being Sufferers in their private Capacity, for what they did as Members of the Assembly, especially if it be confidered, that many, who, in their Zeal for a good Caufe, gave their Vote, can very ill afford to pay their Quota towards such a Sur of Money.
