A new Treaty is now on Foot between the Courts of Versailles and Turin, and nearly concluded, which, it is said, is in direct Opposition to the Treaties between the Sardinian and British Courts.

We hear that Commodore Byron has carried out with him fresh Instructions to keep the French within their Boundaries, for carrying on the Cod Fishery at Newfoundland, as every Season, since the Conclusion of the late War, they have given great Trouble to the Governors, and the Captains of the Men of War stationed there, by setting up fresh Claims to Harbours, Fishing-works, &c. besides pretending a Right to the Salmon and Whale Fisheries.

His Majesty's Ship the Panther of 60 Guns, Capt. Gayton, in which the Hon. Commodore Byron was proceeding to his Command to Newfoundland, is put back to Plymouth, with the Loss of her Mainmast.

Privy Council, Knight of the Garter, a Governor of the Charter-House, and Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Forces.

Last Night died at his House near Hanover-Square, after a tedious and painful Illness, which he bore with the greatest Fortitude and Resignation, the Bishop of St. David's in 1744, and translated to the See of Durham in 1752, in both which Dioceses his Name will be long remembered with Honour and Regret, by Laity as well as Clergy.

Private Letters from Paris assure, that the Princes of the Blood and Nobles, who have been banished, are expected daily to be recalled, and that the Affairs of that Kingdom will then be put on a more amicable Footing.

June 14. Yesterday there was a grand Court and Drawing-room at St. James's, at which his Majesty was present; all the great Officers of State, foreign Ministers, &c. attended; after it was over, a Cabinet Council was held, at which the Lords North, Rochford, and Suffolk, assisted.

It is reported that the Duke of Grafton's being appointed Lord Privy Seal was without the Consent of Lord North, who had offered it to Lord Chatham, by whom it was rejected, he insisting on Lord Camden's being restored, as likewise on a Dissolution of Parliament.

We are well assured, that several Changes of Consequence will take Place in a short Time, upon the Resignation of several great Men now in Office.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Lord Suffolk kissed his Majesty's Hand, on being appointed Secretary of State for the Northern Department, in the Room of the late Earl of Halifax.

All the foreign Ministers resident here are Hourly making a Jest of the egregious Folly and glaring Absurdity, in appointing Lord Suffolk Secretary of State, and Mr. Wheately his Comes, neither of whom can speak a single Sentence of French.—O Flesh, Flesh, how art thou fishified!

We hear that the Society of the Bill of Rights, who have again begun a Subscription for the Payment of Mr. Wilkes's Debts, will, at their next Meeting, take into Consideration the State of the 1500l. which was remitted to that Society from Charles-Town.——The several Members of the Assembly, who voted that Sum out of the publick Money, did it, no Doubt, with a good Design, and for the good of the Province; but have since found to their Cost, that they must stand to the Loss of this Sum themselves, as it cannot now be taken from the publick Cash of the Province. And it is certainly every Way consistent with the Spirit and Conduct of so publick spirited an Institution as the Society of the Bill of Rights to preserve their Friends from being Sufferers in their private Capacity, for what they did as Members of the Assembly, especially if it be considered, that many, who, in their Zeal for a good Cause, gave their Vote, can very ill afford to pay their Quota towards such a Sum of Money.

A very powerful Association is forming in the capital Provinces of France, to refuse the Payment of all Taxes.

By Letters from Carrickfergus by the last Irish Mail we have Advice, that a Spanish Man of War had lately put in there, under Pretence of being in Want of Water and Provisions. These they were supplied with; after which the Captain and some Officers went

The Inhabitants were at first thrown into great Consternation, but were soon made easy, by the courteous Behaviour of their Visitants. It was discovered during their short Stay, that their second Commander was an Irishman.

ANNAPOLIS, August 29.

By the Captain of a Vessel from Salem, arrived at Baltimore on Saturday last, we are informed, that on her Passage up the Bay, between Patuxent and Annapolis, on Wednesday the 21st Instant, about 6 Hours P. M. he observed a very remarkable Schooner cruizing to Windward of him, off Sharpe's Island, having a large Dutch Figure on the Head of her Rudder, the Face of which was turned forward, and another large Figure on her Stern, rising above her Bowsprit, the Face of which was turned aft. The Captain further informs us, that (such Vessels seldom appearing in this Bay) he thought it prudent to keep a good Eye upon her, especially as she seemed strongly manned; and expecting she intended to board him, from the Motions he observed between the Masts, and the Preparation of their Sinkpots, which he could plainly discover, being to Leeward of them, he deemed it expedient to bear away for Patuxent, which River he left on Thursday Night, but saw nothing more of the above Vessel in his Way up.
