September 10, 1771.

RAN away about the Middle of July last from the Subscriber, living in Prince George's County, on the Paint Branch, a Convict Servant Man, who was imported in the Fryall, Captain M'Dougall, in September 1768. He is a stout Irishman, 5 Feet 10 Inches high, named LAWRENCE THOMSON, wears short brown Hair, has gray Eyes, and a down look: Had on when he went away, a Cotton Waistcoat with Cuffs, Osnabrig Shirt and Trowsers.

Whoever takes up the said Servant, and brings him home, shall have Forty shillings besides what the Law allows, if taken in the Province, if out of the Province, Four Pounds and reasonable Charges. (w3) GEORGE WILSON, tenr.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Chester-Town, Maryland, Two white Servant Lads, viz. The one named JAMES FRANCIS, belonging to Stephen Bordley, junr. the other named GEORGE TIPPINS, belonging to William Bordley. JAMES FRANCIS is short thick set, of a fair Complexion, has fair Hair, and down look, can write a tolerable good Hand, and pretends to know something of Navigation: Had on and took with him, a brown Country made Coat, Country Linen Trowsers, a Pair of white broad Cloth Breeches that will not fit him, Two Silver Knee Buckles not Fellows, and a Pair of Shoes that were not made for him, and upon Examination will appear too long and narrow for him. GEORGE TIPPINS is slender made, of a fair Complexion, short light coloured Hair, has been some Time on board of a Man of War, can neither read or write: Had on and took with him, an old blue lapelled broad Cloth Coat, an old Nankeen Coat patched at the Elbows and under the Arms, with new Nankeen, a Pair of light blue Breeches, and a Pair of white Breeches made of Ticking. It is probable JAMES FRANCIS may forge Passes for them both.—Whoever takes them up and secures them, so that the Subscribers get them again, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, from STEPHEN BORDLEY, junr, WILLIAM BORDLEY. E N O C H S T O R Y

BEGS leave to inform the Publick in general and his Friends in particular, that he has removed to a House well situate for Business, at the Corner of Market and Second Streets, near the Court-House, in this City, where he has fitted up a convenient Store for the Reception of Merchandize, which he proposes selling upon Commission, on the lowest Terms for Cash only, either there or at his Vendue-House up Second Street, (upon certain Days, of which timely Notice will be given) as may be most agreeable.

He also proposes doing Business as a Broker, to buy or sell West-India or European Goods, Bills of Exchange, Ships or other Vessels, Houses, Lands, &c. &c. and in general, such Business as he may be intrusted with, and that upon such low Terms, as may make it advantageous for the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of this City, and those of the neighbouring Provinces to employ him.

He begs leave to assure them, his utmost Endeavours shall be exerted to give Satisfaction in the Management and Negotiating any Business that may be put under his Direction; and the Favours conferred on him will be thankfully received and gratefully remembered.

N. B. We the Subscribers, being acquainted with the above named Enoch Story, are of Opinion, from our Knowledge of his Abilities and Character, that he is well-qualified to execute the several Branches of Business above mentioned.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Coffee-House in Annapolis, an indentured Servant Man, named OLIVER STEPHENS, about 23 Years of Age, 5 Feet 8 Inches high, wore his own Hair, light coloured Cloaths, and also carried some light coloured Jenner, which had been cut out, but not made up, away with him; he is very slender, and has a remarkable thin Face, is a Native of Ireland, as may be easily gathered from his Conversation, he plays tolerably on a Variety of musical Instruments, viz. The Violin, Clarinet, Guitar, German Flute, &c. Tho' not yet Nine Months in the Country, yet this is his Second Elopement; he has shewn great Ingratitude to mild and even genteel Treatment. 'Tis supposed he is either gone by Water to Philadelphia, or lies concealed in this Town. If any Person through Ignorance of the Law has harboured him, by securing him and giving immediate Notice thereof to Mrs. Howard, at the Coffee-House, he will not only avoid a Prosecution, but be handsomely rewarded. Five Pounds will be paid by the said Mrs. Howard, to the Person who apprehends said Oliver Stephens, if taken more than 10 Miles from Annapolis, or Three Pounds if nearer, and lodged in Jail, so that Mrs. Howard may have him.

July 25. Dispatches of a very private, very important Nature have been sent of Gibraltar and Minorca; and are now absent from their Quarters to return with all possible Expedition. We are informed that in the next Session, Prisoners for Debt will be so far as are willing to give up their Estates, will be released from Confinement by Bail. But the most severe will be indicted on fraudulent Debtors, for a single Shilling from their Creditors. We hear, was lately might have the next vacant Quarter answered, that, when he recollected upon whom the Order was hourly thought it a Disgrace to any Man of Ability.

Letters from Poland, by Yesterday that the Turks had attacked a Boat commanded by Prince Repnin, who retake Giurgewc, and that the Russianing themselves till Night, retreated losing a great Number of Men.

The Commander on the Jamaica sent home, requesting some more Ships as the Spaniards shew Signs of content.

Tuesday Night Orders were sent north and Chatham, to fit out few War as soon as possible, which we hope others (fitting out there before India, it being strongly suspected here some Design on those Islands, at War within themselves, and it is they have been the Promoters of it; some of the Men of War are to Time at Virginia, and the rest at S.

It is said that the late Dispute of Ambassador's Servants and the Colick-House in Crown-Court, Westminster, and in all probability will be settled for a War, a Messenger having been Instructions how the Ambassador is in the Affair, who returned from the Opinion of the Politicians of the Town, that England will be France and Spain before the End of Months. [London Packet.]

Some Propositions of a very fitative to the Ministry, will shew to a great Passage by some late Minority. [Ibid.]

The following is the King of Sweden's ing of the Dyet, on Wednesday the 1st looked upon as a Master-piece of Eloquence noble, most reverend, M O S T noble, most reverend, loved, the Men who composed of the Swedish People.

Every Thing at this present Place I occupy, calls to my Mind our great and common Loss. W Kingdom terminated their last Affair in this Place a King, respected and by affectionate Subjects, and I pated with them the Advantage strongest Proofs of their Veneration. In the stead of a Sight to affect only Three Orphans, overwhelmed mingle their Tears with yours, bleed afresh at the Sight of those your Hearts.

The Tears of subjects are the ments that can be raised to the King. Those which you shed at me that animates me to Virtue;
