

Part-Tobacco, April 22, 1771.
FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD. from the Subscriber, on Sunday last, an English Convict Servant Man, JAM DAY, who has been brought up for Business; he is middle aged, very thick black curled Hair, has a quick talking, and is of a middle Size: took with him, an old blue Surtout blue Jacket, an old Pair of Leather new Dowlas Shirt, a checked Linen Pair black Stockings, an old Pair ditto, a Pair coarse Shoes, almost worn out, and an old Hat.
I will take up said Servant, and contrive to send him about 4 Miles below Part-Tobacco, to receive the above Reward; and if he is seized, so that I can hear of him, I shall give the above Reward.

GERARD R. CAUSTN.

Philadelphia, May 13, 1771.
DOCH STORY
I have to inform the Publick in general and Friends in particular, that he has resolved to open a well-situate for Business, at the Corner of Market and Second Streets, near the Courthouse in this City, where he has fitted up a convenient Shop for the Reception of Merchandize, and for selling upon Commission, on the Account of the Merchants, for Cash only, either there or at his Shop up Second Street, (upon certain Conditions, which timely Notice will be given) as may be agreeable.

I propose doing Business as a Broker, to buy and sell West-India or European Goods, Bills of Exchange, Ships or other Vessels, Houses, Lands, in general, such Business as he may be able to do, and that upon such low Terms, as shall be advantageous for the Gentlemen, Merchants and Trades of this City, and those of the neighbouring Provinces to employ him.

I have to assure them, his utmost Endeavours shall be exerted to give Satisfaction in the Buying and Negotiating any Business that may be committed to his Direction; and the Favours conferred upon him will be thankfully received and gratefully remembered.

The Subscribers, being acquainted with the named Enoch Story, are of Opinion, that he is well qualified to execute the several Businesses above-mentioned.
