Nov. 5. A certain unpopular Colonel has been examined before a certain great Personage, relative to a much talked of Marriage; but the Colonel politively afferted, that he was wholly unconfusted in this Affair; that he was entirely ignorant of it from Beginning to End; otherwise he most certainly should have apprised his M-y of it in good Time.

An Evening Paper, however, has the following Paragraph: We are informed of the following Fact from. respectable Authority : His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland being on a Vitit Tome Time ago, where Mrs. Horton, Sifter to the Member of Middiefex, was present, he fell so desperately in Love with her, as to make a Declaration of his Passion that Evening. For that Time the Lady passed it off as a Piece of Rallery; but the Duke continuing his Visits to her every Day after, alarmed her so far as to acquaint her Biether with the Particulars. The Colonel Simmediately waited on his Highness, and in the most respectful Terms told him, " that though he could not expect the However of an Alliance, he hoped he had a Hand and Heart to protect his Sifter from Dishonour, and therefore begged he would discontinue his Visits." resolute Expostulation, for some Time, had the desired Effect; but at last, finding all his Happiness depended on possessing her, he sent for the Colonel, and told him, he was ready to marry his Sifter directly. The Colone! took him at his Word.

A certain celebrated Irifft Orator is faid to have en. tirely exculpated himfelf to a great Perfenage, with Respect to being the Author of the Letters figured Junius, and the Suspicion is now said to fall entirely on a late Secretary to a Lord Lieutenant of Freiand.

Before the War with Spain in the Year 1739, the Spaniards (as they have lately done) treated the subjects of these Kingdoms with the utmost Insolence and Contempt; many brave English Seamen were feized by their Guarda Ceffas, and thrown into Dungeensia the West Indies, where they miserably perished, under the old Pretence of being Free-becte's and cutting Legwood, and the Captain of one of those Vessels had the Augacity to board an English Ship which refuld to bring to, on his firing at her, and, in cool Blood, with great Barbarity, cut off one of the Ears of Mr. Jenkius, the Moffer of the Ship, for this Offence. The News of this atrocious Act, and the Appearance of Jenkins foon after in London, fo irritated the Populace, that they furrounded the Parliament-house, stopped several of the Members, and called repeatedly for War! War! and, on the late King's Return to St. James's, ade refled him in the fame I erins, which they constantly echoed whenever he appeared in Publick, till the Declaration of Holtslities was made.

Lord Chatlam has recommended to a great Perfonage the laying Britain's and Dudley's Affair before an

August Assembly, at their next Meeting. It is an undoubted Fact, that our Court have no ferious Intention of refenting the fres Infults offered by the Spaniards. The People have no Confidence in the present Ministry, and the King will not remove them. By the Wickedness of one, and the Obstinacy of the other, the Honour of the Nation is tarn flied .-And Great-Britain from being, in the glorious Reign of his late Majesty, on the highest Pinnacle of Respect, is now in the peaceful Reign of his present Maj fly, sunk into the lowest Vale of Contempt. The present wretched Set of Ministers, cannot put the Nation into a proper State of Defence. They have no Friends but those they purchase. And this annual Corruption, to support the favourite Scheme of governing by Clerks and Underlings, swallows fo great a Part of the publick Treasure, that the Remainder is not sufficient for the real current Service.—Hence 200,000, extraordia-ary were voted last Year for the Navy; and this Year another great Sun will be wanted .- And still the Fleet is in no Condition for Sea. In the Yards there are few Stores, and less Timber. Instead of 60 000 Loads of Timber which (the House of Commons were told laft Winter) were neceffiry, and ought to be in the Yards, there are not 12,000. The Spaniards know this, and therefore they despile us.—And it is also an absolute Fast (notwithstanding another hing Article may come out from Authority) THAT THE SPANF ARDS WILL NOT GIVE UP FALKLAND'S ISLAND .-They will indeed give us, for a little Time, Port Ege mont; but not an Inch more. Our Court dares not tale the Island; and the Spanisrds know it .- It is natural to ask, what is become of the great Sums which have been levied on the Subjects, under the Presence of supporting the Honour of the Nation; the Publick are entitled to an Answer. It is thus: Publick C edit is injured, the landed Intereft is plundered, Trade is diffresied, to raise Money to procure a Majority in both Hauses of Parliament, to support the tetraing Siftem of the Minister, and corrupt Depravity of the Court.
