THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.
Virginia, Frederickburg, April 8, 1772.

RAN away on Monday Night the 6th Inst. from my Plantation, in Culpepper, near Frederick Zimmer-man's Ordinary, an English Convict Servant Man, named JOHN BOCKLER, about 33 Years old, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, narrow visage, ruddy Countenance, a little pitted with the Small-Pox, dark Hair not tied, born in Yorkshire, speaks broad, fond of Liquor, and talkative; he has been near Two Years in the Country, a good Dyer and Farmer: His Clothes consisted of a Frize Frock almost new, not lined, with flat Metal Buttons, cut in the Fashion with a Button and Strap to the Hip, his Breeches the same Cloth, but more wore, if any Jacket, an old black one, new Felt Hat, Yarn Stockings, Country Shoes tied with strings, the Heels and Soles thick nailed.—Went off at the same Time with the above, another English Convict Man, belonging to Mr. William Allan, about 40 to my Plantation, named THOMAS DRYROW, a tall stout large Fellow, full swarthy Face, which appears as if swelled or bloated, wears his own thick curled fair coloured Hair: Had on and took with him, Two Onaring Shirts, a Pair of old brown Trowsers, old Leather Breeches, coarse Kelsey Fly Coat, and Metal Buttons, the Body lined with plain, an old blue Jacket without Sleeves, good Shoes, old Felt Hat, and Country white Yarn Hat, much wore; it is probable they may change Clothes with each other.—The above Reward shall be paid to any Person who will deliver the said Servants to Mr. Edward Stevens, Merchant, at Culpepper Court House, the Overseer of my Plantation, or to myself in Frederickburg, or Fifteen Dollars if secured in any July, to we get them again, or in Proportion for either of them.
(t) JAMES DUNCANSON.

STRAYED from the Subscriber, living on George-Town, Frederick County, on the 21st of April, 1772, a bright coloured Strawberry roan Mare nearly mixed, upwards of 14 Hands high, 7 Years old, thin, long backed, and long docked, a large Face, white Mare and Tail, carries her Ears wide when out of Hand, trots, paces, and gallops, was trained in the Spring every where usual for training, has a small Scar or Nick in the near Side of her Bearing, and when standing still, her off under Footlock Joint bends forward, as if favoured for some Weakness, (though none to be discovered in using her) and at the same Time her Hoof feels full on the Ground, and sometimes takes it in her Head when rid, not to leave the Company, or go by or from Place without giving the Rider some Trouble, especially Places that she is used to, and I think has no Brand: Also a black bay or Mouse coloured black, Two Years old Horse Colt, likely to have a few white Hairs over him, neither cut, docked, nor brayed, Three-eighths of the Blood, small Head and Ears, short backed, never haltered, something skilful, trots, and is fond of galloping.—The Colt followed the Mare away, though did not come off her, and it's likely he may have left her: The Colt I bred.—Whoever will deliver me the afore-said Mare, shall be paid Three Pounds, and their reasonable Expences; and Forty Shillings for the Colt, and reasonable Expences. I should be obliged to every Gentleman that reads the Papers, to enquire of those that do not read them for the above Stairs.
