THE Houses and Lots in the City of Annapolis, whereon the said John Morton Jordan lived; the Houses are in very good Repair, and very con veniently situated for Trade. These Lots are thought by many Persons to be the most valuable in this Town, on Account of their Situation on Severn Ri the Trade to this City will center in a very few Years. They contain more than Two Acres of Ground, laid out almost in a Square, one Side of which extends down the Severn, where Mr. Jordan, in his Lifetime, did begin to build a very large
