Pursuant to the last Will and Testament of John Morton Jordan, Esq; deceased,
THE Houses and Lots in the City of Annapolis, whereon the said John Morton Jordan lived; the Houses are in very good Repair, and very conveniently situated for Trade. These Lots are thought by many Persons to be the most valuable in this Town, on Account of their Situation on Severn River, where, in all probability, the greatest Part of the Trade to this City will center in a very few Years. They contain more than Two Acres of Ground, laid out almost in a Square, one Side of which extends down the Severn, where Mr. Jordan, in his Lifetime, did begin to build a very large Stone Wharf. The above Lots will be sold at public Vendu, and timely Notice given of the Day of Sale. At which Time will be sold the Houshold and Kitchen Furniture of the said Deceased, all of which is very good of it's Kind, and little the worse for Wear: Likewise all the House Servants, and a very remarkable good Cook Wench. Any Person inclined to purchase the Lots and Houses may view them any Time before the Day of Sale, by applying to me in Annapolis.
