Baltimore, 1772, Maryland, Oct. 25, 1772.

To the P. U. B. L. C. K.

IT is the Sentiment of the wisest and best Men that we adorn our Age and Nation, that the Liberty of the Press is so essential to the Support of that Constitution under which we have hitherto derived the Blessings of Freedom, that it becomes every one to consider, in the most reverential Light, this Palladium of our Rights — an Opinion every Friend to Liberty and his Country must with universality to prevail.— And as nothing bath a greater Tendency to secure to us that inestimable Blessing, than the encouraging and supporting well conducted News-Paper, which it is generally acknowledged, dispel Ignorance, the Parent of Slavery, give a Table for Reading, and cause useful Knowledge to be culinated and encouraged. I flatter myself a Proposal for establishing another publick Paper in this great commercial Province, will meet with the approbation of its publick spirited Inhabitants in general, those of this flourishing Town and County in particular, and be encouraged accordingly. The many important Advantages that flow from such Institutions, are so well known to the busy Part of Mankind, as well as to Gentlemen of Leisure and Curiosity, that Arguments need not be used, on this Occasion, to illustrate their apparent Utility.

Encouraged by the polite, candid and generous In-itation I some Time since received from many Gentlemen of the most respectable Characters, to establish my Business in this Town, and affected with a lively Gratitude for past Kindness, as well as for this Instance of their favourable Opinion of me, I have determined to comply with their Wishes, so very obligingly manifested. For which Purpose, I have engaged a suitable Printing-Apparatus, which will be speedily here; and under Favour of the Publick, I intend to prosecute the Printing Business, in this Place, in all its Branches, both in the English and other Languages, in a neat, correct and expeditious Manner—and, in particular, I now propose to publish, by Subscription, with all possible Expedition, a Weekly News-Paper, under the Title of

THE MARYLAND JOURNAL,

BALTIMORE ADVERTISER.

To be printed in four large Folio Pages, equal in Size to any of the Pennsylvania Papers, at the moderate

Price of TEN SHILLINGS, current Money, per Annum, one Half to be paid at the Time of subscribing, and the Remainder at the Expiration of the Year—to be published regularly every Saturday Morning, unless another Day should appear more agreeable to the Sub-
