THE Sentiments of the wisest and best Men that adorn our Age and Nation, that the Liberty of the Press is essential to the Support of that Constitution under which we have hitherto derived the Blessings of Freedom, that it becomes every one to consider, in the most reverential Light, this Palladium of our Rights — an Opinion every Friend to Liberty and his Country must universally prevail. — And as nothing hath a greater Tendency to secure to us that inestimable Blessing, than the encouraging and supporting well conducted Weekly Papers, which, if generally attended, diffuse Ignorance, the Spread of Slavery, give a Taste for Reading, and cause useful Knowledge to be cultivated and encouraged. I flatter myself a Proposal for establishing another public Paper in this great commercial Province will meet with the Approbation of the publick spirited Inhabitants in general, those of this flourishing Town and Country in particular, and be encouraged accordingly. The many important Advantages that flow from such Institutions, are so well known to the busy Part of Mankind, as well as to Gentlemen of Leisure and Culture, that Arguments need not be used, on this Occasion, to illustrate their apparent Utility. — I have, therefore, been encouraged by the polite, candid and generous Invitation I came Time since received from many Gentlemen of the most respectable Character, to establish my Business in the Town, and affected with a lively Gratitude for past Kindnesses, as well as for this Instance of their favourable Opinion of me, I have determined to comply with their Wishes, in very obliging manner. For which Purpose, I have engaged a suitable Printing-Office, which will be opened here, and, under Favour of the Publick, I intend to prosecute the Printing Business, in all its Branches, both in the English and other Languages, in a neat, correct and expeditious Manner. — In particular, I now propose to publish, by Subscription, with all possible Expedition, a Weekly News-Paper, under the Title of THE MARYLAND JOURNAL.

BALTIMORE ADVERTISER.
To be printed in four large Folio Pages, equal in Size to any of the Pennsylvania Papers, at the moderate Price of TEN SHILLINGS, current Money, per Annum, one Half to be paid at the Time of subscribing, and the Remainder at the Expiration of the Year, to be published regularly every Saturday Morning, unless another Day should appear more agreeable to the subscribers, and delivered immediately after to the Customers in Town, and forwarded to those who live in the Country, and Places adjacent, by the earliest Opportunities. — To contain every material Piece of Intelligence, either foreign or domestic, with Accounts of the Arrival and Departure of Ships, the current Prices of Goods, the Course of Exchange, Deaths, Accidents, and Events of every Kind, that may be thought interesting to the Publick, — to enable myself to do which, I have already established an extensive Correspondence, and shall not only receive all the different Weekly American Papers, but also the best News Papers, political Pamphlets, Registers, Magazines, and other periodical Publications of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as the most valuable Papers of German Advice, from whence the most useful and entertaining Extracts shall be occasionally made. — So that there will be scarce any remarkable Occurrence, extraordinary Phenomenon, curious Invention, or new Discovery in Nature or Science, but what the Reader will find such Information as may enable him to judge for himself concerning it. — I shall also take particular Care to insert all the judicious original Essays, in Prose and Verse, on political and other Subjects, with which I may be favoured by the Learned and Ingenious, — and of this I may assure the Publick, as well as my own particular Correspondents, that the Freedom of the Press shall be maintained, the utmost Impartiality observed, and every well written Piece admitted, without Scruple; that does not tend to destroy or impair our excellent Constitutions, injure the Cause of Liberty, disturb the Rest of Society, give Offence to Modesty, or, in any Shape, reflect Scandal on a News-Paper.
Advertisements shall likewise be accurately published, in a conspicuous Manner, with great Punctuality, at the customary Prices.
As those who promise more than they are able to perform, are justly Objects of Ridicule, I should rather with my Performance should exceed than fall short of the Proposals, to effect which, no Diligence or Attention shall be wanting on my Side, which will, I persuade myself, meet in Time with a proportionable Return from the generous Publick. — As soon as possible, I shall obtain a sufficient Number of Subscribers, partly to defray the Expence of the Works, the Paper shall be published.
Subscriptions are taken in at the Coffee-Houses in Baltimore-Town and Annapolis; and by the several Persons with whom Subscription Papers are left; and I should be much obliged to any Gentleman or Lady, in Town or Country, for his or her good Offices in promoting this my new Undertaking. I am, with the utmost Deference and Respect, the Publick's most obedient and devoted humble Servant, WILLIAM GODDARD.
