Elk-Ridge, December 18, 1772.
ANY Person that can come well recommended for his Care, Industry, Sobriety and Skill in the Tanning and Currying Business, will be put in Possession of a Tan-yard and Currying Shop, in a very good Neighbourhood for that Business, and where he may get a great Plenty of excellent Bark. The Yard will be let either with or without a young Negro Fellow, as an Assistant to the Master Workman; and as I intend erecting a Saw mill adjoining the said Yard early the ensuing Spring, the Tanner may have the Advantage of the Sawdust arising from some particular Sorts of Wood, which I am persuaded will be of great Efficacy in the Tanning Business. RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Piscataway, in Prince-George's County, some Time in September last, a Negro Man, named Jack, a stout well set Fellow, about Five Feet Six or Seven Inches high, and Twenty-five Years of Age, he has a stubborn Countenance at any Time when closely examined, but is otherwise a sprightly Fellow, and generally calls himself John Gladding; so that it is likely that he may now pass by that Name, and it is probable that he may have changed it, as he has frequently done before; he carried away with him such wearing Apparel as Plantation Negroes generally have, but it is supposed that they have long since been quite worn out, and that he has got supplied with Cloaths that cannot be particularized here. I have Reason to think he is concealed in Virginia, some where in the Neighbourhood of Sbandannoe, as he pretended to have Relations living thereabouts.

Whoever apprehends the said Negro, and will deliver him to Mr. Thomas Clagitt in Piscataway, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings, if he is taken within Forty Miles from home, besides what the Law allows, and Five Pounds if taken at a greater Distance, and delivered as aforesaid, including what is allowed by Law: Or I will give Forty Shillings for securing him in any Jail, so that I get him again.
