

dering, and burning the Gaspee schooner. The King trusts, that all persons in the colony will pay a due respect to his royal commission, and that the business of it will be carried on without molestation; at the same time the nature of this offence, and the great number of persons who appear to have been concerned in it, make every precaution necessary. His Majesty has therefore, for the further support in the execution of this duty, thought fit to direct me to signify his pleasure to Lieutenant General Gage, that he do hold himself in readiness to send troops to Rhode-Island, whenever he shall be called upon by the Commissioners for that purpose, in order to aid and assist the civil magistrate in the suppression of any riot or disturbances, and in the preservation of the publick peace. I have only to add upon that head, that his Majesty depends on the care and vigilance of the civil magistrates of the colony, to take the proper measures for the arresting and committing to custody, in order to their being brought to justice, such persons, as shall, upon proper information made before them, or before his Majesty's Commissioners, appear to have been concerned in the plundering and destroying the Gaspee schooner.

It is his Majesty's intention, in consequence of the advice of his privy council, that the persons concerned in the burning the Gaspee schooner, and in the other violences, which attended that daring insult, should be brought to England to be tried; and I am therefore to signify to you his Majesty's pleasure, that such of the said offenders as may have been or shall be arrested and committed within the colony of Rhode-Island, be delivered to the care and custody of Rear Admiral Montagu, or the Commander in chief of his Majesty's ships in North-America for the time being, or to such officers as he shall appoint to receive them; taking care that you do give notice to the persons accused, in order that they may procure such witnesses on their behalf as they shall judge necessary; which witnesses, together with all such as may be proper to support the charge against them, will be received and sent hither with the prisoners.
