Richmond, James River, Virginia, Jan. 1, 1773.

THAT valuable Tract of Land, called Mocoek's Island, lying within a Mile of the Mouth of the Chickabomby River, One Mile from James River, a Quarter of a Mile above Barret's Ferry, and within Ten Miles of the City of Williamsburg; it contains Six Hundred Acres of the highest, driest, and richest Marsh in this Colony, in it's present State during the Spring and Summer Months; it will afford grazing for above One Thousand Head of Cattle.

In the Marsh are Three Islands; the easternmost or low Island, contains about One Hundred and Fifty Acres of rich high Land, has Two good Springs upon it, a Barn, Two Negro Quarters, and an Overleer's House; a Quarter of a Mile distant is middle or High Island, containing about Forty Acres, Half a Mile distant lies westernmost Island, containing Three or Four Acres; and they are so situated that the banking in the Marsh is rendered very easy: The eastern and northern Parts of these Islands are divided from the main Land by a Branch of the River, no more than Thirty Yards broad, and the southern and western Parts are divided by the main Body of Chickabomby, about Three Hundred Yards broad. Up this River is Navigation for Forty Miles for Vessels of Four Thousand Bushels; the Branch dividing the Island from the main Land, is esteemed the best fowling and fishing in this Colony. Opposite Low or Great Island, there are on the Continent, One Hundred and odd Acres well timbered Land belonging to this Plantation, pleasantly situated and over-looking the whole Island. This Land runs from the Branch about Half a Mile across the main Road leading from the Ferry to Williamsburg, so that the Distance from Town is not above Nine Miles; common Tides cover no Part of the Marsh; spring Tides, with a continued North-East Wind cover the greater Part of it, with Four Inches Water, but the best Criterion of the Tides over-flowing it, is taken from the remarkable great Gust on Friday the 8th of Sept. 1769, which spread over a great Part of America, and then there were only Seven Inches Water in the said Marsh. Any Person purchasing this Island, may have the Stock and Utensils upon reasonable Terms.
