ANNAPOLIS, April 15.

A correspondent has desired us to insert the following.

It was inserted in this Gazette of the 1d of Septem- ber last, which was soon after the news arrived here of the many bankruptcies that had happened in Britain, that by some vessels arrived in Rappahannock there was advice of several houses which had stopped pay- ment having begun to do business again, particularly Mess. Dunlop and Wilton of London. As we are not very certain how we came by that piece of intelligence, and having been called upon to give up our author- ty by some friends of those gentlemen in Maryland, who assert that no such failure ever happened, we hope they will be satisfied with our declaring that, in future, we shall be more cautious in publishing any article which may tend to the prejudice of individuals, and are sorry we were so precipitate as to insert what we did upon hearsay. Virginia Gazette.

Taken from the assembly room, about a month ago, a superb scarlet cloak, without buttons, which was made too short and lengthened at the top. There was lost, in its room, a very indifferent old scarlet cloak, now in the possession of Mr. William Nevins; the mistake may be rectified by applying to Mr. Nevins.

Baltimore, April 13, 1773.

AS I purpose to embark for England either in the fall of the present or spring of next year, I desire all persons who yet owe me money for deal- ings with Hudson and Thompson, and those whose accounts are due for goods bought from myself, to come without delay and pay me their respective bal- ances; which only will prevent their being sued to the next september provincial or november county courts.

I have now on hand about £. 3500 cost of well laid in and assorted dry goods, which I will sell at a very low rate all together or in parcels, and will make the payments convenient to the purchasers.

HENRY THOMSON.

He has also for sale a few pipes of excellent Ma- deira bill wine, imported by himself; a quantity of Virginia pork in barrels, and a schooner of about 16 or 1800, and another of 1000 bushels burthen.

Bladensburg, April 14, 1773.

HAVING declined the business of Mess. George and Andrew Buchanan and company of Glas- gow since the first of January last, I shall be obliged to all those who have accounts, still unsettled, on the books kept by me, if they will come and settle either with Mr. John Campbell who succeeds me, or with myself, without loss of time.

Those who are backward in coming to settle and pay up their accounts, may depend that suits will soon be brought against them; it is therefore hoped they will timeously prove that unnecessary trouble and expence.

The business is intended to be carried on, as for- metly, by Mr. John Campbell. This is not to be repeated.

ANDREW LITCH.

ALL persons indebted to the subscriber in ac- counts of more than twelve months standing, are hereby desired to come and settle their respective balances, otherways such methods will be taken to compel them thereto, as will be disagreeable to, Their humble servant,

EPHRAIM HOWARD.

RAN away from a waggon, on its way from Bal- timore-Town to Frederick, near Hood's mill, a convict servant man, imported in Capt. Thomas from Bristol the other day, named Stephen Wool- ridge. He is about twenty-three years of age, five- feet eight inches high, born in Cornwall, a brisk looking well made fellow, brown complexion, blue eyes, wears his own dark hair, and is or pretends to be a farmer, but has rather the appearance of a sailor: Had on a small bound hat, coarse cotton jacket, old trousers, old shoes and odd buckles. Whoever secures him in any jail, or delivers him to Mr. Lux at Baltimore, Jacques and Johnson in An- napolis, or James Johnson at Fort Frederick furnace, shall have forty shillings if taken in the province, and three pounds if taken out of the province.

There is another convict servant who was import- ed in the same ship, the property of Mr. Russell, in company with him.

JACQUES and JOHNSON.

RAN away from the subscriber living in Anna- polis, on Thursday the 8th instant, a mulatto boy who calls himself George Mosley, about 17 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, has a down look and stoops a little: He had on and took with him, a halstitch jacket, and one of flannel, black and white mix'd woollen stockings, half worn shoes, new trousers, check shirt, and a coarse felt hat. Whoever secures and delivers him to me shall have forty shillings reward, paid by me.
