Baltimore, April 26, 1773. ROBERT CHRISTIE, junr, has a large assort- ment of dry goods, also genuine Madeira wine of New-York quality, best bar iron; and barrelled pork, all of which he will sell on reasona- ble terms.

April 26, 1773. WHEREAS I did in an advertisement in the Maryland Gazette, assert that I was of opinion that Mr. John Iiams, junr. was the cause of my servant running away, and taking with him my faddle horse. This is to give notice, that the said John Iiams is again returned, and that I am fully satisfied that he was not in any degree whatever instrumental to the said servant running away, and that I am very sorry that I was so precipitate in as- serting a thing of that nature, when it does not ap- pear that there is the least cause for suspicion.

THOMAS ELLIOTT.

Bladensburg, April 28, 1773. Wanted on Charter immediately for Maderia and West-Indies,

A VESSEL of about 3000 bushels burthen, free bottom of Maryland, to load in the Eastern branch of Patowmack.

WILLIAM SYDEBOTHAM.

April 26, 1773. A CERTAIN Richard Flemming, a native of Ireland, and by trade a weaver, about five feet nine or ten inches high, well set, long dark curled hair, brown complexion, speaks tolerable good English, but has a small scar on his nose, down look, and has remarkable small eyes; he has a flesh mark on his right wrist nearly the colour of claret, and has very bad fore legs, but the right leg the worst; wears a lightish cloth coat about half wore, a wilton jacket that has been turned, and lined with fine Shaloon, leather Breeches, mixed blue and white stockings, over which he wears brown knit leggings, old shoes, and wears a grayish surtout coat about half wore, and a small country made hat with white lining; came and lived with the subscriber in Baltimore county, from December until the twenty-ninth of March last, as a weaver, and then pretend- ing busifness at Charles-Town, in Cecil county, borrowed to ride there a faddle, bridle, and a bay horse, about fifteen hands high, paces well and trots, used to the draught; has a snip and small star in his face, branded on the near buttock with G C but not very plain, on the upper part of the neck, under where the collar has wore is some white hairs, and his tail has also white hairs in it, and what is most remarkable has no under bridle teeth; but the said Richard Flemming, not returning to the time proposed, caused suspicion in the subscriber who pursued him, but found he had altered his rout, and instead of going to Charles-Town, took through York county, and it's expected has either gone to the back settlements, or turned off towards Virginia or Carolina. Whoever apprehends said Flemming, and secures him in any jail, that the said horse may be got again or damages recovered for him, shall receive five pounds reward, or three pounds for securing the said horse that the subscriber may obtain him again.

GEORGE CHAUNCEY.

Benedict, April, 27, 1773. STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber a black mare, about twelve or thirteen hands high, branded on one of her shoulders G M hanging mane, a switch tail, it is imagined she was carried off by a negro fellow, named Will, belonging to Mary Anderson, near Benedict, who has been run away about two months. Whoever takes up the said mare, and contrives her to the subscriber living in Benedict, or Mr. Peter Campbell, merchant in Pis- cataway, shall have forty shillings currency reward.

ROBERT YOUNG.

4w THERE is at the plantation of Thomas Mulli- ken, on the fork of Patuxent, in Anne- Arundel county, a stray small gray mare, about 12 hands high, and 8 or 9 years of age, trots and gal- lops, without any perceivable brand. The owner may have her again, proving property and paying charges.

Anne-Arundel county, April 16, 1773-

To be rented, and may be entered on immediately, A VERY good store-house, three rooms below and a brick cellar, situated at Pig point on Patuxent river. For terms apply to SAMUEL LANE, near Pig-point.

ALL persons having accounts and debts with Thomas Harwood, jun. and John Brice, of more than one year standing, are requested to make immediate payment; and as their partnership is now at an end, it is requested that their customers who have accounts of an early date will call and close them, when convenient, which will save a great deal of trouble to Their much obliged,

THOMAS HARWOOD, jun.

N. B. Thomas Harwood, jun. intends to import goods, and the busifness will then be carried on by Thomas and Benjamin Harwood, who will gladly serve all that may incline to favour them with their custom.

THE subscriber hereby takes this method of in- forming his old acquaintance, and the publi- cation in general, that he now keeps the Kings Arms Tavern on Corn-hill, in Annapolis, between the stad-house and the dock; and as his house is very convenient for the reception of gentlemen travellers and others, and he having furnished himself with the best of liquors and other accommodations for that purpose, hopes to merit the approbation of all who may think proper to favour him with their company. He also keeps the best timothy and clo- ver hay, oats, &c.

BERIAH MAYBURY.

N. B. Any gentlemen, such as jurymen or any others, having busifness in Annapolis so as to be detained more than a day or two, he boards by the day if they think proper; he takes yearly boarders also on the most easy terms. He has for sale a sloop of about thirty tons burthen, well rigged with a new suit of sails, which he will sell cheap for cash or short credit.—He has likewise for sale, a com- plete set of well seasoned ship blocks, and a hand- some figure head for a ship.—He continues to keep a boat and hands as usual, and has a negro pilot very capable of conducting a ship to and from any part of the bay.

THIS is to give publick notice that the busifness of the custom house of South Patowmack was discontinued at Lee Hall (where the office has been kept for many years) on friday the 29th january, 1773, and the custom-house books and papers are removed to Homony Hall, the seat of the late Col. James Steptoe, which is on the river, and is the se- cond house above Sandy Point; the office is there opened for the dispatch of publick busifness.

JOSEPH LANE, Deputy Collector, GILBERT CAMPBELL, Comptroller.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Capt. Henry Morgan, late of Baltimore county, in Maryland, deceased, either by bills, bonds, pro- tected bills of exchange, notes of hand, accounts, or otherwise, are hereby desired to call and pay the same, or give security for the payments, on or be- fore the first day of june next, or they may expect to be dealt with as the law directs, without further notice or respect of persons; and all persons who have any demands against the said estate are desired to bring them in regularly attested that they be ad- justed and paid, by

ALEX. M'MECHAN, & } Administrators. JAMES MORGAN, }

RAN away from the subscriber, living near the head of Patapco river, in Baltimore County, on the 9th of march last, an English convict servant man named Joseph Manyfold, a lusty well set fellow, about five feet eight or nine inches high, wears his own short dark hair which curls a little, his right ear is split, and has a scar on his throat which I be- lieve to be cut by himself. Had on an ofnabrig shirt, an old felt hat, and strong shoes with iron plates to the heels; the other part of his drefs is country made white kersey. Whoever secures the said servant so that his master may get him again, shall receive, if ten miles from home thirty shillings, if thirty miles fifty shillings, and if out of the pro- vince five pounds including what the law allows, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by

SAMUEL NORWOOD.

W3 THERE is at the plantation of Charles Allanson Ford, a stray black mare, about 12 hands high, with a bright bay mare colt with a small star on his forehead, the mare has no perceivable brand, has a few white hairs on her forehead and appears to be about four or five years old. The owner may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

Baltimore, April 13, 1773-

AS I purpose to embark for England either in the fall of the present or spring of next year, I desire all persons who yet owe me money for deal- ings with Hudfon and Thompson, and those whose accounts are due for goods bought from myself, to come without delay and pay me their respective bal- ances; which only will prevent their being sued to the next september provincial or november county courts.

I have now on hand about £. 3500 cost of well laid in and assorted dry goods, which I will sell at a very low rate all together or in parcels, and will make the payments convenient to the purchasers.

HENRY THOMSON.

He has also for sale a few pipes of excellent Ma- deira bill wine, imported by himself, a quantity of Virginia pork in barrels, and a schooner of about 16 or 1800, and another of 1000 bushels burthen.

RAN away from the subscriber living in Anna- polis, on thursday the 8th instant, a mulatto boy who calls himself George Mosley, about 17 years of age, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, has a down look and stoops a little: He had on and took with him, a halrthick jacket, and one of flannel, black and white mix'd woollen stockings, half worn shoes, new trousers, check shirt, and a coarse felt hat. Whoever secures and delivers him to my shall have forty shillings reward, paid by me.
