

to be a banter on my understand-ment) and referred it; he had the pen, (God bless us!) to take it back, let me have a proper account, which I will give you, though called upon by Mr.
1766, and 1766, by Mr. Brookes and Wootton, and another gentleman." The names of those young gentlemen I have a proper regard, should be such an occasion;—what liberty they take. Coolidge I know not; what they do after my being present and I shall pay due respect to; but none; nor ought I, or any man, to be that he has so confidently and circum-stantially asserted, and directly confirmed; and a man must be out of his wits to be if he ever had any, or NED in impudence, to print such things in the face of the world. I have accounts, papers and vouchers, under the very persons, the same Capt. Judson me Mr. William Brogden, and the to Wootton, (I mean no reflection unless they wantonly lent their names) I wish, as will flash conviction on any one of the accounts I have shewn to Mr. Mariborough, and to Mr. Jacques of Annapolis.
I have a thing, which he called an account, I queries!—I gave him a fair, clear, account, upon a large sheet of paper long way, full, and very closely writ-ton Wootton, copied from my M. R. books—and a fair, clear, regular and copied from my Pig-Point store books r. Wootton—both which things or accounts, were a long time in the possession of Capt. Coolidge, as long as he pleased, and marks and his hand writing; they returned to me with a thing indeed called Mr. Stephen West in account with Judson. Cr. "extracted from those of mine, or sheets of paper by, I believe, Mr. his thing or account I hope to live to see remarks, at present I shall make very late is in 1761, the last in 1767—and 1766 therefore falls to the ground, and side of this his account against me is entirely of your Pig-Point store account—after however never came to pass—for the account, when Capt. Coolidge and Brogden I take him to have been, summed and struck a balance, it appeared, in way of keeping their things or accounts, against me was £.48 : 14 : 2 coil of 50 : 8—currency—and the balance due 3 : 10 sterling, "exclusive of your Pig-point account and freight of rum," which account appear at present, have errors, to be it, 52 £. sterling, and £.62. currency; if credited as they ought to have been, hope they will some day be, would have considerably in my favour.

All other droll remarks to make upon or account delivered to me; it appears of it, that great pains and care hath been taken and scrape up every article that might against me, and, among other bounty on sail duck £.1 : 15 : 9—He with the bounty sure enough; but the has he given me for the sail duck itself, pieces. Had S. W. given such a PROOF in settling accounts and other little matters, could have been trumpeted and carried in whippers in, from Patuxent, to Patuxent, to Baltimore, and to London old woman in breeches or petticoats would do it. From this small specimen of the Capt. Coolidge, a judgment may be of his books, of his accounts, and of of easily settling with him—of all men has the least right to attack others, or to me. He may deny, but I think Mr. Brogden having my accounts; there are no know of in them; "the thing called account with queries" surely cannot apply to those ones; so that his "mark how the matter is point blank against him.
I have a thing called an account stuffed with queries observe upon his own account Let us try to find this "thing stuffed with queries," what shape, colour, appearance, taste is, "a thing stuffed with queries" I might as well to find out the right end of him or his paper, a literal copy of which I will trouble you with, that the world may indeed "mark" of this strange man, and of his more than that be possible, assertions. The paper has written: "Copy of queries sent to Capt.

I shall be glad to see the acct you had from me against the importer in c^o. with Capt. Russell.
Now I would ask any man of common sense, whether their infinite queries did not relate expressly to his account against me? not as he has asserted to mine against him—they are not answered to this day, and I might with much more propriety call upon him for a fair state of accounts than he can upon me—what shameless lieshoods then has he printed—void of sense, decency and truth—and calls at the same time upon the publick to "mark, judge," and "observe." Thus it is, he goes about spreading calumny, not believing what he himself says, and behaving more like a maniac than a rational creature; sometimes he publicly asserts that I owe him £. 200 currency and £. 40 sterling, at other times that he believes I owe him nothing and he would be willing to pass receipts. Some good natured and well disposed men may think I have been to blame, and that I might have settled accounts with him; but such men little know the manifold injuries and injustice that have been attempted against me by this same Capt. Coolidge, and had his machinations taken effect, infancy, ruin, and beggary, the ultimate end of all his designs, would have overtaken me, my innocent family, and all those who were connected or dependant upon me. His ignorant self-importance, his ferocity and abuse, I pity and despise as I do him.
What he says among people who know him stands for nothing; my business and peace of mind, which he takes such delight in diabolically endeavouring to destroy, will, I hope, depend on my real uniform behaviour through life, and not on his or any other person's wanton or malicious misrepresentations.

PRINTING in all its various branches, performed in a neat, correct, and expeditious manner, on the most reasonable terms, by WILLIAM GODDARD, at his Printing-Office, at the corner of South and Baltimore streets, nearly opposite to Mrs. Chilton's, in Baltimore-town.

Those gentlemen who have been so obliging as to take in subscriptions for the Maryland Journal, and Baltimore Advertiser, are earnestly requested to transmit the subscription lists (or the subscribers names and places of abode) as speedily as possible, to the office above mentioned, that the printer may be enabled to ascertain the number necessary to be printed, as well as to forward the papers in a proper manner to every subscriber.
As soon as proper posts or carriers are established, the paper will be published, of which seasonable notice will be given in this gazette, to give gentlemen an opportunity to advertise in the first number.

May 1, 1773.
To be sold at publick sale on Tuesday the twenty-second of June next, on the premises, A VALUABLE tract of land, called the Two Brothers, lying in St. Mary's county, within ten miles of Leonard town, Benedict and Choptico, and at the distance of a mile from the Patuxent river, it contains two hundred and twenty-five acres, or at least patented for that quantity, is moderately well timbered. The soil is light and capable of improvement, the chief of it being level. The buildings on it are, a bad dwelling-house and kitchen, and a good tobacco-house. Any one desirous of seeing the land, may do it by applying to Mr. John Lucas at the Queen-tree, in the aforesaid county. Ready money will be required for the purchase, or at least the half, and for the rest credit may be given, on interest and good security.
JOHN LUCAS,
ANNE LUCAS.

Annapolis, May 13, 1773.
Just arrived in the Adventure, Samuel Maynard, from London, ASSORTMENTS of goods for my stores, at Annapolis, Elk-Ridge Landing, and Blk-Ridge; to be sold wholesale or retail for cash, bills, or tobacco. I expect the Sibella, Smith, for Patuxent, and the Friendship, Eden, for Patowmack, with the goods and accounts for those rivers every day.
The Adventure-loads in Severn; but will take the early Tobacco from Elk-Ridge and Baltimore. I expect to get her away by the last of June, and to return again to Annapolis in the fall with some winter goods.
The Somerset, Robinson, will be in Patuxent by the time Maynard is loaded. I have ordered insurance on Maynard and Ireland, and shall continue to use my best endeavours for the interest of all our friends.
STEPHEN WEST.

Baltimore, May 7, 1773.
Just imported, in the ship Hibernia, from Liverpool and Milford, immediately.

Baltimore, May 7, 1773.
Wanted to charter for EUROPE, TWO vessels, from four to six thousand bushels each, the customary freight will be given and great dispatch, by applying to JOHN STEVENSON.

May 17, 1773.
ALL persons having any cause of complaint on account of their dealings with me while I did business at Piscataway, in Prince-George's county; are hereby desired to meet me at the place aforesaid, from Monday morning the 28th of June next, until Saturday evening the 3d of July following, where constant attendance (by the leave of God) shall be given by me to receive all complaints which shall be offered in the presence of one or more gentlemen of honour and integrity, who shall judge thereof, and such redress be made as to such judge or judges shall seem just and right.
JAMES MARSHALL.

THE subscriber intending to leave this province the ensuing fall, earnestly requests all persons indebted to him to make speedy payments; and all those who have demands against him, are desired to make them known, that they may be adjusted.
JOHN HEPBURN.

Hagers town, April 1, 1773.
WILLIAM BAILEY, coppersmith, living in York-town, Pennsylvania, takes this method to inform the publick in general, and his old customers in particular, that he has for the conveniency of the inhabitants of the back part of this country, fixed a coppersmith's-shop in Hagerstown aforesaid, Frederick county, Maryland, next door to Balzar Gull Hatrer, where he makes for sale all sorts of copper-work, such as stills, brewing coppers, wash and fish-kettles, tea-kettles, saucy pans, coffee and chocolate-pots, which he will sell as low as any made or imported in the province of Pennsylvania, Maryland, or Virginia. He still carries on the same business where he formerly lived, in York-town, two doors below the sign of the buck, where any person or persons may be supplied with any of the above articles at the lowest rates, and to prevent dispute he stamps his name on all his work, and warrants it to be good. And as it is well known in the province of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and Carolina, that his work is far superior to any made in these parts, for which he appeals to his former customers, he hopes for encouragement. He purposes attending himself at the courts throughout the year at Samuel Swaingain at Frederick-town, in Carlisle at John Polks, he also has all sorts of brass-kettles for sale.
N. B. He also mends all sorts of copper and brass work, and gives the highest price for old copper, brass, pewter and lead.

May 3, 1773.
STRAYED or stolen from Mr. Henry Digges's, in Charles county, the 1st instant, a likely bay mare, between 14 and 15 hands high, about 6 years old, trots and gallops, has a small star in her forehead, her near hind foot white, hanging mane and switch tail, she has no brand. Likewise, a black horse about 14 hands high, and about 10 years old, a natural pacer, he is branded both on his near shoulder and buttock, but do not remember the brand; has a hanging mane and bob tail, and a few saddle spots; he has been much used to drawing, and the hair is consequently much worn off at his sides. Whoever takes up the said mare and horse, and conveys them to the subscriber at Newport, in Charles county, shall receive two dollars reward, if taken in the county, and if out of the county, three dollars for each, paid by JOHN FILE.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.
London-town, May 19, 1773.
STOLEN last night from my plantation at London-town, eleven ewe, and two ram lambs. They are remarkably large and fat, being of the English breed. They were carried off by water, and it is suspected may have been conveyed to Annapolis for sale.
There is at the landing from whence the lambs were taken, the impression of the stern of a battoe or a large pettauger, in which I suppose they were carried across South-river. The above-mentioned reward of ten pounds will be paid on the discovery and conviction of the offender or offenders, by JAMES DICK.

THE subscriber being confined in Anne-Arundel county jail for debt, gives this publick notice that he intends to apply to the next general assembly for relief.
RICHARD GRACE.

THERE is at the plantation of Charles Hammond, a gray-furred stallion, with no perceptible brand.
The owner may have him again, proving property and paying charges.
To be sold by publick vendue, on Wednesday the eleventh day of august next, agreeable to the last will and testament of Arthur Charlton, ALL that valuable lot of ground where the deceased lived, on which is a good two story brick dwelling house, with two out-houses, one bricked and the other framed, with a good stable, smoke-house and kitchen: one half the purchase money to be paid down, the other half not, on giving bond with interest, and security if required.
ELIZABETH CHARLTON, Executrix.

THE subscriber will sell on the premises at publick vendue, at ten o'clock, on Monday the 21st of June next, four country born slaves and a tract of land, lying in Anne-Arundel county, between South-river and Patuxent, containing by patent three hundred and eleven acres. The land is level, and the soil good, either for planting or farming. The purchaser to be put into possession at Christmas. Title and terms made known by application to THOMAS HARWOOD, junr. of Annapolis.

N. B. The above land is about twelve miles from Annapolis, and five from Queen-Anne, and now in the possession of Mr. John Jacobs.
May 4, 1773.
COMMITTED to the jail of Charles county the 30th of April last, as a runaway, Daniel Duoneilly, an Irishman, who says he is a servant to Henry Howard of Meclinburg county, in Virginia, has an impediment in his speech, thin visage, wears his own dark hair: has on, an old bearskin coat, a red striped linsy woollsey jacket, both trimmed with black horn buttons, leather breeches, ofsnabrig shirt, shoes, yarn stockings, and hat. The owner of said servant is desired to take him away and pay charges, to WILLIAM HANSON, deputy sheriff.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.
May 4, 1773.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Bladenburg, an Irish servant man, indentured for four years, about twenty-two years of age, named Bryan Fitzpatrick, a shoemaker by trade: had on, when he went away, a claret coloured furtout coat, a light blue coat, waistcoat and breeches, brown worked stockings, pumps half worn, with a French cocked hat tarred on the top of the crown, and is supposed to have a forged pass.
Whoever brings the said servant to his master, or gives intelligence, so that he may be got again, shall receive if taken out of the province, three pounds Maryland currency, or otherwise, if taken in the province of Maryland, forty shillings.
JOHN FRANCIS.

N. B. He took with him, a pair of yellow buckles cut in diamond fashion, a case of razors marked G. W. a dark flaxen hair curl, he is a proud faucy fellow.
Just arrived from London,
The Ship ANNAPOLIS,
THOMAS EDEN,
WHICH loads in the river Patuxent, and receives tobaccos consigned to Thomas Eden and Co. merchants in London, at the usual freight of seven pounds sterling per ton.
As Capt. Eden is positively engaged to sail for London from Maryland between the tenth and twentieth of June, his friends are requested not to occasion any unnecessary delay in shipping their tobacco; and any goods they may want in the fall they may depend on receiving, as he purposes being in the country again in October.

Such of Capt. Eden's friends as he will not be able from the shortness of time and hurry of business to wait on, he hopes will excuse him, and leave their orders, with their tobacco notes, at the most convenient inspection houses to themselves, and they shall be punctually complied with.
N. B. Great part of the cargo for the Annapolis is engaged, and ready. Any gentlemen, who are situated at a distance, and will take the trouble of engaging craft to put their tobacco on board, will greatly oblige Capt. Eden, who will pay immediately the usual freight thereof. They are desired to send their orders or invoices therewith, and shall receive bills of lading by the first opportunity.
