DANIEL GRANT,
Who lately kept tavern at the sign of the Buck, near Philadelphia,

BEGRS leave to inform the publick, that he hath opened an inn and tavern, at the sign of the Fountain, in that large and commodious-house lately built by Mr. Gough, in Market-street, Baltimore. He hath provided every thing for the accommodation of gentlemen, their servants, and horses, in the best manner; and those who choose to favour him with their custom, may be assured of his best endeavours to merit their approbation. He takes this opportunity of returning his most grateful thanks to the gentlemen who did him the honour to frequent his former house, and as it shall ever be his study to please, he hopes for a continuance of their favours.

Piscataway, May 25, 1773.
ALL persons indebted to Mess. James Brown and company, merchants in Glasgow, for dealings with the late Mr. Colin Campbell, their factor at Lower-Marlborough, are desired to make immediate payment to the subscriber, who is authorised to receive the same. As the store is removed, and those gentlemen have not any other connexions in that county, it will be very inconvenient for them to lie out of their debts longer than the first of August, when those who do not pay may expect that suits will be brought against them.

I shall attend at Lower-Marlborough in June and July, and at the Court-house at August court.
ALEXANDER HAMILTON.

THERE is at the plantation of Stephen Hall, in Baltimore county, taken up as a stray, a bay horse, about thirteen hands high, trots, and has a star in his forehead.
