

Virginia, April 29, 1773.

To be rented, for a term of years, THE mills at the falls of James river, in the town of Manchester, which consist of a double saw-mill, a gristmill, with two pair of stones, for country work, which is worth about 400 barrels of corn the year, a mecharmill with four pair of best French barstones, and all conveniencies necessary for carrying on the manufacturing business in the best manner; likewise a good dwelling-house with two rooms on a floor, and a cellar and large fireplace in it, as also a large store-house, cooper's shop, stable, blacksmith's shop and tools, and a lot of two acres and a half enclosed about the works. The stream affords water enough for as many more mills, and the works are so situated that they are out of danger from freshes, having never received any damage but from the unparalleled one in May 1771. These works, being placed within a few yards of navigation, and in the most flourishing part of the country, where any quantity of wheat may be purchased, the business of manufacturing, as well as the West India trade, may be carried on to as great advantage as any where on the continent, and a ready market may be had for any quantity of plank, scantling, &c. The saw and gristmills are now finished, and the merchandize will be finished by the 1st of September next. Any person inclinable to rent the said works, may know the terms by applying to

THE Subscriber has a man lately from England regularly brought up to cutting, docking, nicking, crapping, and breaking of horses in the most approved manner, which different branches will be executed on the most reasonable terms, and all possible care will be taken to give satisfaction to all those who choose to employ him. He has also provided good horses for the convenience of gentlemen travellers, much better than are generally kept for that purpose; and as he has for some time past kept the rose and crown tavern, has enabled himself to provide every necessary to carry on that business, to give satisfaction, which he flatters himself he has heretofore done, from the encouragement he has met with from his friends in particular, and the publick in general, whose favours he will ever endeavour to merit.

The subscriber undertakes to buy and sell horses. Any persons who choose to employ him in that way, may depend on being faithfully served,

By their, humble servant,

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, June 2, 1773. ON Sunday last were stolen or seduced from the subscriber, living in Queen-Anne's county, opposite to Chester-town, in Kent county, in Maryland, two negro girl slaves, one named Rachel, about nine or ten years of age, of a yellow complexion, well grown, has a scar on her throat under her jaw, and two remarkable broad foreteeth; the other named Sarah, about five or six years of age, thick lips, hollow eyes, and the upper part of her nose much sunk. These slaves were formerly the property of Elizabeth Adair, of Kent county aforesaid, who intermarried with John Posey, and were purchased of the said John Posey, by Sarah Flower, with whom the subscriber intermarried. As it is suspected that they have been taken away, with a purpose of conveying them out of this province, all persons are cautioned against purchasing them, and whoever will make known to the subscriber, the person or persons who stole or seduced the said slave from him, and the person in whose possession they are, so that they may be recovered, and the offender or offenders punished according to law, shall receive the above reward, from

EMMANUEL KENT.

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD.

May 20, 1773. RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, in Frederick county, on the head of Bennett's creek, on the 17th inst. at night, a convict servant man, named William Flint, about 22 years of age, born in the west of England, a spare slim fellow, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a swarthy complexion, short black hair, and has lost one of his fore teeth: he had on, and took with him, a white cotton jacket, brown cloth ditto much worn, a pair of leather breeches black and dirty, two white shirts, two pairs of stockings and shoes, and a new felt hat; it's possible he may have changed his name and apparel, as he has a sum of money with him.

Whoever takes up the said servant, and brings him either to John Plummer, overseer on the above-said plantation, or to the subscriber living in Anne-Arundel county, near Elk-Ridge church, shall have the above reward for their trouble, besides what the law allows, paid by

HENRY RIDGELY.

Ann-Arundel county, June 16, 1773. COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, negro Jack, who says he belongs to Archibald Bell, who lives on Snowden's manor, in Prince-George's county, near the north branch of Patowmack, he is a well set fellow, about thirty-five years of age, five feet four or five inches high, he is very black, and hath a small scar on his right cheek: he hath on, a white cotton jacket, crocus shirt, and cotton breeches very much worn. His master is desired to take him away and pay charges, to

WILLIAM NOKE, Sheriff

Somerset county, June 15, 1773. THERE is at the subscriber's store, on Wicomico river, a case, supposed to contain looking-glasses, marked H. E. N. 1. also three taggots of A. C. steel, in the same mark: these goods were imported in Oct. 1771, in the ship Emperor, Capt. Lockerill, from London to Rappahanock, and shipped by Mr. John Bell of London, Merchant, and brought to Somerset in the schooner Polly, John Parker, master. It was then imagined these goods were either for Somerset, Dorchester, or Worcester, and have been often advertised in these counties; as yet there has not any owner applied for them; I therefore conclude they were brought through mistake from Virginia. The owner is now requested to prove his property, produce his bill of lading, pay charges, and take them away.
