To be rented, for a term of years,
THE mills at the falls of James river, in the town of Manchester, which consist of a double sawmill, a gristmill, with two pair of stones, for country work, which is worth about 400 barrels of corn the year, a merchant mill with four pair of best French burstones, and all conveniencies necessary for carrying on the manufacturing business in the best manner; likewise a good dwelling-house with two rooms on a floor, and a cellar and large fireplace in it; as also a large store-house, cooper's shop, stable, blacksmith's shop and tools, and a lot of two acres and a half enclosed about the works. The stream affords water enough for as many more mills, and the works are so situated that they are out of danger from freshes, having never received any damage but from the unparalleled one in May 1771. These works, being placed within a few yards of navigation, and in the most flourishing part of the country, where any quantity of wheat may be purchased, the business of manufacturing, as well as the West India trade, may be carried on to as great advantage as any where on the continent, and a ready market may be had for any quantity of plank, scantling, &c. The saw and gristmills are now finished, and the merchantmill will be finished by the 1st of September next. Any person inclinable to rent the said works, may know the terms by applying to JOHN MAYO.

Somerlet county, June 15, 1773.

THERE is at the subscriber's store, on Wicomico river, a cask, supposed to contain looking-glasses, marked H. E. N. 1. also three taggots of A. C. Lee, in the same mark: these goods were imported in Oct. 1771, in the ship Emperor, Capt. Lockerill, from London to Rappahannock, and shipped by Mr. John Bell of London, Merchant, and brought to Somerlet in the schooner Polly, John Parker, master. It was then imagined these goods were either for Somerlet, Dorchester, or Worcester, and have been since advertised in these counties; as yet there has not any owner applied for them; I therefore conclude they were brought through mistake from Virginia. The owner is now requested to prove his property, produce his bill of lading, pay charges, and take them away.
