WILLIAM AIKMAN,
Bookeller and Stationer in West Street Annapolis, ON Monday last opened his circulating library consisting of above 12 hundred volumes on the most useful sciences, history, poetry, agriculture, voyages, travels, miscellanies, plays, with all the most approved of every kind, magazines and other books of entertainment, to be lent out to read at one guinea per year, 20 shillings for six months, 12 shillings per quarter, 5 shillings per month, or 3 pence per eight readers at any distance from Annapolis to be allowed two books at a time. As the library will be of real utility to the publick, and as the proprietor will take care to have it supplied with all the new publications of merit as they come from the press, he hopes it will meet with the approbation of the friends of literature.

He has also imported a large assortment of new books in the library for sale. The best of them are on a fine paper, handsome type and very bound in all different kinds of gilt and plain cut and uncut printing paper, gilt plain and marbled covers, tawny pocket books, leather cases, gold and gilt paper books, ruled and unruled, the ordinary books of all different sizes, wax, wafers, pens, penknives, pencils, ivory to be used, and all different kinds of stationery, with an assortment of Jewellery, to be sold at the London prices for cash only.

Paper ruled and bound for accounts, all kinds of books bound and re-bound in the neatest manner and at the most reasonable rates, by

WILLIAM AIKMAN.

N. B. Catalogues both of the library and the books for sale to be had at his shop.

TO BE SOLD, BY THE SUBSCRIBER,

THREE hundred acres of prime land, and about thirty acres more, situate for ninety-nine years, all joined together, lying in Baltimore county, about ten miles from Bethel-Town, on the main road that goes from Bethel-Town, Pennsylvania, about twelve miles from Jessup, and about fifteen from Baltimore-Town; the land is good, and will suit either for farming, or planting tobacco; it is likewise well situated for a town or village, as it lies on the main road that all the waggon loads from the upper mills go to Baltimore-Town, and joins the land of Mr. Abraham Whitaker, where he now lives, who is building and letting lots to several people for keeping taverns and stores; it is well adapted for such business, as it lies in the heart of a settlement where there are large quantities of wheat raised, and many merchant mills convenient; there are also two small plantations; on one of them is a good dwelling house in middling good repair, a good barn, and a large apple orchard of good fruit, and here is a well on the other place there is a middling good dwelling house in pretty good repair, and other convenient houses, and a small apple orchard of good fruit; there likewise may be made meadow enough to support the place with hay, without much trouble. Any person or persons inclinable to purchase, may see the above land by applying to Mr. Abraham Whitaker, or the subscriber. Likewise to be sold, a large two-story brick dwelling house in the town of Jessup, on a water lot, the house is almost new, has four rooms on a floor, and eight fire places, cellars under the whole, and a neat store made of one of the rooms, which is quite private from the other part of the house, and now rented to Walter Foley, junr Esq; Any person inclinable to purchase the aforesaid house and lot, may know the terms by applying to the subscriber living in the fork of Gunpowder, near Jessup. The title of the whole indisputable.
