AN ODE

INSCRIB'D TO MISS STORER.

NENIUS of harmony! descend, In all thy fmiles appear, And, pleas'd, thy STORER's voice attend; For her's thou lov'st to hear: Bid ev'ry ruder found remove, Bid care, bid for ow fly, Let nough: be near, but lift'ning love, And heart-felt ecstacy,

For now thy STORER wakes the lay-And, mistress of the heart, Does, with our yielding passions play, Submiffive to her art. 'Tis her's to lead the mind along, With love's own ardors warm Her's, all the various pow'rs of fong; All musick's magic charm.

This portion of th' ætherial flame, This high-wrought charm, is giv'n To those alone of finer frame, The favourites of heav'n. For iure, it afks oæleftial art, And all the Seraph's ikill, To rule th' emotions of the heart, Or fix the wav'ring will.

As on the banks of Nile's fam'd ftream, Old Memnon's lyre renown'd, Touch'd by the fun's enlivining beam, Return'd a tuneful found: So warm'd by fome diviner ray, Some emanation bright Of narmony, fair STORER's lay Thus pains us with delight.

While now she wakes that living lay, And fills th' enraptur'd foul, I feel my beating heart obey, And own her toft controul. Sweet Harmonist! prolong the strain The melody of heav'n; And foothe with fongs, the tender pain, Thy tender fongs have giv'n-

An undoubted title will be made to the purchaser.

JAMES FRY.

AM defired by a friend to offer to publick fale at the next Nov. court in Frederick-Town, at the time when I am to fell the land conveyed to me by William Hilleary, a tract of land on Seneca, called Fork Grubby Hill, containing 305 acres in woods. This land is near the White Grounds, and is open to as good a range as any in the county. There is a fine place for a mill on it, with abundance of timber convenient thereto. I am also instructed to say, that there are 14 or 15 acres of fine meadow land, and two pieces of good level high ground, about 50 acres in each, separated by a small rising of poor land, from which I conclude, that by placing the buildings on that small rising, clearing the two pieces of 50 acres each, and improving the meadow, such a stock might be wintered as would foon make it valuable for a small force. as the cattle usually come in fat at the fall. And as I expect that industrious men from St. Mazy's county, who have laid up money during the late good times, and are tired of paying rent, will be bidders, therefore credit will be given for all the purchase money but ninety pounds sterling RICHARD HENDERSON,

Bladensburg, Sept. 29, 1773 INTEND to go to England this Fall, therefore all persons indebted to me, and those who have any claims against me, are hereby defired to come and fettle their accounts with FRANCIS HATFIELD

HE subscriper having lately purchased a tract of land, nearer and more convenient to him, will fell or rent on reasonable terms, several adioining tracts of land, which form one very compleat body of 1800 acres, lying on the head of Red Lion and Beaver Dam branches in Queen-Anne's. county, convenient to church and mill, within 8 miles of the head of Cheffer river, where there is a conftant cash market for every kind of grain, seven miles from a tobacco warehouse on the said river, and 22 miles from a landing on Delaware bay. These lands extend to a place known by the name of the Beaver Dam Caufeway, a very publick fitu-. ation for any kind of bufiness, there being from thence main roads leading to Chester-Town, Head or Chester, Dover, and Hopper's mill, tormerly Dockery's. They are capable of great improvement, and much having been already done in that way, they would be immediately profitable either to tenant or purchaser, and having full 300 acres of fine meadow grounds that may be drained at a small expence, and some of which are already well improved, a plenty of fine timber, and all the advantages of raising slock that an excellent range can afford, it is almost unnecessary to point out the future value of them to the publick; who are well acquainted with the continuing life of landed property. They will be disposed of together or in parcels, as will belt fuit purchasers or tenants, and if other terms can be agreed on, purchaters may have a long day of payment on paying interest. Those who may incline to buy or rent, will please apply to

THOMAS RINGGOLD. I want as a clerk, to whom I will give good wages, a person who writes a good hand, understands book-keeping, and can be well recommended tor his honesty and diligent attention to business.

THE fale of the lands advertised in this Gazette. -No. 1458, to be on the 22d inft. is put off till the 22d of October, (on account of the fitting of the provincial court) when they will certainly be fold to the highest bidder, at the house of John Holley, on the premisse, for sterling or current money, by
