cres, 40 of which is meadow, about 10 of are of wood land, and the rest very good or tobacco. Great part of this land is and has within these few years been improved by mud hauled out of the creeks and laid on it, which is easily done, being nearly surrounded by water. There are plantings all round the land, and plenty of chickens and wild fowl. A clear title will be given by the purchaser, on payment of the money, or for one half if required. I would advice you to incline to purchase, to view the plantation, and inform them of any particulars relative to the land.

in properly proved, to Wm. GOODWIN, Administrator:

To be sold, on Tuesday the 16th of November next, if fair, if not, the first fair day after, at the house of John Ball, in Annapolis, for sterling cash, bills of exchange, or current money;

VALUABLE tract of land, called the Golden Grove, lying in Dorchester county, near Chop-pans bridge, containing fifteen hundred acres. This land is well adapted either for farming or planting; and has on it several fine branches, which with a little trouble may be made fit for the scythe. There are on the said land, a new dwelling-house eighteen by twenty-two feet, well done, also several new tobacco-houses, barn, stable, mea-house, quarters, and all other convenient houses newly built. This tract is exceedingly well timbered, and large quantities of oak boards, and shingles may be got on it, there being at least nine hundred acres of wood, consisting chiefly of oak of all kinds, many large hickories and poplars. Part of the soil is very proper for producing fine tobacco, being a very rich black sand, and the other very fine for farming as a vale; the greatest part being very level, though some extreme pretty rising to be built on. Any person inclining to purchase will be intelliged with a considerable time for the payment of part of the money, on giving bond on interest, with good security if required. This but a final part of the money that is expected to be paid immediately.
Mr. Robert Dixon who now lives on the land has a lease of it for twenty-one years, eight of which is expired. The Title is indisputable.

RICHARD and BENNETT DARNALL.

Saint Mary's county, October 10, 1773.
To be sold at publick auction, on the premises, on Friday the fifth of November next,

LEASE for twenty-one years to come, being for part of a very valuable tract of land, known by the name of Mataponi, lying bold on the mouth of Patuxent river, a remarkable place for trade, fish and oysters, large sea vessels lay frequently within pistol shot of my door. On this land is a very good dwelling house, with two rooms below and one above, newly compleated; a garden lately paled in, and an old dwelling house, which, with a small expence, may be made to answer the purpose of a granery. Any person disposed to purchase said lease, may be further informed, and know the terms of sale, by applying to the subscriber, who may be met with at the house of Mr. James Anderson, tavern keeper, in Charles county, on Saturday the 30th of this inst. or at any other time on the premises.

WILLIAM ROGERS.
October 15, 1773.

To be sold, to the highest bidder, on Thursday the 11th day of November next, for bills of exchange, sterling cash, or current money,

PART of a tract of land, called Samuel's Chance, containing 250 acres, 60 or 70 acres under fence, it being very good land for wheat, corn, or tobacco; it lies on Hawlings river, in Frederick county, nigh to Mr. Henry Griffith's.
Any person inclining to purchase the said land, may know the terms by applying to me the subscriber on the said plantation.

SAMUEL FARMER.
October 27, 1773.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself James Green, and says he came from Antigua, he is about five feet eight inches high, can read and write very well. His master is desired to take him away and pay charges, to DANIEL SULLIVAN, junr. sheriff.

Annapolis, October 12, 1773.

THE subscriber understanding book-keeping in all its various methods, would be glad to appropriate the evenings of the ensuing season to posting or settling any merchant's or tradesman's books, or engrossing of writings for any private gentleman, or others, in any of the hands practised in England.
Those who may have occasion, and think proper to employ him, may depend on their business being executed in a neat and correct manner, by Their humble servant,
GEORGE RANKEN:

To be sold on Tuesday the 2d of October 1773, from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, not far from Magruder's warehouse, a mulatto fellow called Lin, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has been accustomed to wear his hair tied behind in a cue or club, he has a down look; speaks pretty good English, has a scar or depression on his forehead, occasioned by a blow, it is situated so high above his eyebrows that it may be easily covered with his hair; a small piece has been taken out of the grittly part of one of his ears by the bite of a horse: he took with him and may be supposed to wear, a blue duffel coat without lining, trimmed with basket buttons, a striped silk jacket, a pair of drilling and a pair of buckin breeches. Whoever seizes the said fellow so that the owner may get him again, shall receive three pounds reward, besides what the law allows.

JAMES TRUMAN.
THREE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away, on Sunday the 10th inst. (October) from the subscriber in Bladensburg, an indentured Irish servant man, imported last July from London, named Barnard Fitzpatrick, of middle stature, well set, dark complexion, black hair, has a remarkable scar on one side of his chin larger than a shilling: had on and took with him, two white shirts, a striped callico jacket, a cloth coloured half worn cloth ditto, leather breeches, a felt hat bound with black ferretting, thread stockings, a pair of blue ribb'd ditto; and it is probable he has forged a pass; he says he has a friend on board the man of war lying off Annapolis. Whoever shall take up and bring home said fellow, shall receive, if taken not more than 20 miles from home, thirty shillings; if above 20 miles, the above reward of three pounds, paid by

JAMES HUNT.
All masters of vessels are forbid to employ or carry him off.

TALBOT COUNTY RACES.
On Thursday the 11th of November will be run for, at Francis Clinton's, late Humphrey's, which is about twenty miles from Mr. Hutchings's ferry, years old eight stone, six years old eight stone seven pounds; and aged nine stone.

On the day following will be run for, PURSE OF TEN POUNDS, carrying weight for age, and blood to be fixed on the day of running by the judges. The winning horse the preceding day excepted.

And on the Saturday will be run for, the entrance money of the two first days, on the same terms as Friday's race; the winning horses only excepted.
The horses to be entered at Francis Clinton's the day preceding each race, paying thirty shillings the first day, and ten shillings for the second and third; and to start precisely at two o'clock each day. Proper judges will be appointed to determine all disputes.

Saint Mary's county.
WHEREAS Susanna the wife of the subscriber hath eloped from his bed and board; these are therefore to forewarn any person from trusting her on my account, as I am determined not to pay any debts of her contracting after the 17th day of October, 1773:

RICHARD MASON.
COMMITTED to the jail of Calvert county as a runaway, a young negro man, who calls himself Phill, and says he belongs to Peter Green, near Bryan-town, in Charles county; he is a well made fellow, about 5 feet 7 inches high; has on an old cotton jacket, osnabrig shirt and crocus trousers. His master is desired to take him away and pay charges.

CLEMENT SMITH, Sheriff.
STRAYED FROM ANNAPOLIS, A SMALL red cow, about 4 years old, with out spots, and her ears cropt; she cannot be far from town. Whoever brings the same to the subscriber, or acquaints him where she may be had, shall be rewarded for his pains.

ELIE VALLETTE.
October 27, 1773.

STRAYED or stolen about two months ago, a milch brown and white crumple horned cow, has a stir in both ears, four white feet, and a white end to her tail. Whoever will bring her home, or give information to Jordan Stigar, (baker) near the church, in Annapolis, shall receive fifteen shillings currency reward.

JUST IMPORTED,
In the Molly and Betsey, Captain Nicholson, from London, and to be sold, by the subscribers, at their store on the dock, in Annapolis, on very reasonable terms, for cash or short credit.

A NEAT and general assortment of European and East-India goods.
WALLACE DAVIDSON and JOHNSON.

ON Wednesday the 6th inst. in the bay between the mouths of Chester and Patapsco rivers, a sloop of mine; she is about 14 feet keel, her frame all of mulberry, except the stern; she is lined with pine plank, has a black bottom, and her gunwale painted yellow on the outside, and red on the inside as well as her stern she is. As the wind blew fresh from the northward it is supposed she has drifted a good way down the bay. Whoever takes up and secures the said boat, and gives such notice thereof as that the subscriber may get her again, shall receive fifteen shillings reward, and if delivered to Mr. James Cheston, in Baltimore-town, or to Mr. Charles Wallace in Annapolis, twenty shillings will be paid them, for account of

THOMAS RINGGOLD.
To be sold for ready money, at Baltimore-town, on Wednesday the third day of November, A BARGAIN Schooner boat, burthen 90 bushels, about three months old, supposed to sail as fast as any boat in the bay. At the same time will be sold, a few hogheads of old Lisbon wine.

ROBERT READ.
Bladensburg, Sept. 29, 1773.

INTEND to go to England this Fall, therefore all persons indebted to me, and those who have any claims against me, are hereby desired to come and settle their accounts with

FRANCIS HATFIELD.
TO BE LET,
The house and out houses lately the Rev. Mr.
Neill's, on Wye river, Queen-Anne's county, Maryland; together with a large garden, and two grass lots in front, between the house and the river; The house is well built, of good brick, 35 feet square, two stories; four rooms on each floor, with a commodious garret. A brick kitchen, 21 by 25, five rooms below, three above; very conveniently laid out for several useful purposes, three fireplaces below; and one above. A negro house, poultry house, stable, chaise house, and corn house. There are two orchards of very fine fruit, of which the tenant may have about as much as sufficient for every use for his family.
The situation is high, dry, healthy and very beautiful, being in full view of all the shipping trading in the river, and several fine seats. It has the advantages of very good fishing, fowling; and fine oyster beds in a good neighbourhood, about seven miles below the road from Philadelphia to Annapolis. A family at this place may either be quite retired, or enjoy the company of an agreeable set of acquaintance.
It should seem to be particularly suitable to a gentleman of either of the gentler professions, who has a family.
Apply to the subscriber at his dwelling house near and in full view of the above.

E. TILGHMAN.
N. B. A very fine cellar under the whole in three divisions, very well contrived.

Anne-Arundel county, October 11, 1773.

To be sold at publick vendue, the 25th inst. at the late dwelling house of William Reed, deceased, for ready money,

PARCEL of healthy country born slaves, some stock, and household furniture, &c. by ELEANOR REED, executrix.
The above mentioned stock and household furniture was advertised to have been sold the 20th of July last, but was put off on account of a dispute that arose amongst the children of the deceased about their respective claims, but will positively be sold on the day above mentioned.

E. R.
THE Land office issue warrants as formerly, and all persons who have made application for warrants or any kind of business in that office, are desired to apply, that they may not lose the benefit of such application.

WILLIAM STEUART, C. L. Off.
August 18, 1773.

RAN away from the subscriber, near Elk Ridge church, the 8th inst. an English convict servant, named Edmund Nunn, about 5 feet 8 inches high, 21 years of age, well made, fair complexion, gray eyes, wears his hair, one of his teeth stands further forward than the others: had on when he went away, an osnabrig shirt, roll trousers, felt hat, and coarse new shoes: he pretends to know the duties of a sailor, may have changed his name, and forged or otherwise fraudulently obtained a pass.
Whoever takes up and secures said servant, so that he may be had again, shall have if 30 miles from home, three pounds; if out of the province five pounds (including what the law allows) and reasonable charges, if brought home.
