Annapolis, October 22, 1773.
THE SUBSCRIBER takes this method to inform the ladies and gentlemen of this city, that he intends opening school on Monday the 8th day of November, in the house next door below Mr. Francis Fairbrother's, near the dock, where he purposes teaching the English language grammatically, writing various sorts of hands, arithmetic in all its branches, book keeping in the Italian manner, the elements of algebra, geometry and trigonometry, with their applications to measuring, surveying, and navigation.

And as he has for several years past, been honoured with the care and tuition of a considerable number of respectable pupils, considers himself under the greatest obligation to the publick of this polite metropolis, and therefore solicits the favour of their acceptance of this publick and grateful acknowledge, and as he is determined that the most minute opportunity of promoting the success of his pupils shall not be neglected, and that decorum and assiduity shall be observed, presumes his present and useful undertaking will merit general attention and encouragement, and that his faithful endeavours will gain esteem and approbation, and thereby promote his felicity, which will be center'd in a conscientious discharge of his duty.

I am, with reverence and respect,

The publick's most obliged,

And most humble servant,

THOMAS BALL.

Anne-Arundel county, October 18, 1773.
To be sold at publick sale, on Saturday the 27th day of November next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, for sterling money, bills of exchange, or current money at an exchange to be agreed on at the day of sale,

A VALUABLE plantation, containing 211 acres, 40 of which is meadow, about 10 of salt marsh, 50 of wood land, and the rest very good for wheat or tobacco. Great part of this land is very level, and has within these few years been greatly improved by mud hauled out of the creeks at low tides and laid on it, which is easily done, the place being nearly surrounded by water. There are good landings all round the land, and plenty of oysters, fish and wild fowl. A clear title will be made to the purchaser, on payment of the money, or long credit for one half if required. I would advise any person inclinable to purchase, to view the land before the day of sale, as some pains has been taken to prejudice the sale, by sundry persons, with a view to purchase it at a low price. The whole is under good fence, and lies on Rhode river, within seven miles of Annapolis. Nathaniel Waters who lives on the premises will shew the land to any one on application, and inform them of any particulars relative to the land.

To be sold by publick vendue, on Thursday the 25th day of November next, at Dorsey's forge, near Elk-Ridge Landing,

SEVERAL negroes, white servants, horses, cattle, waggons, carts, some household furniture, and sundry other articles, belonging to the estate of Mr. Caleb Dorsey, late of Anne-Arundel county, with the blacksmith. The sale to begin at twelve in pistol shot of my door. On this land is a very good dwelling house, with two rooms below and one above, newly compleated; a garden lately paled in, and an old dwelling house, which, with a small expence, may be made to answer the purpose of a granery. Any person disposed to purchase said lease, may be further informed, and know the

SAMUEL FARMER.

August 18, 1773.
RAN away from the subscriber, near Elk Ridge church, the 8th inst. an English convict servant, named Edmund Nunn, about 5 feet 8 inches high, 21 years of age, well made, fair complexion, gray eyes, wears his hair, one of his teeth stands further forward than the others: had on when he went away, an osnabrig shirt, roll trousers, felt hat, and coarse new shoes: he pretends to know the duties of a sailor, may have changed his name, and forged or otherwise fraudulently obtained a pass.
Whoever takes up and secures said servant, so that he may be had again, shall have if 30 miles from home, three pounds, if out of the province five pounds (including what the law allows) and reasonable charges if brought home.

THOMAS SAPPINGTON.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away, on Sunday the 10th inst. (October) from the subscriber in Bladensburg, an indentured Irish servant man, imported last July from London, named Bernard Fitzpatrick, of middle stature, well set, dark complexion, black hair, has a remarkable scar on one side of his chin larger than a shilling: had on and took with him, two white shirts, a striped callico jacket, a cloth coloured half worn cloth ditto, leather breeches, a felt hat bound with black ferretting, thread stockings, a pair of blue ribbd ditto, and it is probable he has forged a pass; he says he has a friend on board the man of war lying off Annapolis. Whoever shall take up and bring home said fellow, shall receive, if taken not more than 20 miles from home, thirty shillings, if above 20 miles, the above reward of three pounds, paid by w 3

JAMES HUNT.

All masters of vessels are forbid to employ or carry him off.

THE subscriber having lately purchased a tract of land, nearer and more convenient to him, will sell or rent on reasonable terms, several adjoining tracts of land, which form one very compleat body of 1800 acres, lying on the head of Red Lion and Beaver Dam branches in Queen-Anne's county, convenient to church and mill, within 8 miles of the head of Chester river, where there is a constant cash market for every kind of grain, seven miles from a tobacco warehouse on the said river, and 22 miles from a landing on Delaware bay.
These lands extend to a place known by the name of the Beaver Dam Causeway, a very publick situation for any kind of business, there being from thence main roads leading to Chester-Town, Head of Chester, Dover, and Hopper's mill, formerly Dockery's. They are capable of great improvement, and much having been already done in that way, they would be immediately profitable either to tenant or purchaser, and having full 500 acres of fine meadow grounds that may be drained at a small expence, and some of which are already well improved, a plenty of fine timber, and all the advantages of raising stock that an excellent range can afford, it is almost unnecessary to point out the future value of them to the publick, who are well acquainted with the continuing rise of landed property. They will be disposed of together or in parcels, as will best suit purchasers or tenants, and if other terms can be agreed on, purchasers may have a long day of payment on paying interest. Those who may incline to buy or rent, will please apply to tf

THOMAS RINGGOLD.

I want a clerk, to whom I will give good wages, a person who writes a good hand, understands book-keeping, and can be well recommended for his honesty and diligent attention to business.

RAN away the 2d of October 1773, from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, not far from Magruder's warehouse, a mulatto fellow called Lin, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has been accustomed to wear his hair tied behind in a cue or club, he has a down look, speaks pretty good English, has a scar or depression on his forehead, occasioned by a blow, it is situated so high above his eyebrows that it may be easily covered with his hat; a small piece has been taken out of the grizzly part of one of his ears by the bite of a horse: he took with him and may be supposed to wear, a blue duffil coat without lining, trimmed with basket buttons, a striped silk jacket, a pair of drilling and a pair of buckskin breeches. Whoever secures the said fellow so that the owner may get him again, shall receive three pounds reward, besides what the law allows.

JAMES TRUMAN.

Annapolis, October 12, 1773.
THE subscriber understanding book-keeping in all its various methods, would be glad to appropriate the evenings of the ensuing season to posting or settling any merchant's or tradesman's books, or engrossing of writings for any private gentleman, or others, in any of the hands practised in England.
Those who may have occasion, and think proper to employ him, may depend on their business being executed in a neat and correct manner, by all persons who have made application for warrants or any kind of business in that office, are desired to apply, that they may not lose the benefit of such application.

London, and to be sold, by the subscribers, at their store on the dock, in Annapolis, on very reasonable terms, for cash or short credit.

A NEAT and general assortment of European and East-India goods.
WALLACE DAVIDSON and JOHNSON

ON Wednesday the 6th inst. in the bay between the mouths of Chester and Patapco rivers, a Moses built boat broke loose and went adrift from a sloop of mine; she is about 14 feet keel, her frame all of mulberry, except the stern, she is lined with pine plank, has a black bottom, and her gunwale painted yellow on the outside, and red on the inside as well as her stern sheets. As the wind blew fresh from the northward it is supposed she has drifted a good way down the bay. Whoever takes up and secures the said boat, and gives such notice thereof as that the subscriber may get her again, shall receive fifteen shillings reward, and if delivered to Mr. James Cheston, in Baltimore-town, or to Mr. Charles Wallace in Annapolis, twenty shillings will be paid them, for account of
