Spanish men of war and six galleons richly laden arrived at Cadiz.

has been the emigration from Ireland of late, and that of the great decrease of the linen manufacture that we are informed, by a gentleman of merit arrived from Philadelphia, that in the last year there have been landed there, from ports in the north of Ireland, no less than 100,000.

The Spaniards know no better method to harass the rich kingdom of Naples, than by sending several courts of justice, with a small number of men at the head of them; so that they are obliged to take bribes, keep causes undecided, and do all they can to fleece the people in order to support their own dignity. There is a better scheme to drain Bengal of the money to feed among a licentious and luxurious set of wrangling lawyers, who will soon find their way to the province with the directors of the company and their servants.

great and wise ministers are at length, it is thought to their senses; the warm opposition of the opposition have met with on the other side of the compassing them to acknowledge that they have exceeded the bow far beyond their original intention.

for the good-natured part of the public may be led to with an accommodation between a royal pair, it is asserted by the knowing ones, which step has ever yet been in contemplation, and the nature of things ever can be effected.

aid, from private dispatches, that the late success of the attack of the Turks on a part of the Russian empire has so abundantly raised their spirits as to bid defiance to the victors.

Lazarina, whose pride and ambition is gratified by being considered as the sole agitator of the martial manœuvres on the continent, is never weary of being assured, merely a cat's paw to a certain high-reaching monarch, who has been so long to boast of his talents for fomenting and agitating national differences at will.

ANNAPOLIS, NOVEMBER 25.

English prints, with which we have been supplied by the packet, give an account of the safe arrival of the Annapolis at her moorings the 21st of the month. Captain Eden writes his intention of sailing for this province about the 25th of September, and to be before hourly expected should be so, and the weather keep open, the Annapolis will sail again for England, and return here early in the summer.

The papers of the 1st of September are inserted, that the Richmond, Captain Love, was safe at Dover, with whom went passengers Barpe, our late governor, and Mrs. Ogle.

HUNDRED GUINEAS REWARD.

ST, and supposed to be STOLEN. A LARGE folio book, covered with green vellum, containing part of the inestimable remains of the HOMER CLUB—Whoever finds the book, provided he is not a member, and will send it to Mrs. Howard at the coffee-house, close up, and makes oath before some magistrate that he came honestly by it, and that they have inspected the contents, nor suffered any person so to do, shall receive the above reward fifty pounds sterling for the book, and 25 for the finder.

N. B. All persons indebted to the said estate are desired to make immediate payment, and those who have accounts against the same are desired to bring them in regularly proved, that they may be settled.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform the public; that he has furnished himself with every thing necessary for the accommodation of travellers and others, and has opened a tavern on the north side of Severn river, in the house formerly kept by Mr. Page; where his best endeavours shall be exerted to oblige all who may think proper to favour him with their custom.

JOHN ROWLINS,

N. B. Said Rowlins and Barnes, carry on their business as usual, and hope for encouragement from the public.

FOR LONDON,

The ship MOKNING STAR, George Dempster master, lying at Baltimore, TAKES in tobacco on liberty of consignment; at seven pounds per ton. For freight or passage apply to JAMES CHRISTIE, junier.

THERE is at the plantation of George Sexton, near Frederick-Town in Frederick county, a small white mare, branded on the near shoulder SH, on the off thigh M, shod before; had a small bell and a pair of iron spangles on. The owner may have her, proving property and paying charges.

SCHEME OF A LOTTERY

For raising the sum of five hundred and six pounds five shillings, to be laid out in building a market-house in Chester-Town, and in repairing the town wharf; and erecting ferry stairs for the convenience of the public passing to and from Queen-Anne's county.

Table with 3 columns: No. of Prizes, Dollars, and Dollars. It lists prizes from 1000 down to 5, with corresponding dollar amounts.

968 Prizes. 1282 Blanks. 2250 Tickets, at 4 dollars each, are 9000

But a little more than one and a quarter blanks to a prize.

Fifteen per cent. to be deducted for the above purposes.

The necessity of repairing the town wharf, and building ferry stairs, for the convenience of the public, will be readily acknowledged—and the ruinous condition of the market-house, must induce every friend to the prosperity of the town or country, not only to wish, but to assist, in having it removed, and a neat and convenient edifice erected in its room. To effect these good purposes the above scheme is offered, and it is presumed a lottery so favourable to the adventurers, and instituted for such good designs, cannot fail to meet with the favour and patronage of the public.

The drawing is to begin on the 22d day of February next, at the court-house in Chester-town, under the inspection of the following gentlemen, who are appointed managers, and will give bond, and be on oath faithfully to discharge the trust reposed in them, viz. Thomas Smyth, Eleazer M'Comb, Col. Richard Lloyd, John Maxwell, John Voorhees, James Hynson, John Page, Jeremiah Nicols, Thomas Ringgold, William Sluby, jun. and Dr. William Bordley. As soon as the drawing is finished, the fortunate numbers will be published in the Annapolis, Baltimore and Philadelphia news papers, and the Prizes paid by the respective managers who signed the tickets.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of Messieurs Gilpin and Jurey of Kent county, of Messieurs Richard Tilghman Earle, & Co. of Mess. Hopper and Kent, and of Mr. Robert Brown, of Queen-Anne's county, of Mr. John Clapham, and Mr. Charles Wallace, at Annapolis, and of Mr. James Cheston, at Baltimore.

WILLIAM AIKMAN, BOOKSELLER and STATIONER, ANNAPOLIS,

Has just imported, in the Betsey and Molly, Captain Nicholson,

A LARGE collection of BOOKS on instructive and ornamental literature, containing a general assortment of all the English classics, histories, religion, miscellanies, voyages, essays, novels, 150 different plays, Latin and English school books, and all kinds of stationary—To be sold at the London prices, for cash only.

Books bound and re-bound in the neatest manner and at the most reasonable rates. Paper ruled and bound for ledgers, journals, &c. upon return if not done according to directions.

W. A. takes this opportunity of returning his most grateful thanks to the public for the great encouragement his circulating library has met with. The library at present consists of upwards of 1200 volumes; there will be a large addition of the new publications and periodical papers subjoined to the catalogue upon the arrival of the first ship from London; and such additions will be made from time to time, as will render the Annapolis library upon a footing, if not superior, to any circulating library on the continent. Books lent out by the year, quarter, month, or night, at the prices affixed in the catalogue.

N. B. A considerable allowance will be given to dealers who take books in quantities: A large parcel of common bibles; and a few dozens best coloured ball-tine threads, to be sold in wholesale.

RAN away from the subscriber, about 18 months ago, a lusty strong negro man named Hammetts about 23 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high, his nose and upper lip grow closer together than common, owing to a hurt he had when a boy; he is supposed to frequent the quarters of Mess. Edward Gantt and Samuel Parran in Calvert county, as he has a brother at each of these places. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to the subscriber living near Benedict-town on Paruxent river, shall receive a reward of five pounds currency from

JOHN PERRIE.

Saint Mary's county, Nov. 21, 1773.

COMMITTED to my custody as runaways, two mulatto men, viz. James Ellis; about 26 years of age; 5 feet 4 inches high; has on and with him; one white shirt, three of snabrig ditto, one linen coat, one fearnought ditto with metal buttons, one country cloth jacket, one pair of snabrig trousers, a pair of snabrig breeches, yarn hose, a pair new shoes, an old hat; and says he belongs to Robert Dorman of Richmond county, Virginia. Acknowledged by Sorrell, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high; has on and with him, two of snabrig shirts; one white ditto, one blue coat with metal buttons; country made fustian jacket, a pair of snabrig breeches; a pair of old fustian ditto, yarn hose, a pair of old shoes; a felt hat bound with worsted binding, and says he belongs to Richard Mitchell of Lancaster county, Virginia. Their masters are desired to pay charges and take them away.

HUGH HOPEWELL, Sheriff.

October 28, 1773.

STOLE out of the subscriber's pasture, on Tuesday the 14th of September, a black Mare, about thirteen hands and a half high, four years old, branded on the near buttock CH; she has a large star, and was with foal when taken away. Whoever will bring her to the subscriber shall have 20 shillings reward.

CLEMENT HILL.

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

STRAYED or stolen out of Joseph Ennall's pasture, in Dorchester county, on Saturday night the 16th of October, 1773, a likely sorrel horse, about 14 hands high, 6 or 7 years old, with a large blaze in his face, both hind feet white half up the legs, hanging mane, switch tail, paces and gallops. Whoever will bring the said horse to the subscriber, at Ennall's ferry, in the said county, shall receive the above reward of eight dollars, all reasonable charges, paid by JOSEPH ENNALLS.

Annapolis, Sept. 19, 1773.

RAN away from the subscriber, last night about eight o'clock, an indentured servant man; named Thomas Hoskins, lately imported in the Lovely Kitty; Capt. Collwell Howard, is a bricklayer by trade, a stout well set man, about 28 years of age, fitted with the small-pox, wears his own hair; and is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; took with him a jacket and breeches of light coloured bearskin, with snabrig lining; he took also a new felt hat, a red striped under jacket, dark blue yarn stockings, and copper buckles; he has a discharge from the army in the name of John H. Howay, and without doubt will go by that name; he says he has a brother in Philadelphia, and his supposed will make that way; his thought he has a forged pass. Whoever takes up the said servant and delivers him to the subscriber, or secures him in any jail so that he may get him again, shall receive five pounds reward, besides what the law allows.

WILLIAM BUCKLAND.

A MAN that understands farming and making a meadow, that will undertake the care of 12 hands, and bring proper recommendations of his knowledge and fidelity, may meet with encouragement, by applying to DANIEL of SAINT THOMAS JENIFER.

TO BE LET

THE house and out houses lately the Rev. Mr. Neill's, on Wye river, Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, together with a large garden, and two grass lots in front, between the house and the river. The house is well built; of good brick, 33 feet square, two stories; four rooms on each floor, with a commodious garret. A brick kitchen, 41 by 25; five rooms below, three above, very conveniently laid out for several useful purposes, three fireplaces below; and one above. A negro house, poultry house, stable, chaise house, and corn house. There are two orchards of very fine fruit, of which the tenant may have abundantly sufficient for every use for his family. The situation is high, dry, healthy and very beautiful, being in full view of all the shipping trading in the river, and several fine seats. It has the advantages of very good fishing, fowling, and fine oysters; in a good neighbourhood, about seven miles below the road from Philadelphia to Annapolis. A family at this place may either be quite retired, or enjoy the company of an agreeable set of acquaintance.

It should seem to be particularly suitable to a gentleman of either of the genteel professions, who has a family.

Apply to the subscriber at his dwelling house near and in full view of the above.

E. TILGHMAN.

N. B. A very fine cellar under the whole in three divisions, very well contrived.

Annapolis, October, 12, 1773.

THE subscriber understanding book-keeping in all its various methods, would be glad to appropriate the evenings of the ensuing season to posting or settling any merchant's or tradesman's books; or engraving of writings for any private gentleman, or others, in any of the hands practised in England. Those who may have occasion, and think proper to employ him, may depend on their business being executed in a neat and correct manner, by Their humble servant,

GEORGE RANKEN.
