TAKEN from my landing, about the 19th of October last, a boat, about 16 feet keel, her frame all mulberry, had a white bottom, her gun-wale painted blue on the outside and red on the inside, as are her seats; her step board painted one iron from the top of her stern as far as her keel, which is of gum; she is remarkably roomy aft for a boat of her size, has a small fore-castle, and steps for two masts, with a back board, and has been built about twelve months. I doubt not but the villain who took her away will give her a bottom of anobelow Blackston's island. Whoever secures said boat, so that the subscriber gets her again, shall re-immediately.

THE said ship will carry tobacco as usual, at Seven pounds per ton. Insurance is ordered to be made on her cargo, according as orders for the same may be given on putting the tobacco on board.
T. E. thinks it necessary to inform his friends, that it has been told him, that the law for regulating the staple, or the inspection law, requires that all tobaccos of this last year, that are not inspected, be shipped before the first of January: he therefore hopes, that the arrival of the Annapolis at this time will prove critically convenient, and that she will meet with such dispatch, as will enable her to return to England, and be back in the country one of the earliest ships next spring, when such goods as may be ordered by her shall be brought out.

The accounts of sales of this ship's last cargo are expected by the next ship, as the greatest part thereof was sold before capt. Eden left London, a memorandum of which he has brought out with him for the information of his friends, who will find the prices for tobacco at home not so low as has been reported.

N. B. Any tobaccos intended to be sent home in this ship by gentlemen whom capt. Eden may not have time to make personal application to, shall be punctually sent for on notice thereof communicated to him or any of the following gentlemen; viz.
Maj. Sim near Upper Marlborough, Mr. James Dickenson in Talbot county, Capt. Carmichael at Chef-ter, Mr. James Hutchings jun. on Kent Island, or Mr. Robert Smith in Annapolis.
