FOR SALE,
TWO thousand acres of exceeding fine land for tobacco, wheat, or Indian corn, lying on both sides of Bull-Run, in Loudoun and Prince William; about 300 acres of it are rich low ground and meadow land. It lies within 4 miles of two merchant mills, and about 10 miles of two other merchant mills in Loudoun; 30 miles from Colchester, Alexandria, and Dumfries. If any person or persons incline to purchase the whole, or any part of the said lands, they may be shewn them; and know the terms; by applying to Capt. Francis Peyton, in Loudoun county; who has full power to treat for the same, or to the subscriber. It may be laid off in lots of two, three, or four hundred acres (as may best suit the purchasers) with an equal quantity of low ground and meadow land to each lot.
ROBERT BURWELL.
Rock Castle, December 16, 1773.

ALL persons having claims against John Morton Jordan, deceased, late of the city of Annapolis, are desired once more to bring in their accounts legally proved immediately, that payment may be made. Sundry persons have at different times told me that they have claims against the estate, for tobacco shipped, &c. and have hitherto neglected (if they have any such legal claims) to bring them in; this is to give them notice, that the administrator is paying over the balance of the money come to his hands, to carry the direction of the deceased's will into execution, and looks upon it that after this public notice given, that those who neglect to bring in their accounts will be forever barred; and the administrator not liable for any debts of the deceased that may hereafter come against him. Those who are indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment, otherwise suits will be brought against them to the next court; without exception.
REUBEN MERRIWETHER, administrator with the will annexed, of J. M. J. with respect to his effects in this province only.

THERE is at the plantation of Edward Stewart, in the Fork of Patuxent, a pied stray bull; five years old next spring, marked with a crop, three slits and under bit on the right ear, and a crop, one slit and under bit on the left; he has been there and in the neighbourhood two years. The owner may have him again, proving property and paying charges.

RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, near Poplar Spring Chapel, in Anne Arundel county, an Irish convict servant, named Lawrence Connolly, about eighteen years old, swarthy complexion, slim made, speaks much in that dialect: had on and took with him, a blue coat and waistcoat double breasted, white shirt, worsted stockings, new shoes, and a Carolina felt hat. Whoever takes up the said servant, and delivers him to Charles Porter, overseer on said plantation, of the subscriber living on Elk-Ridge, shall receive as a reward twenty shillings if taken twenty miles from home, thirty shillings if thirty miles, forty shillings if forty miles, and three pounds if out of the province, besides what the law allows.
JOHN DORSEY.

November 22, 1773.
To be sold at public vendue on the premises, on Monday the third day of January next,
THE plantation and tract of land, late the property of William Ottey, Esq; deceased, situate, lying and being in Baltimore county, Maryland, containing upwards of eight hundred acres, about ten miles from Baltimore-town, on the main road leading to Frederick-town and to Virginia; there are about two hundred acres of cleared land; about eight acres of meadow cleared, and in good timothy grass, a good dwelling house and kitchen; and a barn about forty feet, with a good threshing floor; a log stable, and other convenient buildings; there is also a very good mill seat on the main falls of Patapsco, belonging to the tract; there is an extensive range for cattle and hogs, which makes the land more valuable, as the Baltimore-town market always affords a fine price for fresh butter and roasting pigs. It lies convenient to three merchant mills, where ready money may always be had for good wheat. The purchaser may have immediate possession and a deed; on paying one third of the purchase money; with good security for the payment of the residue in twelve months, with interest. The title is clear and indisputable. Any person inclinable to view the land may apply to Mr. Zachariah M'Cubbin, living near the premises, who will shew it. If it should either rain or snow on that day, the sale to be on the first fair day after.

RAN away from the subscriber on Sunday last, a servant man, named Thomas Hall, a carver by trade: had on, a Wilton cloth coat of a redish colour, one frock of dark coloured fustian, waistcoat of the same, new buckskin breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and silver buckles; he wears his own hair which is curled at the ears and clubbed behind; is about five feet nine inches high, slim made, pitted with the small-pox. The indenture he signed in London was given up to him and a discharge, after which he executed another indenture; by which he was to be allowed in consideration of his former service, wages after the rate of ten shillings per week till the expiration of his time, which would have been in September next: masters of vessels are requested not to carry him out of the country; and whoever takes up and secures the said servant, shall receive five pounds reward; and if brought home reasonable charges.
WILLIAM BUCKLAND.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.
November 27, 1773.
RAN away from the subscriber in Dorchester county, an Irish servant man, about five feet nine or ten inches high; named Joseph Anderson, schoolmaster, but 'tis like he may change his name, has a thin visage, about thirty years of age, wears his own hair tied behind, but short, gray headed: had on when he went away, old furtoat coat; a thin jeans coat, a knit pattern jacket with buttons covered of the same, old leather breeches, a pair of ribbed worsted stockings; a pair of English shoes, pinchbeck buckles, English hat cut in the fashion; check shirt, and black Barcelona handkerchief: 'tis supposed he has taken with him about eighteen or twenty pounds in cash that was stolen. Whoever takes up said servant, so that his master may get him again, shall have the above reward and reasonable charges, paid by THOMAS ENNALLS, 3d.

December 15, 1773.
WENT away about ten days ago from the house of the subscriber in the city of Annapolis, a young mulatto woman, called Moll or Polly, about twenty three years of age, thin and low in stature; she is supposed to be secreted either on the north side of Severn or elsewhere; by a negro man of Mr. John Brice's, called Paul, with which negro she keeps company: if any person except the negro abovementioned will bring the said mulatto woman to the subscriber, they shall be handsomely rewarded for their trouble, and whoever harbours or entertains her shall be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law.
CHARLES CARROLL of Carrollton.

THERE is at the plantation of Ninian Bellison of Ninian, in Frederick county, a stray black horse, about 14 hands high, not branded, a small star on his forehead, paces a little and is heavy. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.

Fredericksburg, November 30, 1773.
RAN away from the subscribers on the twenty-second instant, two servant men, the one a barber, an Englishman, named John Cackle, with short brown curled hair, five feet seven inches high: had on, a coloured coat and jacket, blue cloth breeches, and a small fashionable hat, speaks thick, and stoops a little in the shoulders. The other a tailor, calls himself an Englishman but has the Irish accent, named John Driver, with short bushy hair, five feet five or six inches high: had on, a blue coat, red striped gingham jacket; and wilton breeches. Whoever takes up said servants, and delivers them to us in Fredericksburg, shall have five pounds reward, or in proportion for either of them.
JOHN ATKINSON,
JAMES NEWTON.

Annapolis, December 16, 1773.
STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, a small black horse, about thirteen hands high, a large star on his forehead, trots very fast, gallops well, has a very short tail. Whoever brings said horse to John Clarvor in Annapolis, shall receive ten shillings reward; paid by John Clarvor or the subscriber,
WILLIAM NIXON.

Patowmack river, Maryland, Nov. 28, 1773.
TAKEN from my landing, about the 19th of October last, a boat, about 16 feet keel, her frame all mulberry, had a white bottom, her gunwale painted blue on the outside and red on the inside, as are her seats; her step board painted one half white and the other half red; she has a plate of iron from the top of her stem as far as her keel, which is of gum; she is remarkably roomy aft for a boat of her size, has a small fore-castle, and steps for two masts, with a back board, has been built about twelve months. I doubt not but the villain who took her away will give her a bottom of another colour; she was seen in drag of a small Schooner below Blackston's island. Whoever secures said boat, so that the subscriber gets her again, shall receive four dollars, and if delivered to me at my landing about four miles from Piscataway Creek, six dollars will be paid them by THOMAS HANSON MARSHALL.

To be sold to the highest bidder, on the last Wednesday in January next,
A SINGLE geerd breast mill that goes by water, with a bolting cloth; and about 80 or 90 acres of land, lying in Frederick county, about ten miles from Bladensburg, and fifteen from George-Town. There are two plantations on the said land, and most of it may be made into good meadow, some of which is already cleared. Credit will be given for the money, if required; on giving bond on interest; with security.
NINIAN EDMONDSON.

To be SOLD AT PUBLIC SALE,
On Tuesday the 4th day of January, 1774. at 12 o'clock, by the subscriber, living in Baltimore county;
A TRACT of land containing 514 acres, lying near the main falls of Patapsco, in the county aforesaid, and within 15 miles of Baltimore town, whereon are three plantations in good order for farming and planting, with good orchards and meadows, dwelling houses, stables, barns, and out houses. The land is good and level, and contains timber enough to support it. Indisputable right will be given. The plantations will be sold separate or all together as may best suit the purchaser. The land may be viewed by applying to me on the premises.
WILLIAM PEDDICOART, sen.

Annapolis, December 8, 1773.
PRYSE and PARKER,
COACH and COACH HARNESS MAKERS from London;
TAKE this method to acquaint the public, that they have just furnished themselves with a large quantity of the best materials for the coach-making business; which they now carry on, in all its various branches, at their shop just without the Town-gate, opposite the Smith's shop; and flatter themselves they can give as great satisfaction to those ladies and gentlemen who please to favour them with their commands as any of the trade, as they have had many years experience in the most eminent and approved of shops in London. All orders shall be punctually executed on the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.
Said Pryse carries on the saddlers and harness-making business as usual, and hopes, from his constant endeavours to oblige, for a continuance of encouragement from the public.
