Dorchester county, December 6, 1773.
THE subscriber having a negro man committed to his custody as a runaway while he was sheriff, about 5 feet 8 inches high, who calls him- self James Green, and says he came from Antigua; and the said negro being still in his possession, desires his master to take him away.

DANIEL SULIVANE, jun.

December 14, 1773.
RAN away from the subscriber on Sunday last, a servant man, named Thomas Hall, a carver by trade: had on, a Wilton cloth coat of a redish colour, one frock of dark coloured fustian, waistcoat of the same, new buckskin breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and silver buckles; he wears his own hair which is curled at the ears and clubbed behind, is a- bout five feet nine inches high, slim made, pitted with the small-pox. The indenture he signed in London was given up to him and a discharge, after which he executed another indenture, by which he was to be allowed in consideration of his former ser- vice, wages after the rate of ten shillings per week till the expiration of his time, which would have been in September next: masters of vessels are re- quested not to carry him out of the country; and whoever takes up and secures the said servant, shall receive five pounds reward, and if brought home reasonablen charges.

WILLIAM BUCKLAND.

November 22, 1773.

To be sold at public vendue on the premises, on Monday the third day of January next,
THE plantation and tract of land, late the pro- perty of William Ottey, Esq; deceased, situate, lying and being in Baltimore county, Maryland, containing upwards of eight hundred acres, about ten miles from Baltimore-town, on the main road leading to Frederick-town and to Virginia; there are about two hundred acres of cleared land, about eight acres of meadow cleared, and in good timothy grass, a good dwelling house and kitchen, and a barn about forty feet, with a good threshing floor; a log stable, and other convenient buildings; there is also a very good mill seat on the main falls of Patapco, belonging to the tract; there is an exten- sive range for cattle and hogs, which makes the land more valuable, as the Baltimore-town market always affords a fine price for fresh butter and roast- ing pigs. It lies convenient to three merchant mills, where ready money may always be had for good wheat. The purchaser may have immediate pos- session and a deed, on paying one third of the pur- chase money, with good security for the payment of the residue in twelve months, with interest. The title is clear and indisputable. Any person inclina- ble to view the land may apply to Mr. Zachariah M'Cubbin, living near the premises, who will shew it. If it should either rain or snow on that day, the sale to be on the first fair day after.

Francis Peyton, in Loudoun county, who has full power to treat for the same, or to the subscriber. It may be laid off in lots of two, three, or four hundred acres (as may best suit the purchasers) with an e- qual quantity of low ground and meadow land to each lot.

ROBERT BURWELL.
Rock Castle, December 16, 1773.

ALL persons having claims against John Morton Jordan, deceased, late of the city of Annapolis, are desired once more to bring in their accounts legally proved immediately, that payment may be made. Sundry persons have at different times told me that they have claims against the estate, for to- bacco shipped, &c. and have hitherto neglected (if they have any such legal claims) to bring them in; this is to give them notice, that the administrator is paying over the balance of the money come to his hands, to carry the direction of the deceased's will into execution, and looks upon it that after this public notice given, that those who neglect to bring in their accounts will be for ever barred, and the administrator not liable for any debts of the deceased that may hereafter come against him. Those who are indebted to said estate are desired to make im- mediate payment, otherwise suits will be brought against them to the next court, without exception.

WILLIAM NIXON.

Patowmack river, Maryland; Nov. 28, 1773.

TAKEN from my landing, about the 19th of October last, a boat, about 16 feet keel, her frame all mulberry, had a white bottom, her gun- wale painted blue on the outside and red on the inside, as are her seats; her step board painted one half white and the other half red; she has a plate of iron from the top of her stem as far as her keel, which is of gum; she is remarkably roomy aft for a boat of her size, has a small fore-castle, and steps for two masts, with a back board, and has been built about twelve months. I doubt not but the villain who took her away will give her a bottom of another colour; she was seen in drag of a small schooner below Blackston's island. Whoever secures said boat, so that the subscriber gets her again, shall re- ceive four dollars, and if delivered to me at my landing about four miles from Piscataway Creek, six dollars will be paid them by

THOMAS HANSON MARSHALL.
