THE SHIP ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10, 1774.
TAIN EDEN takes this Method of informing his Friends in Patuxent, that, in compliance of the Request of many of them, he intends to sail round to Benedict next month, in order to remove the apprehensions they seemed to have, by long a water carriage for their tobacco in that way, and begs that, in order to prevent any delay, those whom he may not have an opportunity of seeing, or applying to, will leave notes for the tobacco intended for him with the factors of the different warehouses; and also orders for goods they may want from England, return of the ship, in the latter part of the month. Insurance is ordered, and shall be inserted in bills of lading of those who do not desire contrary.
correspondents, in other parts of the province who are desirous of getting their tobacco by this opportunity to a very early market, requested to give him timely notice, when and in what way they are ready, in order that he may send craft to be convenient for them to send it by their own vessels, or to hire any upon the spot, he will acknowledge their taking that trouble as an additional favour, and will pay the usual freights on delivery thereof on board the ship at Annapolis, the bill will continue 3 or 4 weeks from this date, and accounts of sales for the last voyage are daily published.

JUST PUBLISHED,
SOLD BY WILLIAM AIKMAN,
BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER, Annapolis.
THE American Register and Calendar for 1774.
Likewise, Father Abraham's and Poor Will's Almanacks for the present Year.
To be sold at W. A.'s shop a few groats of PORT WINE of the best quality, newly imported.

AND TO BE SOLD.
TWO tracts of land at the mouth of Coanecocheague, containing five hundred thirty acres and three quarters of an acre, which I intend at the sale of the manor, where a minor keeps public house, and where my brother George lived; whereon is a house two stories high with brick chimneys, three fire rooms below and three above, with cellars, barns, outhouses, good meadow, and plenty of timber to support for many, many years. But it is so well known to every Jersey or Pennsylvania man, who has been to the southward to look out for land for children, that there is no occasion to say one word in praise of it. Whoever buys it shall have time enough to put a crop of winter grain in the ground.

DAVID ROSS

Baltimore-Town, Jan. 10, 1774.
ADVERTISEMENTS have from time to time been published, requiring all persons indebted to Mess. John Stewart and Campbell of London, merchants, to make payment thereof, notwithstanding which many people have neglected settling their accounts: the death of Mr. John Stewart making it now absolutely necessary that all balances due the partnership should be settled without delay, those who neglect doing so may depend on being sued without farther notice.

Attendance is given at Baltimore-Town to settle for dealings with David Ross, Alexander Stewart, Stewart and Lux, William Lux, William Russell, Russell and Ridley, with Matthew Ridley, or on accounts current, and it is hoped none who wish to avoid trouble will delay settling.

MATTHEW RIDLEY.
Those who have settled their bonds and not taken them up are desired to call for them immediately.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.
Dec. 19, 1773.
RAN away last night from the subscriber living on Snowdens manor, Frederick county, Maryland, an Irish servant man named Timothy Corker, by trade a tailor, about 5 feet 6 inches high, fair complexion, thin yellow hair, talks fast and in the Irish dialect: had on and took with him a felt hat, a light brown kersey jacket with sleeves, a pair of breeches of the same cloth, an Irish linen shirt, a check ditto, a pair of white country yarn stockings, a pair of country made shoes, and his hands are hard, occasioned by chopping with the ax; it is probable some evil minded person has furnished him with other cloaths and a pass: Whoever apprehends the said servant and secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall be intitled to the above reward, and if brought home reasonable charges paid by Baltimore Town, January 18, 1774.

WILLIAM HICKS, Esq; merchant in Whitehaven, having appointed the subscriber, his attorney in fact, to transact and settle all his affairs in North America, all persons indebted to him, on bills, bonds, notes, or accounts, for goods shipped them, dealings with Basil Bliscoe deceased, Mr. Robert Watts, or Vernon Hebbesq; late attorneys in fact for him (or otherwise) are desired to make immediate payment, or be prepared to do it by March court next; and for the convenience of those indebted in Saint Mary's county, I will attend at Leonard Town, on Wednesday and Thursday in the said court week, in order to receive and settle the same. All persons that neglect to comply with this request, will be dealt with in the strictest manner the law will admit of, for the recovery thereof, without respect of persons. To be sold at private, if not at public sale, the following tracts or parcels of land, lying in St. Mary's county, and as conveniently situated as any in those parts for commerce and trade, and once the metropolis of Maryland, and flourishing city of St. Mary's, which land lye adjoining to each other, and have almost every conveniency man can ask for, being on a fine navigable river, and shipping may lye safe and close to their store or granery's doors, and plenty of fish and oysters. The lands are good and contain as follows: Saint Mary's freehold, 7 acres. Governor's field, 200. Squires purchase, 37. Part of St. Peters, 100. The old chapel land, 27. In the whole 371 1/2 acres: on which are the following improvements, a good dwelling house, 54 by 20 with 4 rooms below and 3 above, with a brick chimney and two fire places; kitchen, meat, and milk-houses. Store house 20 by 16, counting house, granery, barn 40 feet square, two quarters for negroes, and all other convenient houses and fine springs of water, one of which is sufficient for a water mill, and has had one erected on it many years, and ground for most of the neighbourhood, but gone to decay within these few years; (the mill house and stones are still on the spot), and may be rebuilt at a small expence. There is also adjoining the same, a piece of lease land containing 378 acres, with good improvements thereon. It is impossible to describe all the conveniencies belonging to these lands, any person wanting to purchase, may see the same by applying to Vernon Hebbesq; or Mr. Massey Leigh, living near the premises and will shew them. Likewise part of another tract of land lying within one mile of the others, called the Church Hill lands, containing about 500 acres, being wood land and plenty of timber thereon; the quit rent of those lands are trifling, being under old rents and part thereof pays only 20lb wheat per hundred acres.

Also to be sold several valuable slaves, being all country born, consisting of men, women, and children, amongst which is a tanner and shoemaker, a cook and washerwoman; the others have all been bred up to plantation business, also all the stock of horses, hogs, &c. and all other things on the plantation. The whole or any part of the lands, negroes, &c. may be purchased at private sale from the subscriber, and attendance will be given on the spot, from the 20th of February, to the first of March next for that purpose, and if not sold by then, the same will be exposed to public sale on Tuesday, the third day of March next; if fair, if not, the first fair day, and continue until the whole is sold by

May 20, 1773.
In pursuance of a deed executed on the 18th day of May, 1773, by Messrs. John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate, joint partners in trade, to us the subscribers, in trust for the payment of their debts in the manner in the said deed expressed, which deed is recorded among the records of Charles county,

NOTICE is hereby given to the country creditors of the said John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate, and the holders of bonds and other specialties, and bills of exchange, actually and bona fide executed and drawn by the said John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate, in the province of Maryland, that we have appointed the twenty-first day of February next, to meet the said creditors in the town of Port-Tobacco in Charles county, in the said province of Maryland, for the purpose of receiving their claims in writing against the said John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate, joint partners in trade as aforesaid, and releases of the persons of the said John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate. And that all those of the said creditors, who shall neglect or refuse to signify their claims in writing to us or one of us, or who shall neglect or refuse to release and acquit the persons of the said John Barnes and Thomas How Ridgate, in consideration of the benefits and advantages the said creditors are to receive under the said deed, on or before the said twenty-first day of February next, will be barred and excluded from all manner of benefit and advantage under the said trust-deed, and the powers therein contained, according to the purport true intent and meaning thereof. JOHN ROGERS,
THOMAS STONE,
PHILIP RICHARD FENDALL.

December 14, 1773

RAN away from the subscriber on Sunday last, a servant man, named Thomas Hall, a carver by trade: had on, a Wilton cloth coat of a reddish colour, one frock of dark coloured fustian, waistcoat of the same, new buckskin breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and silver buckles; he wears his own hair which is curled at the ears and clubbed behind; is about five feet nine inches high, slim made, pitted with the small-pox. The indenture he signed in London was given up to him and a discharge, after which he executed another indenture, by which he was to be allowed in consideration of his former service, wages after the rate of ten shillings per week till the expiration of his time, which would have been in September next; masters of vessels are requested not to carry him out of the country, and whoever takes up and secures the said servant, shall receive five pounds reward, and if brought home reasonable charges. WILLIAM BUCKLAND.

Queen-Anne's county, Jan. 14, 1774.
