Alexandria, Feb. 23, 1774.

BAY BOLTON, a full blooded Hunter, WILL stand this next season at Torthorald, my plantation, about half way between Alexandria in Virginia and George-Town in Maryland, the place he stood at last year, and will cover Mares on the same terms, at one guinea the leap and five shillings to the groom, or two guineas the season and ten shillings to the groom.—I think it needless to describe him, as so many good judges have seen him, and agree he is the completest horse that has been imported for this country; he is in much better order this year than he was last, and is grown.—Those who choose to go by the season may depend on good pasture and great care, but I will not be answerable for any mares that may be lost. Last season we had twenty odd mares at a time, some staid near a month, none were lost or hurt, and all returned in better order than when they came.—The money will be expected, when the mares are taken away, by JOHN CARLYLE.
