

W A N T E D

For King WILLIAM'S School, PERSON capable of discharging the office of...

T A N N E R,

one brown horse, 2 1/2 hands high, imported by...

Elk-Ridge, April 22, 1774. THIS day, I the subscriber took up a young...

JOHN BRYAN. He says he had another horse, which in his...

April 28, 1774. HERE is in the possession of the subscriber...

Lower Marlborough, April 17, 1774. PTAIN EDEN informs his friends in...

of gentlemen on the Eastern shore, who are now...

of gentlemen, who want goods out in the fall...

of gentlemen on this side of the bay, whom...

RICHARD BURLAND, tailor and habit-maker...

GREEN and SON.

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

T H U R S D A Y, MAY 12, 1774.

TO THE PRINTERS.

Please to insert the following, and you will oblige...

To DR. CHARLES WIESENTHAL.

S I R, May 9, 1774.

THE ipse dixit of any person, however reasonable...

I think your signing a letter directed to me, pointing...

I understood from you when at Mr. Coale's, on July...

It must be obvious to every reader, that there is such...

Every person on perusing your first letter, must...

Now sir, it appears to me from your last performance...

In my first letter, I have been explicit on the nature...

* You complain of my omitting to mention his having a...

manner a pathognomonic sign of putrid fever. I will...

I beg you will compare these symptoms with Mr. Coale's...

I have in my first letter pointed out to you, also...

You observe that a putrid fever was induced from...

Mr. Coale, for six weeks previous to the fever, had...

in what manner is he now to get clear of it;

to disperse it, you say, will bring on a putrid fever...

I mentioned a spontaneous separation of the gluren...

By using the bark and claret at the time I did, was...

I still deny an abscess existing on Mr. Coale (except...

I thought it requisite to point out how a difficulty...

I have not denied but what I said there was no matter...

Your saying I was told of there being an abscess...

You seem desirous to convince the reader, that you...

You have been so conscious of the futility of your...