

standing with our mother country; what will be left to time.—The merchants and inhabitants on Monday last named a committee of five; to-morrow at noon a meeting is appointed at a coffee-house, to approve or disapprove, when business will be assigned them, to act, as is supposed, in concert with our sister colonies—in doing this will be highly necessary, that the sentiments of each be well understood before any determination is made, for a partial resolution will not avail in this time of calamity.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away last night, a negro man, who says he is a freeman, and calls himself Thomas Jones; he brought a kind of pass from Baltimore county eighteen months ago, wherein he is called Thomas Smith; he indented himself to me in January last; this month I gave him a discharge from his indenture, on account of his feigning fits, as plainly since appears, in order to get clear from me; he is six or seven and twenty years of age, a very lully fellow, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high; had on an old cotton waistcoat and breeches, osnabrig shirt, black and white yarn stockings, and shoes with strings in them; he took from the subscriber a negro woman named Nan, eighteen years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, whom he calls his wife; she had on and took with her a calico jacket and petticoat, an osnabrig ditto, a cotton ditto, shoes, stockings, and an old straw hat, with many other things too tedious to mention. Whoever brings the said negroes to the subscriber near Annapolis, shall receive twenty shillings if ten miles from home, thirty shillings if twenty miles, fifty shillings if thirty miles, three pounds if forty miles, and the above reward if out of the province, or twenty dollars for either, paid by CALEB DORSEY, son of Tho: May 11, 1774.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.

Anne-Arundel county, Elk Ridge, May 10, 1774.

RAN away last night, an Irish servant man, named Thomas Bready, about 25 years old, 5 feet 6 inches high, has but little beard, and some marks of the small-pox in his face, is a good deal freckled, has long brown hair clubbed, and often nicely curled at the sides; his common dress is a full black and white country cloth over jacket, very long, a short under waistcoat unfulled black and white, with breeches of the same, black and white country yarn stockings, old country shoes with strings, one of them patched on the side, a pretty good English fire hat with a black silk band and buckle; he carried with him sundry other cloaths, viz. an old green cassimer coat very much worn and faded, an old striped flannel waistcoat, a pair of mixed cloth breeches made out of an old coat turned, I suppose he has worn these last mentioned cloaths, and carried the others for change, he has a brown downas, and two osnabrig shirts, is subject to get drunk, and has one of his thighs broke, which makes him hop very much in his walk, I expect that he is gone off with a brother of his, a very strong well set fellow, a servant to Mr. Philemon Warfield, as I found the horse at my house this morning which I believe that servant used to ride when he came to visit my servant; his brother. Whoever takes up the said servant and brings him home to me, shall receive the above reward.

REUBEN MERIWETHER.

N. B. I have since discovered that he has stolen a light mixed wilton coat with a red cape, and a light blue broad-cloth waistcoat with plain white metal capped buttons, which I suppose was for his brother to wear.

Annapolis, March 15, 1774.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 11th instant, living near Lyon's creek, Calvert county, a servant man named John Baptist Dilla Franey, born in England but of French extraction; he went away with a certain Mary Pain, who has with her a young child, they are supposed to have gone to some part of Herring Bay or the river sides, as he professes some knitting and can cart and plow. The said Franey is well set, broad shouldered, about five feet two inches high, his hair between a sandy and lightish brown, gray eyes, full visaged, and remarkable for stammering in his speech; had on when he went away a lightish coloured jacket and breeches, osnabrig shirt, old yarn stockings, new shoes and buckles, and a felt hat. Whoever takes up the said servant and brings him to the subscriber shall have 30 shillings reward if taken in the county, and out of the county a pistole, paid by the subscriber, and reasonable charges; and if in any prison to give immediate notice to

HENRY CAMDEN.

Baltimore-Town, March 12, 1774.

TO be sold, and entered upon in a month if required, a lot of ground, situate in Frederick-street, near Meyer's tan-yard, and between the two lower bridges on Jones's falls; there are 130 feet on the front, 180 feet deep, and 215 feet on the lower front. It is on lease for 99 years, renewable for ever, and subject to a ground rent of only 40s. sterling per annum. About 16 years of the lease are expired; on the front of the lot on Frederick-street, is a large brick dwelling house, wherein the subscriber now lives, 50 feet front, 23 feet deep, two story high, having two parlours, a passage, and stair-case below; four good chambers, three whereof have fire places, and above, two good garrets well finished. There are also adjoining to the said dwelling, a good brick kitchen and landry, with proper chambers for servants; also a brick warehouse, 32 feet by 25, two story and cellar, nearly one half of the front of the lot is yet unimproved, there being only an old log building hitherto served as a jail, and which may be removed at pleasure. There is an exceeding good garden well inclosed; this lot would suit a distiller, brewer, or sugar-baker; as there is room sufficient for building, and a lane may be opened through the lot from one street to another; what buildings are on this lot are faithfully executed, the brick walls some are 18 inches thick, and none less than 14 inches, even to the ridge pole; the purchaser need lay down but little cash, if any, good security with interest will suffice, and one fourth of the money will be only at four per cent per annum interest; as I am determined at all events, to leave this province, and desirous of settling all my affairs, any person inclinable to purchase, will find me very reasonable in my demand for this lot.

DANIEL CHAMBER.

Annapolis, April 13, 1774.
