not, says his lordship, wish to see the least perfection remain in the plan which we if there does, the consequence may be duce bloodshed? that the whole plan decide, that every part of it may be pro-ed; and I trust that such a measure as have now taken will show to that counanation is roused to defend their rights and curity of peace in its colonies; and when measures which they take are not cruel, ye, but necessary and efficacious. Tem-requires temporary relief, I shall there-propose this bill for the limited time of three We must consider that every thing we valuable to us is now at stake, and the very shortly this, whether they will continue of Great-Britain or not? this I propose as sure that parliament will take, after which that his majesty's servants shall be vigilant in their duty, and keep a watchful eye over every against the powers we shall now pass, and not degree of disobedience TO OUR MEASURES in that country! such a watchful and careful at the first rise of disobedience, may be a ive against future consequential mischiefs. and customary relief of troops that is ordered try, is ordered in the first place to Bolton; ata being the usual relief: governor Hutchhome, and his majesty has appointed ge-as commander and governor in chief; a great abilities and extensive knowledge of will give him a superior advantage, and and residence there will prevent him from impolitic partiality to the Americans, and force a due observance to those measures have taken and shall send out.

the thing I much wish, which is the punishment individuals who have been the ringleaders and of those mischiefs. Our attention will be convolved in that point: a prosecution has already been instigated by his majesty's servants, but I cannot say any very good effect until this law shall have provision. We must particularly guard illegal or ineffectual proceedings, or else, trouble, we shall find ourselves at last in dilemma we were in at first? we must observe innocence, and a conscientious avoidance of of any laws. His majesty's servants I make it will be thoroughly watchful against such breach, at any time proceed upon slight grounds, the happiness to be assisted by the ablest law-have both resolution and abilities; and by such outlines, I make no doubt that that disobedience which hath hitherto unfortunately, will be tempered and brought to reason observance of those measures which we have and I trust will secure to us the blessings dedicated out of the boiling disturbances and of opposition in that country. When are pursued with that resolution, and ties which I have mentioned, I doubt not, will be happy and advantageous to this coun-no more, sir, says his lordship to add, but affirmation will make the motion, "that the be directed to move the house, that leave ing in a bill for the impartial administration in cases of persons questioned for any acts in the execution of the laws, or for the of riots and tumults in the province of Massachusetts in New England." apart from—I do not mean sir to trouble the but I hope I am justified by the importance of delivering my sentiments. Great-Britain can nor ought to set silent, and behold and disturbances that have been committed in committed, I say by a people sent out from try, as it were from our own bowels; to ite disobey the laws and precepts of Great-and to sit tamely and to take no notice, would conduct, highly unworthy the British legiti-for what purpose were they suffered to go to that that all officers, civil and military, except and discharge the several trusts and duties in them reposed and enjoined by their present respective commissions, until such time as they shall receive directions to the contrary; and to the end that all persons concerned may have due notice thereof, I do strictly charge and require the several sheriffs of this province, to make The character of this seminary, which depends wholly on the public benevolence, and its own real merit, is now pretty generally known through all the southern parts of this province: It was instituted about eight years ago, by a few persons of the neighbourhood, in which it is situate, entirely with a view to the education of their own children: a small genteel building was erected, for the accommodation of the masters and scholars; another was fitted up to serve as a kitchen and dining-room, and to lodge the cook and servants under his direction. Many students from the western and eastern shores of Virginia, and different counties of this province, applying to be admitted, an addition, in a very short time, was found necessary, which, by the liberal contributions of the public was easily effected; but there still is want of room, or the present scholars, and such others as have applied for admission. A farther addition is therefore intended, and considerable sums already subscribed for that purpose; but left a sufficiency should not be raised in that way, this lottery, at the warm recommendation of several gentlemen, has been set on foot, and it is expected that, as it well deserves, so it will meet with public encouragement. Some hundred tickets are already engaged, and we flatter ourselves we shall dispose of the remainder almost immediately, so that the drawing may commence on the 10th day of November, at farthest, of which notice shall be given, and a list of the fortunate numbers, published in the Maryland and Virginia papers. The lottery will be drawn at the school-house, in the presence of at least three of the managers, and the prizes, after a deduction of 15 per cent, paid by the gentlemen of whom the respective tickets were purchased, or by the managers.

The following gentlemen, Messrs. Levin Gale, Samuel Wilton, Planner Williams, James Robertson, John Winder, George Wilton, Luther Martin, Henry Waggaman, Thomas Maddox, and Henry Jackson, of Somerset-county, are appointed managers, and are to give bond, and be upon oath, for the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in them. Prizes not demanded in six months after the drawing is finished, will be deemed generously given for the use of the school, and applied accordingly.

Prince George's county, May 18, 1774.
COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a very likely young negro wench, by the name of Catharine Rice, but whose real name is Rue or Ruth.
She formerly belonged to Mr. Jonathan Plowman, who sold her to one Mr. Heicks, in the barrens of Baltimore county, to whom she says she now belongs. Her master is desir'd to pay charges, and take her from RALPH FORSTER, Sheriff.

ANnapolis, June 13, 1774.
RAN away on Saturday night last, the following servants, viz. Joseph Belong, a convict, aged about 35 years, born in the west of England, by trade a joiner and painter; he is a short thick fellow, wears his own dark hair, his dress is supposed to be a dark grey coat, nankeen waistcoat and breeches, and new shoes. The property of George Steuart.
Thomas King, an indentured servant man, imported in the Chance, Capt. Campbell, in March last, a bricklayer by trade, a stout well set fellow, of a swarthy complexion, about 30 years of age, born in England, and has been many years on board a man of war; had on and took with him, a brown bear skin coat, blue cloth waistcoat and breeches, gray yarn stockings, country made shoes and calico hat. The property of Richard Sprigg.

Thomas Easton, by trade a joiner, an indentured servant man, imported in the Betsy Richmond, Capt.
Nicol, in February last, is a Scotchman, and talks much in that dialect; he is a middle sized man, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has short black hair, his fore teeth are very irregular, his dress is uncertain, though it is supposed he has on and with him a suit of purple broad cloth with twist buttons, a new fine hat, an old brown cloth coat, black velvet waistcoat, leather breeches, striped holland trousers, a pair of English shoes that have been soled, and sundry white shirts and neckclothes; he has money with him.
The property of John Randall. Whoever apprehends the said servants, and delivers them to their masters, or secures them in any jail, so that they may get them again, shall receive for each man five pounds reward, and reasonable charges, paid by the subscribers.

GEORGE STEUART.
RICHARD SPRIGG.
JOHN RANDALL.

THERE is at the plantation of Benjamin Ogle, Esq, near Annapolis, taken up as a stray, a bay horse, about twelve hands high, has three white feet, a blaze in his face, and shod all round, but has no perceivable brand. The owner may have him again, on proving property and paying charges.

RAN away from the subscriber, June 10, 1774. at Alexandria ferry, on the Maryland side, on Sunday night the 5th instant, an indentured Irish servant man, named Thomas Breaten, about 22 or 23 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, much pitted with the small-pox, smooth face, has light coloured short hair, thin nose, down look, of a ruddy complexion, has a rupture on one side, and is supposed to be in company with another servant; had on and took with him one blue tartan coat, one light coloured bear skin ditto much worn, one Irish linen shirt, three ofsnabrig ditto, one pair of buckskin breeches; two or three pair of ofsnabrig trousers; one pair of black worsted hose, one pair light ditto, one half worn felt hat, a pair of shoes not fellows, a pair of leather bags, and other things too tedious to mention; he has a forged pass with him which I expect has Mr. John Bayne's and Capt. Alexander Kaye's names signed in it, wrote by himself, he writes a very good hand and speaks very broad.
Whoever takes up the said servant shall have three pounds reward if taken thirty miles from home, five pounds if fifty miles, and reasonable charges paid, it brought home.

JOHN CLIFFORD.

To be sold by the subscriber, on Monday the first day of August next, if fair, if not, the first fair day, THREE tracts of land all in one body, lying and being in Calvert county, near Lyon's Creek, containing about four hundred and twenty acres, for sterling cash, or bills of exchange, as far as to the amount of my debts in sterling, and the remainder in bills, gold, silver, or paper dollars at the exchange.
Those gentlemen inclinable to view the land and purchase, I will give them the names of those gentlemen I am indebted to in sterling. The land lays level and very kind, suitable for corn, tobacco, or small grain; there is good corn ground enough cleared to produce six or seven hundred barrels yearly, and a third part of it or more good wood land, besides skirts of branches full of rail stuff. There are upon the said land, a dwelling house thirty feet by eighteen, two rooms upon a floor, with two brick chimneys, three fire places completely finished, kitchen, corn-house, quarter, cellar, and other out-houses, with an exceeding fine apple orchard, which will produce two thousand gallons of cyder yearly. Also a framed dwelling house twenty-four feet square, with kitchen and stable suitable either for tavern or store, lying on the main road from Annapolis to Lower Marlborough; a fo-three forty feet tobacco-houses, two of which is a cube ground tarred, and two tenements suitable for tenants or overseers; the above land lays convenient for all sorts of trade and shipping, and likewise for the fishery; there is on the said land several fine springs very convenient; the above land is under a very good fence, and has a fine prospect, the title is indisputable.
The purchaser may have liberty to sow small grain next fall, and enter upon it the first of January next.

Also two tracts of land lying and being in Prince George's county, within six miles of Nottingham, and a quarter of a mile of each other, containing one hundred and eighty-five acres or more, the land is full of timber and rail stuff, and white oak suitable for building flats or boats, and very suitable to the above tract to supply it with timber, hoghead stuff, or shingles; the land also is very suitable for tobacco, corn, or small grain, and remarkable for raising a stock of all kinds; the title is indisputable.

HENRY CAMDEN.

Ek-Ridge, May 28, 1774.
To be sold at public vendue, on Tuesday the 21st of June next, at Nathan Linthicum's, in Anne-Arundell county, near the Poplar Spring chapel, for ready cash, if convenient to the purchasers, if not, for credit, on giving bond or note, with good security, if required, and they to be executed payable to the subscriber on the same day, before any of the effects are taken from the premises,

A VERY valuable country born young negro man, white servants, sundry horses, breeding mares and colts, cattle, part of them valuable cows and calves, hogs, remarkable fine sheep, good feather beds, and other household furniture, plantation utensils of all kinds, and sundry other things too tedious to mention.

EDWARD GAITHER, jun.
ARCH. MONCREIF.
On the same day will be sold at public vendue, by Edward Dorsey, son of John, the said Linthicum's land, containing about 230 acres, which is very valuable, and well adapted for farming or fine tobacco, is remarkable for range and meadow ground, and has sundry good improvements, such as dwelling house, kitchen, barn, and other out houses.

On the same day will be sold at public vendue, by William Peddicart, jun. about 200 acres of land, being part of the aforesaid tract, lying adjacent. The lands will be sold together or separate, as may best suit the purchasers. The two parcels containing about 430 acres, will make as complete a settlement as any in Anne-Arundell county, for the quantity of acres.
Any person or persons inclinable to purchase, may view the premises before the day of sale, by applying to Mr. Peddicart.

THE subscribers finding that very little regard has been shewn to their former advertisements, give notice, that all persons indebted to Mr. John Buchanan, merchant, in London, or to Mess. John Buchanan and son, and who shall neglect to pay what they owe, or to settle, and secure the same by the last day of this month, will immediately thereafter be sued.
And all the creditors of Mr. John Buchanan, or of Mess. John Buchanan and son, are desired to apply to us for payment of their debts—not to draw bills on the house at London, which will not be paid on account of many inconveniences already experienced.
