

Esquires, or any two of them, for this province, to attend the deputies from the colonies, at such time and place, as may be agreed on, to effect the union, operating on the colonies with the mother country, and preservation of American liberties for this province immediately, and to communicate with the other colonies, to obtain a general congress, and to communicate with the other colonies, to obtain a committee, that the twenty-fifth day of May, 1774, at Philadelphia the most convenient time and place, to prevent the proposal.

Resolved, that this province, and dealings with that colony, which shall decline or refuse to come into an association, which may be adopted by the colonies, that the deputies from this province call together the committees of the several counties, to obtain a copy of these resolutions, to be also published in the Maryland Gazette.

JOHN DUCKETT, Clk. Com.
A very considerable and respectable body of Harford county, on the 12th of June, 1774.

Hall, Esq; chairman.
Resolved, that it is the opinion of this meeting, that the town of Boston is now suffering from the effects of the late act, and that it is the duty of every colony in America, to unite in the most effectual means to obtain a repeal of the late act, and to prevent the effects of the late act.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved, that we will join in an association, to prevent the importation of any goods, or to import from Great-Britain, or to purchase any goods, or to sell any goods, or to use any goods, or to employ any goods, or to give any goods, or to receive any goods, or to do any thing, which shall be contrary to the above resolutions.

Resolved therefore, that the inhabitants of this province are disposed firmly to unite with the inhabitants of this province and the other colonies in North-America, in an association and agreement to forbear the importation of all manner of goods and merchandize from Great-Britain, during the continuance of the said acts of parliament (except such articles as may be judged proper to be excepted by a general association) and that orders for importation (except for articles before mentioned) ought to cease.

Resolved, that it is against the opinion of this meeting, that the colonies go into a general non-importation act, or non-exportation to Great-Britain, but should rather, or either of those measures be adopted, they will acquiesce therein.

Resolved, that it is the unanimous opinion of this meeting, that the courts of justice be kept open. But should non-exportation agreement be generally come into, that case it is the opinion of this meeting that the courts of justice be shut up.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of the inhabitants of this province, that this province ought to break off all trade and dealings with that colony, province, or town, which shall refuse or decline to come into similar resolutions with a majority of the colonies.

Resolved, that it is the unanimous opinion of this meeting, that delegates be appointed from this province, to attend a general congress of delegates from the other colonies, at such time and place as shall be agreed on, in order to settle and establish a general plan of conduct for the important purposes aforesaid.

Resolved, that Thomas White, William Richardson, Isaac Bradley, Nathaniel Potter, Benton Stanton, and Thomas Goldsborough, be a committee to attend a general meeting at Annapolis. And that the same gentlemen together with Charles Dickinson, Richard Dalton, Joshua Clark, Henry Dickinson, Dr. William Doleston, Charles Blair, William Harkins, Philip Fiddeman, William Hopper, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Keene, the Rev. Mr. Philip Walker, Henry C. Ston, and Benedict Brice, be a committee of correspondence to receive and answer all letters, and on any emergency, to call a general meeting, and that any seven of the number have power to act.

Resolved, that this paper be considered as an instruction to the deputies nominated for this county to meet at the city of Annapolis for the purpose of forming a general association, in which they are not to come into any engagement whatever, but upon condition that the colonies in general shall come into a similar measure.

Resolved, that a copy of the proceedings be published in the Maryland Gazette, to evince to the world the sense they entertain of the invasion of their constitutional rights and liberties.

Signed per order,
HENRY DOWNES, Jun. Clk.
At a meeting of the inhabitants of Frederick county, held at the court-house of said county, on Monday the 20th of June, 1774.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this meeting, that the town of Boston is now suffering from the effects of the late act, and that it is the duty of every colony in America, to unite in the most effectual means to obtain a repeal of the late act of parliament for blocking up the harbour of Boston.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of a great majority of this meeting, that if the colonies come into a joint resolution, to stop all imports from, and exports to Great-Britain and the West-Indies, till the act of parliament for blocking up the harbour of Boston, as well as every other act oppressive to American liberty be repealed, the same may be the means of preserving to America her rights, liberties, and privileges.

Resolved, that therefore this meeting will join in an association with the several colonies in this province, and the principal colonies in America, to put a stop to all exports to, and imports from Great-Britain and the West-Indies, shipped after the 25th day of July next, or such other day as may be agreed on, until the said acts shall be repealed; and that such association shall be upon oath.
