

June 3, 1774.
 To be sold by the subscriber, on Monday the first day of August next, if fair, if not, the first fair day, THREE tracts of land all in one body, lying and being in Calvert county, near Lyon's Creek, containing about four hundred and twenty acres, for sterling cash, or bills of exchange, as far as to the amount of my debts in sterling, and the remainder in bills, gold, silver, or paper dollars at the exchange. Those gentlemen inclinable to view the land and purchase, I will give them the names of those gentlemen I am indebted to in sterling. The land lays level and very kind, suitable for corn, tobacco, or small grain; there is good corn ground enough cleared to produce six or seven hundred barrels yearly, and a third part of it or more good wood land, besides skirts of branches full of rail stuff. There are upon the said land, a dwelling house thirty feet by eighteen, two rooms upon a floor, with two brick chimnies, three fire places compleatly finished, kitchen, corn-house, quarter, cellar, and other out-houses, with an exceeding fine apple orchard, which will produce two thousand gallons of cyder yearly. Also a framed dwelling-house twenty four feet square, with kitchen and stable suitable either for tavern or store, lying on the main road from Annapolis to Lower Marlborough; also three forty feet tobacco-houses, two of which is double ground tarred, and two tenements suitable for tenants or overseers; the above land lays convenient for all sorts of trade and shipping, and likewise for the fishery; there is on the said land several fine things very convenient; the above land is under a very good fence, and has a fine prospect, the title is indisputable. The purchaser may have liberty to sow small grain next fall, and enter upon it the first of January next.

Also two tracts of land lying and being in Prince George's county, within six miles of Nottingham, and a quarter of a mile of each other, containing one hundred and eighty-five acres or more, the land is full of timber and rail stuff, and white oak suitable for building flats or boats, and very suitable to the above tract to supply it with timber, hoghead stuff, or shingles; the land also is very suitable for tobacco, corn, or small grain, and remarkable for raising a stock of all kinds; the title is indisputable.

Prince George's county, May 18, 1774.
COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a very likely young negro wench, by the name of Catharine Rice, but whose real name is Rue or Ruth. She formerly belonged to Mr. Jonathan Plowman, who sold her to one Mr. Heicks, in the barrens of Baltimore county, to whom she says she now belongs. Her master is desired to pay charges, and take her from 3 w 3X RALPH FORSTER, Sheriff.

St. Mary's county, June 9, 1774.

Nan, about seventeen or eighteen years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high; has on and with her, an osnabrig jacket and petticoat, a callico petticoat, a white linen apron, three white linen handkerchiefs, a blue and white printed ditto, and a pair of shoes and stockings; says she belongs to Caleb Dorsey, near Annapolis. Their masters are desired to take them away, and pay charges to 2 (811) HUGH HOPEWELL, Sheriff.

There is at the plantation of Walter Wilton, lying at the mouth of Antietam creek on Patowmack river, taken up as a stray, a young bay mare, 2 or 3 years old, about thirteen and a half hands high, neither dock'd or branded, but trim'd between her ears. The owner may have her again, proving property and paying charges.

There is at the plantation of Sarah Shaw, living on Owens creek, Frederick county, a dark bay horse near fourteen hands high, fourteen or fifteen years old, has a small star in his face, some saddle spots, and has had the fistula, he trots and paces. The owner is desired to pay charges, and take him away.

June 8, 1774.
 To be sold, a valuable tract of land lying in Frederick county, about seven miles from Frederick town, containing three hundred and forty acres. Any person inclinable to purchase, may know the terms, and view the land, by applying to Mr. George Murdoch in Frederick town, or the subscriber in Bladenburgh.
 2 WILLIAM MURDOCH.
 N. B. Eighteen months credit will be given, on giving bond upon interest.

London Town, April the 12th, 1774.
 This is to inform the public, and my old customers in particular, that I still continue to carry on the staymaking business in all its branches; as I have furnished my self with the best materials for that purpose, those ladies that choose to favour me with their custom, may depend upon being served in the neatest and best manner, and on the shortest notice, by the public's humble servant,
 ELIZABETH FERGUSON.
 N. B. She also keeps good entertainment for men and horse.

STOLEN or strayed, on Saturday night the 19th of June, from John Clifford's, in Prince George's county, at the ferry crossing to Alexandria, a brown mare, five years old, better than thirteen hands high, trots and gallops, branded on the hear shoulder with a blotch not unlike the letter A. Whoever delivers said mare to the subscriber, living in Annapolis, or the above John Clifford, or to Mr. Thomas Role in Queen Anne's, shall receive the sum of twenty shillings, besides all reasonable charges, by WILLIAM HARDY.

There is at the plantation of John Whittle, living on the head of Severn, taken up as a stray, a bright bay gelding, about 5 years old, and about 13 and a half hands high, shod all fours, has a small star in his forehead, switch tail, standing mope, paces, trots, and gallops, has no perceivable brand. The owner may have him again, proving property, and paying charges.

There is at the plantation of Thomas Sprigg, jun. in Prince George's county, taken up as a stray, a small black mare, about thirteen and an half hands high, four years old, branded on the near buttock A B, has a small snip on her nose, a hanging mane, and switch tail, paces, trots, and gallops. The owner may have her again, proving property and paying charges.

St. Mary's county, June 12, 1774.
 To be sold by the subscriber, at the Queen-Tree on Patuxent, for cash or wheat,
 BETWEEN three and four thousand feet of fine oak and poplar scantling, that will serve either for a brick or wooden house; a sulky with harness; about one hundred and fifty fathom of sean rope, an indented servant who has rather more than a year to serve, and is expert at all plantation work; also a pair of hand mill stones very good, with irons, and in a rane.

Upper-Marlborough, May 18, 1774.
 The subscriber begs leave to inform his old customers and the public, that he has lately supplied himself with all kinds of materials for carrying on the staymaking business as usual. Those ladies who chuse to favour him with their custom, may depend on being served in the best and neatest manner, and newest fashions, with packthread stays, jumps, half bone, or turn stays, of any kind whatever. All orders will be executed on the shortest notice, and most moderate prices, by JOHN O'CONNOR.

Baltimore-Town, March 12, 1774.
 To be sold, and entered upon in a month if required, a lot of ground, situate in Frederick-street, near Meyer's tan-yard, and between the two lower bridges on Jones's falls; there are 130 feet on the front, 180 feet deep, and 115 feet on the lower front. It is on lease for 99 years, renewable forever, and subject to a ground rent of only 40s. sterling per annum. About 16 years of the lease are expired; on the front of the lot on Frederick-street, is a large brick dwelling house, wherein the subscriber now lives, 50 feet front, 23 feet deep, two story high, having two parlours, a passage, and stair-case below; four good chambers, three whereof have fire places, and above, two good garrets well finished. There are also adjoining to the said dwelling, a good brick kitchen and landry, with proper chambers for servants; also a brick warehouse, 32 feet by 25, two story and cellar, nearly one half of the front of the lot is yet unimproved, there being only an old log building that served as a jail, and which may be removed at pleasure. There is an exceeding good garden well inclosed; this lot would suit a distiller, brewer, or sugar-baker; as there is room sufficient for building, and a lane may be opened through the lot from one street to another; what buildings are on this lot are faithfully executed, the brick walls some are 18 inches thick, and none less than 14 inches, even to the ridge pole; the purchaser need lay down but little cash, if any, good security with interest will suffice, and one fourth of the money will be only at four per cent per annum interest; as I am determined at all events, to leave this province, and desirous of settling all my affairs, any person inclinable to purchase, will find me very reasonable in my demand for this lot.
 DANIEL CHAMIER.

Annapolis, May 4, 1774.
 ROBERT ARMSTRONG and WILLIAM HOWARD take this method to inform their friends and the public in general, that they now carry on the tallow chandlery and soap boiling business, in all their different branches, at their house in East-Street, near the market; where those who may be pleased to favour them with their custom may depend on their punctuality. They flatter themselves, that the quality of their goods, and easy terms, will sufficiently recommend them to the notice and favour of the public.
 N. B. Common dipp'd candles, by the box eleven pence halfpenny, ditto, under thirty weight, one shilling per pound; mold candle, fourteen pence by the box, ditto by the single pound fifteen pence. Hard soap by the pound nine pence, soft ditto by the gallon one shilling. Cash for tallow and myrtle wax.

Annapolis, June 21, 1774.
 WHEREAS Sarah the wife of the subscriber, did on the twenty-eighth day of April last, by her own free will and consent, agree to separate and depart from me, as by a certain agreement duly executed between the said Sarah and myself, may more fully appear; this is therefore to forewarn all persons from dealing with her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting from the date hereof.
 JOHN WARREN.
