RUTH SHAW, executrix.

N. B. All persons indebted to the estate of the late Dr. Shaw, are requested to make immediate payment, and those who have any claims, against the said estate are desired to bring in their accounts.

To be sold, to the lowest bidder, at the Cool Springs in St. Mary's county, on Tuesday the 10th day of October next.

The building of an over-shot water-mill at said place, when a full meeting of the trustees for Charlotte Hall is earnestly desired.

Signed by order, HENRY THURMAN, clk.

To be sold, or let on ground rent, FORTY-THREE lots of ground in the late addition to Baltimore-town. For terms and title apply to the subscribers in said town.

JACOB MYERS, OWEN ALLEN.

LOST on Saturday last, between Mr. Toombs's tavern, Head of Severn, and Lower Patapasco ferry, a pair of saddle bags, containing a pocket-book, sundry papers, of value to someone but the owner, some linen, &c. Whoever returns the said bags to the printer hereof shall receive the above reward of four dollars.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a number of vestries will be wanted this summer, to bring about 300 tons of stone from Mr. Brook's quarry at Rappahannock, and load the same on Cape Henry; for the light-houses; any person inclinable to engage in this work, are desired to treat with Matthew Phrippy Paul Esq. and Thomas Newport Esq. The directors of the light-house, will also be glad to purchase loads of stone from the bottomed vessels, from eighty to one hundred and twenty tons burthen.

BASSETT MOSELEY, CLK.

TO BE SOLD. A TRACT of land, containing upwards of 3000 acres, situated in the county of Richmond upon Rappahannock river, opposite to Mr. Robert Beverley, extending between two and three miles upon the river; a great part of it lies well, is extremely rich and abounds with timber. There are also besides the quantity of dry land above-mentioned, between 4 and 500 acres of valuable marsh, which may be easily reclaimed. Great quantities of meadow land, together with a valuable mill seat, are to be had on a large water-course running through the greatest part of the tract, which affords several delightful situations for gentlemen's seats, commanding extensive prospects up and down the river; where the greatest plenty of fish and fowl are to be had. A part of the tract is at this time in possession of tenants at will, some of whom pay from £20 to £25 annual rent for 100 acres. It will be sold (and possession given at Christmas) either together or in parcels, by private bargain; at any time before the 20th day of October; and if not disposed of before that time in this manner (of which public notice shall be given in the Virginia gazette) it will be offered for public sale upon the premises, on the third Monday in November. Twelve or eighteen months credit will be allowed, upon giving bond with good security. The lands will be shown, the terms made known to those who incline to purchase privately, and an undoubted title made by the subscriber in Westmoreland county. W. WILLIAM BERNARD.

Twenty Dollars Reward. A man away last night from the subscribers living on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, a convict servant man named Stephen Stewart, lately arrived in the ship Aston Hall, capt. Parker, from London, a likely fellow about 25 years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches high, middling slender made, fair complexion, short hair, or sandy coloured hair, freckled face, speaks good English, and pretends to understand farming; he had a black and white mark on his forehead, and took with him a new floating shirt, new coarse country linen trousers, new felt hat, an old English coloured full'd country cloth coat without cuffs, the fore parts and sleeves much patched; and a considerably too long for him, a pair of old shoes lately soled, and iron buckles without tongues, which he fastens on with nails. Whoever takes up the said servant and secures him in any jail, so that his master gets him again, shall receive, if taken 10 miles from home 30 shillings, if 20 miles 3 pounds, if 50 miles 5 pounds, and if out of the province the above reward, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges, if brought home.

JOHN HOOD.

P. S. I understand he has since stolen a sandy wig, a spotted swanikin jacket, a check shirt, and a pair of pumps.

There is at the plantation of Thomas Sim Lee, in Prince-George's county, taken up as a stray, a bright bay mare, about 7 years old, 13 hands and an half high, a small star on her forehead, and a snip on her nose, has a distula on her shoulder for which it appears she has been rowelled, her two hind feet white, spots and gallops. The owner may have her again on proving property and paying charges.

To be sold, by public vendue, on Thursday the first day of September next, on the premises, A PARCEL of land, containing 256 acres, lying in Prince-George's county, about five miles from Nottingham and about three from Magruder's warehouse; on which are a new dwelling house, 25 by 16, nearly finished, three tobacco houses, a corn house, and several other outhouses; a good many apple and peach trees, and a plenty of timber, to support the land. The buildings and fences are in good repair, the soil is extremely good, and the title indisputable.

ALVA HOLLIDAY.

FIFTY POUNDS REWARD. A man away from the subscribers, on the 18th of June last, a considerable sum in half Johannes of nine penny weight, he delivered by him at Quebec, and as he has not yet made his appearance there, with other suspicious circumstances, it is apprehended he is gone off with the money; if he is taken at Rappahannock, or within the high, worthy complexion, very dark best eyes, and parted with the small part of a slender make, stoops as he walks, talks rather slow, with some small impediment in his speech. He lived some time in Boston, from whence he removed to Quebec, assuming the character of a merchant in both places; he was also once in trade in New-Castle, Virginia, and has elsewhere settled there. As it is believed he went on board captain John F. Phym's sloop, and took with him a blue cassimere, and a dark brown cloth coat of cloath.

Whoever secures the said Joseph Thorp in any of his majesty's jails on this continent, shall be entitled to ten per cent on the sum recovered, and the above reward of fifty pounds when convicted. Apply to Cur-John and Seton of New-York, Joseph Wharton, jun. of Philadelphia, Robert Christie of Baltimore, James Gibbon and Co. Virginia, John Bondfield of Quebec, Michael Bourne, or John Rowe of Boston. It is requested of those who may have seen this Joseph Thorp since the 18th of June last past, or know any thing of the road he has taken, that they convey the most early intelligence thereof, in any of the above persons, which will be gratefully acknowledged. All masters of vessels are forewarned from taking him off the continent.

Alexandria, August 4, 1774. A FEW modern LAW BOOKS. A catalogue of them may be seen at the printing office. They are in good order and will be sold on good terms for the purchaser.

W. RAMSAY.
