BEAUME DE VIE.

A most Excellent and Efficacious Family Medicine. The public have so long been imposed upon by a multitude of infallible nostrums, that persons of rank may well be discouraged from offering any calculated for its service; it is presumed, however, that the world will easily distinguish betwixt the pretences of illiterate quacks, and the undeniable attestations of people of the first rank, whose names could never be prostituted to serve a dishonest purpose. This distinction the proprietors of the Beaume de Vie claim from the candour and discernment of the judicious public, whose acknowledgment of its efficacy in removing distempers entirely different in their symptoms, will cease by carefully considering the principles upon which the effects of this medicine are to be accounted for, viz. that all internal disorders take their rise from the stomach; when that is depraved and out of order, we become a prey to a variety of maladies. Our aliments are corrupted and make a bad ferment, which of course causes ill digestion; from hence results a bad chyle, and this last forms a sly and viscid blood, deprived in part of its spirituous and balsamic principles.

The beaume de vie evacuates gently all heterogeneous humours; restores the stomach to its proper tone; reanimates nature without the least violence, quickens the circulation of the blood; absorbs the acid and acrimonious particles, introduces balsamic ones; and restores the whole system to its natural functions. And as a further proof of the efficacy of this excellent medicine, its use is become so general in England that scarce a family is without it.

In all complaints of the stomach it is a sovereign remedy and it may be depended on as such, that there is no one instance wherein the bark in its most extensive use, can be of service, where the beaume de vie is not still more powerful, as well in all gangrenes and mortifications, as agues and intermittents; consequently a medicine cannot be better calculated to prevent and remove the diseases incident to this climate.

It is sold with full directions by Thomas Brooke Hodgkin, at his store on the front of the dock, at the moderate price of one dollar each bottle. And those who wish to be more acquainted with the good effects of this medicine, may there see a pamphlet of cases well attested by persons of veracity.
