48 To be sold by the subscriber, a house and lot adjoining the dock, in the city of Annapolis, lately in the possession of Mr. Isaac M'Hard, and now possessed by Captain Pitt; under the house are four warehouses or cellars, which are very valuable, being so near the dock, the conveniences above are well known, and need no describing; time will be given for payment, on giving bond and security if required. For terms apply to Mr. Robert Couden, or JOHN SWAN.

August 1, 1774. To be rented for three years from the first of October next, a very convenient store house, with a lodging room and counting room adjoining, and a kitchen large enough for a small family, with one acre of ground. The premises are situated on the head of the north-west branch of Langford's bay, in Kent county, (which leads unto Chester river) and on the main road from Rock-Hall to Chelster town, about 6 and a half miles from each. Its situation is thought a good one for a retail store, being in the midst of a fine wheat country, and near to three public tobacco warehouses. If the tenant should choose it, he may have a granary built upon the lot for the receipt of smaller parcels of wheat, and he will have the use of one upon a convenient landing within one mile of the store, to take in larger quantities. For terms, apply to Mr. Thomas Ringgold of Chester-town, or to the subscriber living near the premises. JAMES DUNN

December 15, 1773. SIX POUNDS REWARD. WENT away ten days ago, from the house of the subscriber in the city of Annapolis, a young mulatto woman, called Moll or Polly, about twenty-three years of age, thin and low in stature; she is supposed to be secreted either on the north side of Severn or elsewhere, by a negro man of Mr. John Brice's, called Paul, with which negro she keeps company; if any person except the negro abovementioned, will bring the said mulatto woman to the subscriber, they shall receive a above reward for their trouble, and whoever harbours or entertains her, shall be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. CHARLES CARROLL of Carrollton.

July 31, 1774. RAN away from the subscriber, living at the ferry of post office Alexandria in Prince-George's county Maryland, on Wednesday night the 27th inst, an Irish indentured servant man named Thomas Braton, about 23 years of age 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, much pitted with the small-pox, short sandy colored hair, thin visage, down took, ruddy complexion, and has a rupture in his bowels; had on and took with him, a light coloured Wilton coat, blue broad cloth jacket, striped country ditto, ofsnabrig shirt, Irish linen ditto, a pair of ofsnabrig trousers, striped do. and ditto, buckskin breeches, country made pumps, plated buckles, and felt hat; as he can write a tolerable good hand, it is possible he may forge a pass. Whoever takes up the said servant, and secures him so that his matter may get him again, shall receive three pounds including what the law allows, and reasonable charges paid if brought home, by JOHN CLIFFORD.

N. B. As the aforesaid servant has made several elopements and forged passes, and after being confined has privately made his escape, whoever apprehends him is desired to take particular care to confine him. He has some sundry cloths. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

Rock-Creek, Frederick county, August 3, 1774. RAN away last night from the subscriber, a convict servant man named Joseph Barker, an Englishman, about 23 years of age; he is a well looking fellow, of a ruddy complexion, about 5 feet 10 inches high; had on and took with him, a reddish coloured mixed broad-cloth coat with a velvet cape, two white flannel short jackets bound with red; two pair of nankeen breeches, a pair of old leather breeches, a pair of old worsted stockings, a pair of thread ditto, old shoes, and a felt hat. He wears his own dark hair tied behind. It is supposed he is gone in company with some other man unknown to me, as I have missed two hoes out of my pasture, one of which is a large forrel, about 15 hands high, paces naturally; the other a chestnut forrel, about 14 hands and a half high, paces, wots, and gallops; he is low before, crest fallen, and has a short feanty tail; the horses are both shod before. On each side of the stream, mills might be erected and furnaces; the land affording stone, lime, iron, and lead ore. On one of the streams I have already erected a complete merchant mill, with a pair of the best French burrs for grinding of wheat, and a pair of common stones for grinding of Indian corn; besides this, there is near the dam a fine water-mill, and on the other stream there is a valuable saw-mill. There are five settled and improved plantations on one of them is a good stone house, two stories high with two rooms on a floor, a kitchen, dairy, a very other convenient out-houses; on another plantation where Michael Pike lived, there is a good stone house, and at the other plantations there are overseers houses, negro quarters, barns, stables, tobacco houses, &c. In November I shall be on the premises, and may then be personally treated with. Part of this land, and some of the negroes, belong to my eldest son, who leaves to me the disposition thereof, and will confirm any engagement I enter into on his part. RALPH WORMELY

Those gentlemen that please to favour him with their kind custom, may depend on the gentlest and kindest treatment, and the greatest care taken of their horses; he has also provided himself with able saddle horses, for ladies and gentlemen, which he intends letting out at a reasonable rate; it is needless to add further, as his friends are well convinced of his care and fidelity to strangers and their horses.
