

By the subscriber, living in Harford county, Maryland, Taibot county, from on board the schooner Endeavour, which is certain Richard Coe, a convict; he was brought into this country in February last; had on, when he was brought, an old flannel jacket, a check shirt, and coarse trousers, and took a dirty osnabrig shirt along with him, also a brown coloured coat and jacket about half worn, with plain plated buttons, a pair of white stockings, and plain plated buckles; a pair of white feet high, and stoops or hangs forward as he walks; speaks much in the Lancashire or west of England dialect, and expresses himself very badly; he is of a fair reddish complexion, but of a down look; he is of a fair with the small-pox. Whoever takes up the aforesaid runaway, and secures him in any jail on this coast, shall receive six dollars reward; or, if brought to Deep-Water-Point, Miles-River, Maryland, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, from

JOHN LEE WEBSTER.

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from Alexander Henderson, of Colchester, in Virginia, on the 28th of last month, a convict servant man, named Pooling Horne; but calls himself John Herne; he came into Patowmack in the ship Tayloe; last September, is an Englishman, about 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, with short black hair, a smooth face, and a scar under his left eye; had with him a new light grey jacket and breeches of coarse cloth, with white metal buttons, the jacket lined with striped plaiding, a black waistcoat, brown striped corduroy breeches, light marled stockings and old shoes, two new osnabrig shirts, several other shirts, silk handkerchiefs and other things. He took away a likely black blooded mare, about 14 hands high, a star on her forehead, branded with H on the near shoulder, and M on the near buttock. The above reward will be paid by me for the delivery of the servant and mare at Bladenburgh, or ten pounds for the mare only, and five pounds for the servant when committed to any jail in this province.
