

MARYLAND GAZETTE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1775

Elk-Ridge, January 1775. Mr. Reuben Meriwether was...

Annapolis, January 11, 1775. The subscriber, by wholesale, a parcel of goods...

Annapolis, January 11, 1775. vendue, on Tuesday, the 11th...

Baltimore, January 11, 1775. dry ships from Bristol, a quantity...

ROBERT TYLER. A negro fellow of mine, named Will...

ROBERT TYLER. A negro fellow of mine, named Will...

ROBERT TYLER. A negro fellow of mine, named Will...

WILLIAM WILKINS. Annapolis, November 23, 1774. The ship Annapolis, Capt. Thomas...

WILLIAM WILKINS. Annapolis, November 23, 1774. The ship Annapolis, Capt. Thomas...

WILLIAM WILKINS. Annapolis, November 23, 1774. The ship Annapolis, Capt. Thomas...

PA. R. I. 9. November 14. The day before yesterday, at nine in the morning...

LONDON, November 15. Extra of a letter from Bern dated October 26.

The magistrate here is under great fears, as well the people, with regard to the partition that is going to be made of the thirteen cantons...

Nov. 16. They write from Paris, that two millions of livres are ordered to be raised immediately for the service of the crown.

Nov. 17. A correspondent says, the real friends of America are greatly disappointed that the congress have not resolved on paying for the tea destroyed.

Nov. 18. Sweden, Austria, and the house of Bourbon, will in all human probability figure as allies in the next war...

Nov. 19. Yesterday morning there was a meeting at the court of Temple's house, in Pall-mall...

Nov. 20. A gentleman just come from Norwich asserts, that the trade of that city has not been so brisk as at present for many years past...

Nov. 21. Next Sunday the Lord Chancellor will have a levee at his house in St. James's-street, Bloomsbury...

Nov. 22. The court of Versailles and her allies have, I conceive, had a great monarch of the north...

Nov. 23. The declaration of war of the king of Spain against the emperor of Morocco has removed every scruple...

Nov. 24. A correspondent says, there are the longest appearances of an approaching rupture between the courts of Versailles and Petersburg...

Nov. 25. A private commercial treaty is at this time on the carpet, between our court and that of Berlin.

Nov. 26. The French king has lately issued orders, it is reported, to discontinue the trade of his kingdom...

Nov. 27. Lord North, it is said, has no inclination to prosecute the business formed against the Americans...

Nov. 28. Next Sunday the Lord Chancellor will have a levee at his house in St. James's-street, Bloomsbury...

Nov. 29. The printer of the King's Bench prison, for publishing a letter in their papers some months since, signed, The South Sea...

Nov. 30. Some advices of a very disagreeable nature have been lately received from the court of Stockholm...

Nov. 1. A gentleman just come from Norwich asserts, that the trade of that city has not been so brisk as at present for many years past...

Nov. 2. The declaration of war of the king of Spain against the emperor of Morocco has removed every scruple...

Nov. 3. The day before yesterday, at nine in the morning, the king, after attending divine service at the holy chapel, went to the great chamber of parliament...

Nov. 4. That an humble address be presented to his majesty to return his majesty the thanks of this house for his most gracious speech from the throne...

Nov. 5. Then an amendment was proposed to be made to the said motion, by inserting after the word throne, at the end of the first paragraph, these words...

Nov. 6. The question was put, Whether these words shall be inserted in the said motion? It was resolved in the negative.

Nov. 7. Because we cannot agree to commit ourselves to the care of a common address of remonstrance, in expressions which may lead to measures in the event fatal to the lives, properties, and liberties...

Nov. 8. Whatever methods we should think it advisable to pursue, either in support of the mere authority of parliament, or for reconciling that authority with the peace and satisfaction of the whole empire...

Nov. 9. In this situation we are called upon to make an address, arbitrarily imposing qualities and descriptions upon acts done in the colonies...

Nov. 10. But whatever may be the mischievous designs, or the inconsiderate temerity which leads to this desperate course, we wish to be known as persons who have ever disapproved of measures so pernicious in their effects...

Nov. 11. While these matters were transacting the gallery doors were shut; but permission was given at length to some of the members to introduce several of their friends through the body of the house...

Nov. 12. At 10 o'clock the hurry attending the regulation was complied with, Lord Neuchamp rose and moved for an address to his majesty to return his majesty the thanks of this house for his most gracious speech from the throne...

Nov. 13. The Lord Chancellor, supported his majesty's speech, and the same being read by the clerk...

Nov. 14. The Lord Chancellor, supported his majesty's speech, and the same being read by the clerk...