WILLIAM NOKE, farmer.

Rock-Hall, January 23, 1775.

THIS is to inform the public and my friends in general, that I have removed from Talbot court-house where I formerly kept tavern, to Rock-Hall ferry, which was formerly kept by Mr. Bazil Wheeler, but of late by Mr. William Dunn, where I propose to keep the best boats and hands and every thing necessary for the accommodation of travellers; those who chuse to favour me with their custom, may depend on the best usage, from the public's most humble servant,

ISAAC GREENTREE.

ALL persons indebted to Thomas Harwood, jun. and to Thomas Harwood, jun. and John Bice, are requested to make immediate payment, or otherwise settle to their satisfaction, the longer indulgences will be given; as this is a reasonable request, and long indulgences have already been given, and long steps must be taken to produce payment as will be very disagreeable. Benjamin Harwood, jun. will constantly attend as usual, at the brick building on the front of the dock, for the purpose of receiving payments, or otherwise settling, where it is not immediately convenient to pay.

THE trustees impowered to have a new church built in the city of Annapolis, having contracted for materials, are now ready to treat with workmen; any stone-masons, bricklayers, or carpenters, that are inclined to undertake the work, are desired to apply and deliver their proposals to Mr. Thomas Hyde in Annapolis, one of the trustees.

The money will be expected when the mares are taken away.

HENRY MASSEY HANSON.

SELI M,

CHARLES BEALL.

The noted horse Smiling Tom; a beautiful full blood, equal to Fearnaught, or any other horse on the continent,

STANDS in high perfection for covering mares this season in Charles county, at the subscriber's plantation on Patowmack, near Cedar Point, at twenty shillings the leap, a guinea the season, or two guineas insurance if the money be paid within four weeks after the first day the mare is put to the horse; if it be not paid in that time, it will be a guinea and a half the season, and three guineas insurance; for the convenience of those near me who send mares, I will take corn or wheat delivered at my house or landing at the market prices from such as have it not in their power to pay money. Smiling Tom is 15 hands and almost a half high, a fine chestnut, beautifully marked, remarkable for steadiness and getting fine colts, and of such a form, that seeing the horse is his best recommendation. His pedigree and performances are inferior to none in America, and may be seen by applying to the subscriber.

It may not be amiss to inform the public, that after this season Smiling Tom will not cover at less than one guinea the leap, three guineas the season, and six insurance; except such mares as insure this season and prove not with foal, such may be sent again every season until they prove with foal, as no money will be returned. I have a good pasture for mares as far in America as 60 per week, and all imaginable care shall be taken of them; but will not be answerable for any that may get away, and as no road goes through my pasture, which is almost surrounded with water, there is little or no danger of it.

W. S. J. MYTHE.

WILLIAM DAVIS, Blockmaker.

N. B. It is supposed that he may be along with a man that shows the sight of hand at George Town, or at some other public place.
