TEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away last night, from Hockley forge, on the Main Falls of Potapoco, Maryland, the two following servants, viz. Thomas Burges, born in the West of England, and speaks much in that dialect, about 45 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, well made, good complexion, has short dark brown hair, intermixed a little with grey, and grey eyes; had on and took with him, a half worn felt hat, two osabrig shirts, cotton jacket and breeches, and country made shoes and stockings.

WILL ADAMS, a mulatto, this country born, 23 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, well made, his wool or hair is tinged with red, his complexion generally fair, is an arch fellow, and capable of much deception; had on and took with him, a small hat bound with black worsted binding, two osabrig shirts, one red and white linen handkerchief, blue cloth pea jacket, white kersey breech with red button holes, and country made shoes and stockings. Whoever secures the said servants, so that the subscriber gets them again, shall have, if taken 20 miles from home, 40 shillings; if 30 miles, 3 pounds; and if out of the province, 5 pounds for each, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by

WILLIAM HAMMOND.

N. B. Burges has a lump under his throat, occasioned by a boil.

Baltimore, February 23, 1775, FOR SALE.

THE corner water lot at Fell's Point, lying on Bond and Thame's Creeks, opposite the London coffee-house, with the wharf, granaries, and dwelling-house, at present occupied by Mr. George James. The lot is 220 feet front on the street, and the wharf 120 feet front on the water, well filled in and secured, and has 17 feet water at a common tide. The granaries, to which a ship may lay her side and take in her whole cargo, hold 24,000 bushels, and are strong well built framed houses. The dwelling-house has good cellars, and is sufficient for a small family, with a pump of water at the door, the whole well fenced in. A purchaser may have any reasonable credit, and know the terms, by applying to

JAMES CHRISTIE, jun. or RICHARD CHRISTIE, jun.

Annapolis, February 24, 1775.

TO be sold, a likely young country-born negro wench, about 15 years of age. For terms, apply to

WILLIAM NOKE.

Annapolis, November 1, 1774.

THOMAS PRYSE,

COACH-MAKER, from LONDON.

TAKES this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his shop from the town-gate, to the house opposite doctor Steuarts, near the stable-horse, where he carries on the said business in all its various branches; as he has supplied himself with exceeding good workmen from London; as also every article of the best sort to a very great amount, consisting of several sets of the best steel springs, spring curtains for coach and chariot, brass boxes, &c. &c. He has also a very good coach and chariot painter, that undertakes painting of coaches, chariots, or chairs, either in cypher, festoons of flowers, or coats of arms, with varnishing, gilding, or japanning, in the neatest and best manner, and at the most reasonable rates; those ladies and gentlemen that chuse to favour him with their custom in any of the above branches, may rest assured that his constant endeavours shall be to give satisfaction to those that please to employ him, and the favour gratefully acknowledged, by the public's most humble servant,

THOMAS PRYSE.

N. B. I still continue the saddling and harness-making business as usual, and hope for encouragement from the public, to be sold as above, a quantity of saddlers orrace, and fringe girth wibs, &c. &c.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Chester-town, Kent county, in the province of Maryland, on the 27th day of January last, an indentured servant man, named John Deime, by trade a sawyer and rough carpenter; he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, and wears short light hair, is of a fair complexion, round shouldered, and stoops when he walks; he speaks something in the west of England dialect. He had on, and took with him, an old claret-coloured fur-tout coat, a home-spun close-bodied light brown ditto, which is much too large for him, a short flannel quilted waistcoat, two osabrig shirts, a pair of good buckskin breeches, with a pair of plain yellow knee buckles, two pairs of yarn stockings, the one pair white, the other brown; and pretty good shoes and shoe buckles; he can write a pretty good hand; and it is probable he will forge a discharge from Capt. Samuel Nicholson, (to whom he indentured himself) upon the counter part of his indentures. Whoever secures him in any jail so that he may be had again, shall receive the above reward; and if brought home, reasonable charges will be paid, by

J. NICHOLSON, jun.

WHEREAS the subscriber has repeatedly in a public and private manner, earnestly but unsuccessfully solicited a payment of all sums of money that are due to him, by bond, note, or on open account; he now gives this further and last notice, that every debt which shall not be discharged by the 1st day of April next, or otherwise settled to his satisfaction by that day, will be put into a lawyer's hands, to be recovered by suits at law.

JOSEPH SELBY.

Port-Tobacco, March 7, 1775.

THE committee of Charles county have empowered me to engage a vessel of 2000 to 2500 bushels burthen, to load with grain on Patowmack river, for the use of the poor inhabitants of the town of Bolton; where it is to be delivered. Any person that has such a vessel to charter, and will let me know their terms if they be agreeable, shall have the above freight.

R. T. HOOE.

Annapolis, March 9, 1775.

THE trustees for building a new church in the city of Annapolis, in St. Anne's parish, give notice, that the old church will be pulled down on Monday the 20th instant; and all persons desirous to keep such parts of the said church as have been erected at their private expence, or willing to remove the tomb-stones, are desired to meet the trustees at the church, on that day. Subscribers are desired to pay their subscription money to Mr. Thomas Hyde.

Frederick county, March 14, 1775.

To be sold at public sale, to the highest bidder, on the premises, the first Monday in May next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

ALL my part of that valuable tract of land called Hall's Craft, lying in Calvert county, and containing one hundred and forty-four acres. It is well timbered and the soil good, part of which may be made into excellent meadow at a small expence: it is improved with a dwelling-house sixteen feet square almost new, with a brick chimney, a tobacco-house, kitchen and some other small houses; there is likewise on the land a good apple orchard. Title will be given if required, for one half of the purchase, paying interest and giving security. My brother Patrick will sell the land to any who apply before the day of sale. This is indisputable.

RICHARD SMITH.

N. B. It will not be convenient to give possession until the crop now to be made on the land is secured, but the purchaser will have the liberty of putting in a crop of grain in the fall.

BADGER.

GERMAN-esaabrig, by the piece or bale, and best London bottled wired porter, in casks of six dozen each, to be sold for ready money only, by

JAMES CHRISTIE, jun.

Annapolis, Feb. 25, 1775.

WHEREAS numbers of the inhabitants of Anne Arundel county, had indebted to the subscriber for quit rents which became due on the 25th day of September last. This is therefore to inform such of them that neglect or refuse to pay their several respective balances at or before the 1st day of March next, enjoin, that I will be obliged to take such steps as the law points out for the recovery of the same.

WILLIAM NOKE, farmer.

Rock-Hall, January 13, 1775.

THIS is to inform the public and my friends in general, that I have removed from Talbot court-house where I formerly kept tavern, to Rock-Hall ferry, which was formerly kept by Mr. Bixil Wheeler, but of late by Mr. William Dunn, where I propose to keep the best boys and hands, and every thing necessary for the accommodation of travellers; those who chuse to favour me with their custom, may depend on the best usage, from the public's most humble servant,

ISAAC GREENTREE.

Annapolis, March 22, 1775. ALL persons indebted to Thomas Burwood, jun. and John Price, and to Thomas Hatwood, jun. and John Price, are requested to make immediately a payment of the same, or to settle to their satisfaction, the longest indulgence will be given. As this is a reasonable request, and long indulgences have already been given, those who are not speedily complied with, should be notified, that their steps must be taken to produce payment, or will be very disagreeable. Benjamin Hatwood, jun. will be handsly attend as usual, at the brick building on the front of the dock, for the purpose of receiving payments, or otherwise settling, where he is not immediately consent to pay.

THE trustees empowered to have a new church built in the city of Annapolis, having contracted for materials, are now ready to treat with workmen, any stone-masons, bricklayers, iron carpenters, that are inclined to undertake the work, are desired to apply and deliver their proposals to Mr. Thomas Hyde in Annapolis, one of the trustees.

S E L E M.

WILL cover this season at my plantation, above three miles from Port-Tobacco, near the main road that leads to Bryan town, Benedict and Noting ham, at a guinea a mare, he is rising of five years old, a beautiful blood bay, very active and handsome, in fine order, and very promising; he is generally liked by all that have seen him; his grand sire was the noted Othello, that won seven king's plates, commonly distinguished by Black and all Black; he was got by Mr. Galloway's belim, out of a three quarter blooded mare. he covered sixty-two mares in the year 1773, and fifty-two proved with fold, his odds have turned out so very fine, that several gentlemen have been offered from thirty pounds to fifty, those who send mares any distance, may depend on good pasture and great care, but will not be answerable for any mares that may be lost. The money will be expected when the mares are taken away.

HENRY MASSEY HANSON.

S E L I M.

WILL cover this season at Tulip hill, at five pounds a mare, and five shillings the term. Good pasture and care taken of mares.

To be sold to the highest bidder, at Mr. Minian Bell's, of Ninian, on the 20th day of August next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

TWELVE hundred acres of land, lying on Great Seneca creek, (near the mouth) in Frederick county, Maryland; whereon is three plantations, a great quantity of valuable meadow land, and an exceeding good mill seat. The purchaser is desired to have immediate possession, on giving bond with approved security, payable the 20th day of November 1776; to carry interest from the date of the bond, if not punctually discharged at or on the said day. The land will be laid out in lots suitable to the purchaser. Any person inclinable to view the land, before the day of sale, may apply to Minian Bell, son of Ninian.

CHARLES BELL.

The noted Horse Smiling Tom, a beautiful blood, equal to Farnborough, or any other horse in the continent.

STANDS in high perfection for covering mares in Annapolis in Charles county, at the subscriber's plantation on Patowmack, near Cedar Point, at twenty shillings the leap, a guinea the season, or two guineas insurance if the money be paid within four weeks after the first day the mare is put to the horse; if it be not paid in that time, it will be a guinea and a half the season, and three guineas insurance; for the convenience of those near me who send mares, I will take corn or wheat delivered at my house, or landing at the market prices; from such as have it not in their power to pay money. Smiling Tom is 15 hands and a half high; a fine chestnut, beautifully marked, remarkable for swiftness and getting fine colts, and such a form; that seeing the horse is his best recommendation. His pedigree and performance are superior to none in America, and may be seen by applying to the subscriber.

It may be desirable to inform the public, that this season Smiling Tom will not cover mares but one guinea the leap, three guineas the season, and 4 shillings the insurance; such mares as insure this season, prove not with fold, such may be sent any day of the season until they prove with fold; at no money will be returned. There is good pasture for mares in America at 10 shillings per week, and all mares sent shall be taken care of; but will not be answerable for any that may get away, and in no case will give a shilling for my pasture, which is enclosed and surrounded with water; those mares or horses that are sent to the subscriber, shall be taken care of.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in the point, Baltimore town, a white servant man, named John Carter, about 20 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, and 6 months in the country; a smooth black hair tied with a string, and a good looking face; had on and took with him a half worn blue broad cloth coat, old leather breeches, a new worsted neckerchief, three for him, and a pair of plated buckles, cloth bar shoe buckles, and a check shirt; he has worked some time as a servant in the country, and scores him, to his satisfaction, at 10 shillings the month, and 10 shillings the year; and if out of the country three pounds, and reasonable charges by

WILLIAM DAVIS, blacksmith.

N. B. It is supposed that he may be apprehended that flows the bridge head, at Georgetown, at some other public place.
