my lord, but approve your intention, of least interruption to the important affairs we are now assembled; and it is with us to receive your lordship's assurance of comfort of every individual; but we do observe to your lordship, how impracticable to carry on the business of this session, in a degree of propriety, or with that distant season of the year requires, while so far removed from us, and so inconvenient; we therefore earnestly entreat you will be pleased to return with your grace to the palace, which we are persuaded will give the greatest satisfaction, and be the most likely to bring the minds of the people.

APOLIS June 15, 1775. Our governor has been pleased further to convene the general assembly of this province, on the 15th of July next.

THE PRINTER. I have been much altercation respecting the propriety of altering the planters accounts after they come in this country, by their agents here. It has likewise been said by some, that I did not openly and fairly read Mr. Edward Parkinson's letter of instruction to his clerk, Mr. Edward Parkinson. Now in order to do so odious an imputation, and to silence of that sort for the future, I beg leave to leave to the printer, in this paper, and in all my advertisements of my own, let every gentleman to make use of his own reflections as he thinks fit.

WALTER BOWEN. Printed from Mr. Daniel Stephenson, to Mr. Edward Parkinson.

dry of your favours before me—I really think it the least evil to hand Mr. Bowen's apologizing for your having mistook the letter and to escape suspicion. You will excuse me on this business, from an impossibility of myself. In short, I rest the eligibility of it remain as it is, entirely with yourself. The quality of the tobacco will sufficiently answer the purpose of the sale, and for the mistakes in figures is not unnatural, but as I laid the matter to yourself. In short, my head is so full, I hardly where to begin. Adieu, Your truly, DANIEL STEPHENSON.

Daniel Matzler, and Elizabeth his wife, and Elizabeth M'Manus—Against—Thomas Williams, and Elizabeth his wife; which said Elizabeth is devisee of Christopher Wilkinson, late of Queen-Anne's county, deceased.

WHEREAS the said Daniel Matzler, and Elizabeth his wife, and Elizabeth M'Manus, have filed their bill in this court against the said devisee and administrators of the said Christopher Wilkinson, to compel them to reconvey and assign certain lands therein mentioned, to the complainants which were heretofore mortgaged by them to the said Christopher Wilkinson, they the said complainants paying the principal and interest due on the said mortgage. This is therefore to give notice, that unless the said Thomas Williams, and Elizabeth his wife, do and shall appear to the said bill within six months from the date hereof, and shew cause to the contrary, a final order and decree will pass, and be given by the said court of chancery in the cause aforesaid. Signed per order, GEO. RANKEN, register.

Calvert county, May 1, 1775.

RAN away from the subscriber, a likely well made negro man, named Mial, formerly the property of Mr. Young Parran, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a very black complexion, shews his teeth much when he talks, is generally very compliant, very sensible, has been used to go by water, and possibly may try to pass for a free man; had on when he went away, a blue cloth jacket with a small red under one, cotton trousers made sailor fashion and much tattered, but as he has been gone some time, it is probable he may have changed his cloaths—I have heard he proposed going towards Alexandria in Virginia. Whoever takes up said negro, and brings him to the subscriber near Lower-Marlborough, shall receive twenty dollars, or secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive a reward of five pounds currency, paid by WILLIAM ALLEN.
