Dorchester county, Cambridge, July 3, 1775.
WHEREAS divers persons trading in small vessels up and down the several rivers of this province, have of late frequently come into the rivers in other articles which are prohibited from being imported into this country since the first day of December last, and which, they say, were purchased by them at Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other places in the country, without proper certificates from the merchants they respectively purchased of, that the same goods and merchandizes were imported before the said first day of December; which has put the committee of this county to great trouble and inconvenience, in taking possession of and storing such goods till proper certificates were obtained respecting the same; and has occasioned frequent murmurs of those persons who were thus prevented, by their own negligence, from disposing of their merchandizes, under pretence that they did not think such certificates would be required of goods which were purchased in the country: the committee of the said county desirous to prevent any person in future, from falling into the same disagreeable predicament of having their goods detained till such time as they produce satisfactory vouchers of their merchandise being imported within the time limited by the continental congress, do hereby give notice to all persons whatsoever, that they will not permit or suffer any one to sell or dispose of any goods or mer-chandizes which may be brought into the said county, unless the person or persons to whom the same belong, can produce a certificate from the committee of the place where they purchased such goods, that the same were imported within the time limited as aforesaid.

To be sold at the city of Annapolis, SIX very handsome imported bay coach mares; all of the hunting breed, and allowed by judges to be as fine as any, if not the finest mares upon this continent. It is needless to say more of them, as they are well known, than that they match well, are steady in harness, and are all perfectly sound. Two of them are aged—two others are 6 years old, and the other two 5 years old. £150 sterling was offered last year by a gentleman in Jersey, who is reckoned a good judge of horses, for the oldest pair; but the whole set is now offered for £ 390 sterling, and £ 32 5s. currency paid for covering them, by governor Eden's famous imported horse Badger, by whom they are all supposed to be foal.
Badger will also be sold, now the season is over, for two hundred and fifty guineas—which, in good hands, he would clear next season. s w
