THE dwelling-house &c. where I now reside.
JAMES TILGHMAN, Annapolis.

THERE is at the plantation of Joseph Franklin, living 2 miles from the mouth of Matux river, Frederick county, taken up as a stray, a bay horse, about 5 years old, branded on the rear buttock and shoulder with the letters J. F. A. had on a small bell. The owner may have him again, by proving property and paying charges.

THERE is at the plantation of Isaac Pemberton, at Westover meeting-house, taken up as a stray, a bright bay horse, about 12 hands high, and about 6 years old, has a blaze in his face, a white in his off eye, no perceptible brand. The owner may have him again, on proving property, and paying charges.

THERE is at the plantation of Peter Engle, of Frederick county, taken up as a stray, a small iron gray mare, 6 years old, about 12 hands high, marked on the rear buttock T, p, e, e, and on the left side of her breast with much difficulty, owing as would appear to a blow she has received on her face when a colt. The owner may have her again, on proving his property, and paying charges.

RAN away from the subscriber, a heavy well made negro man, named Mial, formerly the property of Mr. Young Parrae, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a very black complexion, shews his teeth much when he talks, is generally very companionable, very fertile, has been used to go by water, and possibly may try to pass for a free man: had on when he went away, a blue cloth jacket with a small red under one, cotton trousers made full of fashion and much red, but as he has been gone some time, it is probable he may have changed his cloaths—I have had it proposed going to the islands of Alexandria in Virginia. Whoever takes up said negro, and brings him to the subscriber near Lower-Marlborough, shall receive twenty dollars, or secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive a reward of five pounds currency, paid by WILLIAM ALLEIN.

RAN away from the subscriber, near Lower Cedar point, or Patowmack, Charles county, Maryland, an indentured English servant, named Jonathan Whitby, about 16 years old, of a fair complexion, long face, black eyes, dark sandy short hair, and a most remarkable long foot: had on a shirt and trousers, a blue jacket, and a broad brimmed old fine hat, but it is not known what else he may have taken with him, he went off the second of August. Also a likely country born negro fellow, named Harry, with an old shirt and blue jacket, and what else is not known, he is a fair speaking boasting fellow, but a great liar, and stutters in his speech; he has many old marks on his back which he formerly got from his overseer, and ran away on the 12th of July, 1772. I will give 20 shillings for each, if taken 15 miles from home, 30 shillings if taken 20 miles from home, 40 shillings if 30 miles, 40 pounds if 60 miles, and the above reward for both if out of the provinces, or the half for each of them. All persons whatever, are hereby forewarned from harbouring the above runaways, every advantage shall be taken if they do.
F. D. SMYTH.

TO be sold, by the subscribers, a valuable tract of land, lying in Frederick county, about 16 miles from George-town, containing 300 acres, about 100 acres cleared and under good fence; possession will be given the purchaser the first of September next. Any person desirous to purchase, may see the land by applying to Mr. Simon Nickolls, near the premises.

FOUR DOLLARS REWARD.
WENT away the 11th instant from the subscriber, being near Lower-Marlborough, in Calvert county, an English servant man, named Daniel Slude, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, about 46 years of age, brown-complexion, his hair very lately been cut off, and the back of his head fore, his thumb and middle finger of his left hand fresh cut, has a fore heel which occasions him to limp at times, shews his teeth much when he talks, and has the North country dialect, by trade a lawyer, though pretends to be a gardener and weaver: had on and took with him two of nobby or Russia dressing shirts, two pair of osnabrig trousers, a pair of white serge breeches with metal buttons, a new grey fearnought jacket with black horn buttons, a twinikin jacket with black buttons and bound with black leather, an old castor hat, a pair of double soled shoes, and a pair of pumps—I understand he intends to change his name, and if he never would own he was a servant, that he intended to travel of nights to make his escape more secure, and that he intended to Boston to general Gage, who he understood would protect all servants who came to him. Whoever takes up said servant and secures him, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, including what the allow, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by WILLIAM ALLEIN.

TAKEN up as a stray by George Beaman, junr. living on the forks of Lincolne, near David Moore's mill, a bright bay mare, about 12 or 13 hands high, had on a saddle, a black and hanging mane, a horse lock round her neck, and appears to be pretty well broken. The owner may have her again, on proving property, and paying charges.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away from the subscriber, in Prince George's county, opposite Lower-Marlborough, on Monday the 7th instant, two English servants, the one a man, named Edward Richards, by trade a house carpenter and joiner, about 20 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, wears his own hair, which is brown and short: had on a pompadour coloured cloth coat, buckskin breeches, and a pair of silver buckles in his shoes. The other a woman, whose name is Jane Skinner, but may probably pass for his wife: they took with them sundry cloaths, viz. a bracaide, 3 silk and a cloth gowns, several new linen shirts, 5 or 6 pair of new linen flays, some nylons, towels, and table cloths, 2 silver buttons, 5 or 6 pair of womens cotton stockings, and many other things, which they may try to sell for cash to carry them off. Whoever apprehends said servants, so that the subscriber shall get them again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or 50 shillings for either.

THOMAS GANTI, junr.

SIX DOLLARS REWARD.
RAN away on the 14 instant, from the subscriber, living in Kent county, Maryland, an indentured servant man, named Job Hain, about 30 years old, 5 feet 10 or 12 inches high, a miller by trade, born near Bunt 1, in Somerset county, England, from which place he arrived in this country the 23th of May last, in the ship Fleetwood, capt. Charles Siziers: had on and took with him, two check shirts, osnabrig trousers, black stockings, old hat and shoes, whitish jacket, if any other cloaths they are not known; he is round shouldered, and squeak in his talk. Whoever secures the said servant, so that his master may have him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home, reasonable charges, paid by ISAAC PERKINS

A PAIR TO BE SOLD.
A PAIR of very fine charriot geldings, full 15 hands high. Enquire at Mr. Browns, at Annapolis.

To be rented for any term of years, not exceeding fourteen, and entered upon next November, THE houses and ferry opposite to Alexandria, either with or without an adjoining improved plantation; the land whereof is, in general good, with a large quantity of valuable meadow ground. This being a place much frequented, and likely to become daily more so with the rising importance of Alexandria, renders it peculiarly fit either for a tavern, or a place of trade, or both. The buildings now upon it, excepting one new house intended for a kitchen, are but indifferent; it is, therefore, proposed, that the tenant shall, if such as he may judge necessary, for which a proper abatement will be made in the rent. For terms, apply to the Rev. Mr. Jonathan Boucher, or Mr. John Addison near the premises.

To be sold for sterling, or current money, to the highest bidder, at the house of Mrs. Gibson, in Upper-Marlborough, on Friday the 15th of September next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

A VALUABLE tract of land, containing 554 acres, called Moorfields enlarged, lying in Prince George's county, on St. Charles's Branch, about 2 miles from Upper-Marlborough, and about the same distance from Patuxent river; on this land is a well improved plantation, with orchards, &c. a large quantity of meadow land, that may be improved at a small expence. One third of the purchase money to be paid down, one third in twelve months, the other third in two years, with interest.

Also to be rented for one year, or leased for a term of years, a lot whereon the subscriber now lives, situated in the most beautiful part of George-town, with a good framed dwelling-house 30 by 20, 2 rooms on the lower floor with fire places, and 3 above, a cellar and garden below, well walled in with stone, a large garden, stable, and chair-house almost new, and in good repair.

THOMAS JOHNS.
N.B. The land will be sold together, or in parcels, as may best suit the purchasers.

Baltimore, June 17, 1772.
THE ship Finny, burthen about 450 bhd. of Europe, or 14 thousand bushels of grain; also the brig Heet, burthen about 300 bhd. of 8, 8 thousand bushels of grain. For particulars, apply to

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted to the subscriber, either by bond, note, or other account, to immediately come and settle their respective debts, as I am determined to give no longer indulgence, unless I have this requisition will be advertised, otherwise I shall take compulsory methods to enforce payment, without any respect to persons.
JOSEPH DUVALL.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Kent county, Maryland, the 3th of this instant, two Irish indentured servants, each of which has about three years to serve, viz.

FRANCIS MANIS, about thirty years of age, a very stout well made fellow, about five feet ten inches high, very full faced, short dark hair; had on and took with him, a good brown broad cloth coat, and black velvet jacket and breeches, and a pair of black everlasting breeches, with yellow metal buttons, an old blue coat with new large sleeves, shirts, shoes and stockings; his calling a ditcher or brickmaker.

JOHN DELANY, about 26 years of age, five feet eight inches high, well made, fair skin, ruddy complexion, short brown hair; had on and took with him, a green jacket made a la mode, a purple under jacket, a white shirt, one or two check shirts, wool worn, a new felt hat, a black silk handkerchief round his neck, a pair of white kersey breeches, and a pair of blue serge breeches, one pair of Scotch Kilmarnock and one pair of Kendall ribbed hose mixed black and white, a pair of half worn shoes, and square heel buckles, he writes a good hand; and they have both been in different parts of Pennsylvania. Whoever takes up the above said servants, and secures them so that the subscriber may have them again, shall receive ten pounds reward, if taken out of the province; if in the province, six pounds, or half the above reward for either, by

Daniel Matzler, and Elizabeth his wife, and Elizabeth M'Manus—Against—Thomas Williams, and Elizabeth his wife; which said Elizabeth is devisee of Christopher Wilkinfon, late of Queen-Anne's county, deceased.

IN CHANCERY.
WHEREAS the said Daniel Matzler, and Elizabeth his wife, and Elizabeth M'Manus, have filed their bill in this court against the said devisee and administrators of the said Christopher Wilkinfon, to compel them to reconvey and discharge certain lands here-mentioned, to the complainants, which were heretofore mortgaged by them to the said Christopher Wilkinfon, they the said complainants paying the principal and interest due, on the said mortgage. This is therefore to give notice, that unless the said Thomas Williams, and Elizabeth his wife, do and shall appear to the said bill within six months from the date hereof, and shew cause to the contrary, a final decree will pass, and be given by the said court in favour of the said Matzler, &c.

Baltimore county, Patapsco Neck, April 3, 1775.
TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

JAMES, a mulatto slave, sometimes known by the name of Vulcan, but commonly answers to the name of Buck, took on abrupt leave of his overseer last Wednesday, and has not yet returned; he is a dark mulatto, about 5 feet 9 inches high, strong made, sensible, artful, and deceptive in conversation, firm and daring in his efforts to perpetrate villainy, tho' of mild temper, and plausible in speech: he has frequently travelled through a considerable part of this and some parts of the province of Pennsylvania; is well known, it is supposed, in the borough and county of Lancaster, and is acquainted with Philadelphia; may probably therefore re-visit those places. His working cloaths were a home manufactured long cloth waistcoat with sleeves, and breeches, yarn stockings, osnabrig shirt, and good shoes, nailed with lobs; he is possessed of and has taken with him a blue-German serge coat, a green broad cloth vest, two pair of cotton and one pair of thread stockings; two white shirts ruffled at the breast, a good castor-hat with band and buckle, a pair of good pumps, with a pair of double rimmed silver buckles. He has a mark of distinction, which from modesty, or some other motive, he is careful to conceal; one of his ears (but which is forgot) is remarkably less than the other. The above reward will be paid if he should be taken up out of the province, or 60 miles from Baltimore town in the province, and brought home; five pounds if at the distance of 40 miles, three pounds if 30, and forty shillings if 20 miles, with reasonable travelling expences, including the legal charge under the act of assembly, by THOMAS JONES.

Frederick county, August 15, 1775.
To all whom it may concern,

WHEREAS Sarah Helm, my wife, hath cleped from me, after running me into sundry debts, the public is hereby desired not to credit her, the said Sarah Helm, any more upon any account, until she will not pay any debts contracted by her, after the date hereof.
