Whoever will take up said negro, and bring him to the subscriber, near Hunting-town, in the aforesaid county, or secures him in any manner so that he may be had again, shall receive a reward of 5 pounds currency, and if taken 20 miles from home, 20 dollars.

Forty Dollars, or Fifteen Pounds Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, near lower Cedar point, on Patowmack, Charles county, Maryland, an indentured English servant boy, named Jonathan Whitby, about 16 years old, fresh complexion, long face, black eyes, dark sandy short hair, and a most remarkable long foot; had on a shirt and trousers, a short black jacket; and a broad brimmed old fine hat, but it is not known what else he may have taken with him, he went off the second of August. Also a likely country born negro fellow, named Harry, with an old shirt and blue jacket, and what else is not known, he is a fair speaking bustling fellow, but a great liar, and stutters in his speech; he has many old marks on his back which he formerly got from his overseers, and ran away on the 11th of July, 1775. I will give 20 shillings for each, if taken 15 miles from home, 30 shillings if taken 20 miles from home, 40 shillings if 30 miles, 4 pounds if 60 miles, and the above reward for both if out of the province, or the half for one of them. All persons whatever, are hereby forewarned from harbouring the above runaways, as every advantage shall be taken if they do.

Calvert county, May 1, 1775.
RAN away from the subscriber, a likely well made negro man, named Mial, formerly the property of Mr. Young Parran, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a very black complexion, shews his teeth much when he talks, is generally very complaisant, very sensible, has been used to go by water, and possibly may try to pass for a free man: had on when he went away, a blue cloth jacket with a small red under one, cotton trousers made sailor fashion and much tarred, but as he has been gone some time, it is probable he may have changed his cloaths—I have heard he proposed going towards Alexandria in Virginia. Whoever takes up said negro, and brings him to the subscriber near Lower-Marlborough, shall receive twenty dollars, or secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive a reward of five pounds currency, paid by
 WILLIAM ALLEIN.

THE dwelling-house &c. where I now reside.
 JAMES TILGHMAN, Annapolis.

WENT away the first instant from the subscriber, living near Lower-Marlborough, in Calvert county, an English servant man, named Daniel Slude, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well made, about 46 years of age, brown complexion, his hair very lately been cut off, and the back of his head sore, his thumb and middle finger of his left hand fresh cut, has a sore heel which occasions him to limp at times, shews his teeth much when he talks, and has the North country dialect, by trade a Sawyer, though pretends to be a gardener and weaver: had on and took with him two onabrig or Russia sheeting shirts, two pair of onabrig trousers, a pair of white serge breeches with metal buttons, a new grey fearnought jacket with black horn buttons, a swanikin jacket with black buttons and bound with black serret, an old castor hat, a pair of double soled shoes double vamp'd—I understand he intends to change his name, and said he never would own he was a servant, that he intended to travel of nights to make his escape more secure, and that he intended to Boston to general Gage, who he understood would protect all servants who came to him. Whoever takes up said servant and secures him, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, including what the allows, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by WILLIAM ALLEIN.

RAN away on the 14th instant, from the subscriber, living in Kent county, Maryland, an indentured servant man, named Job Hair, about 32 years old, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, a malster by trade, born near Bristol, in Somerset county, England, from which place he arrived in this country the 28th of May last, in the ship Fleetwood, capt. Charles Slezar: had on and took with him, two check shirts, onabrig trousers, black stockings, old hat and shoes, whitish jacket, if any other cloaths they are not known; he is round shouldered, and squeals in his talk. Whoever secures the said servant, so that his master may have him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home, reasonable charges, paid by

THE houses and ferry opposite to Alexandria, either with or without an adjoining improved plantation; the land whereof is, in general good, with a large quantity of valuable meadow ground. This being a place much frequented, and likely to become daily more so with the rising importance of Alexandria, renders it peculiarly fit either for a tavern, or a place of trade, or both. The buildings now upon it, excepting one new house intended for a kitchen, are but indifferent; it is, therefore, proposed, that the tenant shall erect such as he may judge necessary, for which a proper abatement will be made in the rent. For terms, apply to the Rev. Mr. Jonathan Boucher, or Mr. John Addison near the premises.

His working cloaths were a home manufactured long cloak waistcoat with sleeves, and breeches, yarn stockings, onabrig shirt, and good shoes, nailed with hobbs: he is possessed of and has taken with him a blue German serge coat, a green broad cloth vest, two pair of cotton and one pair of thread stockings, two white shirts ruffled at the breast, a good castor hat with band and buckle, a pair of good pumps, with a pair of double rimmed silver buckles. He has a mark of distinction, which from modesty, or some other motive, he is careful to conceal; one of his ears (but which is to go) is remarkably less than the other. The above reward will be paid if he should be taken up out of the province, or 60 miles from Baltimore town in the province, and brought home; five pounds if at the distance of 40 miles, three pounds if 30, and forty shillings if 20 miles, with reasonable travelling expences, including the legal charge under the act of assembly, by
