Head Quarters, Cambridge, Aug. 19. You on the 11th instant in terms which... scope for the exercise of that humanity... which were supposed to form a part of... I remonstrated with you on the un... shewn to the officers and citizens of... the fortune of war, chance, or a mis... had thrown into your hands.

Yesterday several parties of marines went into the country on the recruiting service. We hear that orders are come down for all the marines at this port to hold themselves in readiness to embark for America, on the shortest notice.

Yesterday several promotions of military officers were made at St. James's, in the room of those killed in America, and for the augmentation of troops which are ordered to hold themselves in readiness to embark for America, to reinforce the army under general Gage.

On Saturday last we had a most violent storm of wind and rain here. It began about six o'clock in the morning, the wind at N. E. and continued till about two in the afternoon, when the wind changed to W. N. W. The utmost violence of the gale was observed to be from two till four o'clock, when providentially the storm abated; otherwise the fresh gusts must have been thrown into the harbour, and would probably have overflowed the greater part of the town.

A sloop, capt. Mulford, from New-York, drove up Mr. Hill's wharf, whereby a large breach was made in her bottom; a sloop, capt. Dogget, from St. Croix, went ashore at Green Spring but did not receive much injury; sloop 'Skey', capt. Cochran, is ashore at Bear River; ship Harmony, capt. Greenaway, and a sloop, capt. Bell, were drove ashore below Otter Creek, the former of which has suffered considerable damage.

The following account from the Bar we were favoured with by capt. Green, just arrived from thence. Capt. Thomas Kent, of Boston; Capt. James Watt, of Philadelphia; capt. Hooton, of Plymouth; captains John Kennedy, Thomas White, Genedo, Buck, Stringer, Webster, and Truell, of North-Carolina; capt. Annibal, from New-York for Cape Fear; capt. Stetcher, capt. Dudley, and five other vessels, not known, are all supposed to be lost, together with their crews, as they have not since been heard of.

Capt. Barber, of Pasquotank, the crew saved. Capt. James, of Marblehead; two men saved. Capt. Hastie, of Glasgow, one man lost. Capt. Sifton, of Whitehaven, four men saved. Captains Madelin, Vohartine, and Hackburn, of North-Carolina, all saved. Capt. Clarke, of Edenton, four men lost. Capt. Thompson, of Glasgow, one man lost. Capt. Cullen Clark, of Virginia, all saved. Capt. Parker, of Pasquotank, on shore at Hatteras. Capt. Drinkwater, ashore. Three vessels, masters names not known, ashore at Hatteras. Captains Collier and Harman were drove off, but since returned.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) September 15. John Macartney, Esq; late of his Majesty's ship Mercury, we are informed, is robbed of his commission by Lord Dunmore, because he would not agree in all his Lordship's measures. We understand that this amiable gentleman is to be sent to Boston, there to take his trial before a court martial: for what?—Because probably, he would not consent to be a sheep-stealer, or a slave to those creatures of infamy, who pursue nothing but the destruction of this unhappy country.
