

of Boston. The gentlemen, lament the miseries brought upon this happy country, through the deep dejection, and contrivances of ambitious men, to raise themselves to power and emoluments...

NEWPORT, Oct. 30. Wednesday arrived here his Majesty's sloop of war, from New York, having taken two brigs with salt, and a large sloop loaded with rum and fire...

PHILADELPHIA. CONGRESS, Oct. 18, 1775. That a just and well authenticated report of the Committee of the Continental Congress, since last March, be collected, and the evidence of the truth of the same, with the value of the buildings destroyed by them...

CONGRESS, Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1775. That all Letters to and from the Directors of the United Colonies, during the session, be open, and be carried free of postage...

Philadelphia, Nov. 9, 1775. Authentic intelligence from London, by the late Mr. Penn, was sent to the Secretary of the Continental Congress...

The Tamar frigate took the powder out of the galleons, on their arrival at Philadelphia...

Falmouth, soon after the arrival of the ship. Cancans, Falmouth, Oct. 16, 1775. AFTER for many premeditated attacks on the legal prerogative of the best of sovereigns, after the repeated instances you have experienced in Britain's long forbearance of the rod of correction, and the manifest paternal extension of her hands to embrace again...

ANNAPOLIS, November 16. The general assembly of this province is further prorogued to the 5th day of December next.

BY THE COUNCIL OF SAFETY OF MARYLAND, October 25, 1775. THE COMMITTEES OF OBSERVATION are requested to complete their returns of the minute and militia officers...

THE COUNCIL OF SAFETY desirous of forwarding the manufacture of salt, saltpetre, gunpowder, and fire arms, request any persons who are inclined to engage on liberal encouragement in the neighbourhood of Baltimore town...

Baltimore, November 1, 1775. GEORGE CHALMERS, Esq., who lately failed for London, left in my care all his clients papers, and as there are many still not called for...

Annapolis, November 16, 1775. OUR partnership being expired, all persons interested to us are requested to settle as soon as they possibly can those who have accounts against us...

Queen-Tree, Patuxent, Nov. 4, 1775. To be sold by the subscriber.

An indentured servant man about 30 years of age; who has three years and seven months to serve; he has always served in genteel families in England...

SIX POUNDS REWARD. STOLEN away from the subscriber; on Tuesday night the 10th inst. a dark bay or brown horse...

STOLEN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday night the 10th inst. a dark bay or brown horse, 10 or 11 years old last spring, upwards of 15 hands high...

By THOMAS C. WILLIAMS and COMP. At their Store on the Head of the Dock; a large Assortment of dry Goods, CONSISTING OF

SUPERFINE middling scarlet cloth cloaks, and coarse beaver cloths; fashionable silk cloaks, Mill'd drabs for great hats, blue and white fat-ink, blue and white fat-ink peelongs, Back and white fattins, Black & mozeens, Ell black and white dupes, Flowered and tobin'd lino, St iped and plain lute-brings, Ell English Perfians, Silver table and tea-spoons, Manchester velvets and silver shoe and knee buckles, Plated pint and 1/2 pint mugs, Harry 8th best cards, Cotton candle wick, Mens bath shoes and boots, Se ne twine and jack lines, Scotch and pearl barley, S-fit pe s in kegs, Dutch ovens, iron pots, Fryng pans, spades and shovels, Best Florence oil, by the case or bottle, A few sets blue and white, A few sets white, and enamel'd china, An all'ment of queen's and lady's ware, A few casks of glas, delf, and white stone ware, to be sold by the cask - many other articles too tedious to mention.

WET GOODS AS USUAL, viz. Old Madeira wine by dr, dia and continent rum, Red and white Lisbon wine, Melass, and single refined, in quarter cask, loaf sugar, Sweet mountain and com-Muscovado sugar, &c &c. mon white by the gallon, which they will fill low, Best cane spirits, West In-dia for call only.

On Wednesday the 22d day of this instant November, if fair, if not the next fair day, will be sold to the highest bidder, for good Spanish dollars, the virtue of a deed of trust from Edward Doron, to the subscriber,

To be sold to the highest bidder, on Monday the 4th of December, at the dwelling house of the late John Gott; TWO negroes, one a fellow, the other a girl; also the stock, consisting of horses, cattle, and hogs, with the plantation utensils, bonds with approved security will be taken for sums above five pounds ready money exchanged for all less sums.

Maryland, Milford county, October 23, 1775. FIVE POUNDS REWARD. RAN away, on the night of the 21st instant, two convicts, viz. William Manly, a well made fellow, about 23 or 29 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high...

FIVE POUNDS REWARD. RAN away last night from the subscriber, living near the Northampton iron-works, Baltimore county, Maryland, a convict servant man, an Englishman, named Thomas Hardy, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, gray eyes, short gray hair...

Following servants, viz. William Webster, an Englishman, a hairer by trade, about 25 or 26 years of age, long dark brown hair, curled behind, turned up before, and curled at the ears, thin faced, thick lips, and walks parrot-like...

To be lett THE dwelling-house &c. in now reside. JAMES TILGEMAN, Annapolis.

Lower-Mulhousen, Oct. 31, 1775. TO THE PUBLIC. BE known, that the subscribers to the Lower-Mulhousen academy, having met on the 21st day of October, to give ballot for the following gentlemen...

Anna, on November 3, 1775. STOLEN in the night of the 25th of October last, from on board a small schooner boat, lying in the harbour of Poplar Island, the main ad fore-sail of the said boat...

THE subscriber proposes to remove with his family some time in the month of December, from the plantation he now lives on in Calvert county, to the creek, & requests all persons who have any claims against him in the aforesaid county, to bring them in, that they may be adjusted and paid...

FIVE POUNDS REWARD. RAN away last night from the subscriber, living near the Northampton iron-works, Baltimore county, Maryland, a convict servant man, an Englishman, named Thomas Hardy, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, gray eyes, short gray hair...